PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, Nov. 1, 1893.

Court Items.

Michael Conner, the Price constable, who was beaten and imprisoned by Saloonkeeper John B. Milburn, was awarded $500 damages.

In the Wilbeck mail robbery case, a motion for an arrest of judgment was made on the ground that the indictment did not set forth the value of the certificate of deposit for that it belonged to some party other than the defendant. Judge Hoffin will render a decision on the motion today.

Notes.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Ephraim W. Finley and Sarah Ann Yates of Benjamin, and Franklin M. Allred and Polly Bigelow of Walsburg, Wasatch county.

Hereafter, by decision of the city council, the volunteer fire laddies will receive 50 cents for the first hour and 25 cents an hour thereafter for services at all fires.

The Republicans will have a big torch light procession and rally this evening at the Opera House. Hon. Frank J. Cannon, it is expected, will be present.

At the semi-annual conference of the Utah State of Zion, commencing November 18th, a grand competitive concert, in which four hundred voices will take part, will be an interesting feature.

Middle Tennessee Conference.

The Middle Tennessee conference held Saturday and Sunday, October 14 and 15, on Mine Lick, eleven miles northeast of Smithville, will long be remembered with joy by the Elders and Saints who had come from far and near to participate in the spiritual feast. There were present Elder J. Golden Kimball, mission president, Elder George A. Smith, from the Chattanooga office; Elders W. W. Rowe, conference president, Benjamin Gardner, Riley G. Williams, H. L. Hunter, George S. McAllister, Don C. Rushton, Henry Smedley, J. H. Thomas, A. Y. Duke and Heber C. Iverson. Among the Saints who were present were: Joseph McKee, familiarly known to the Elders who are traveling now or have traveled at any time through this locality during the past forty years as "Uncle Joe;" for as he humorously remarked, "I have been a father and an uncle to the Mormon Elders for forty years past;" also Henry Bartlett, son and daughter, Sister Kate Young and daughter, "Grandma" Thompson, Felix Vernon, Isaac Roberts, Robert Davis, Sisters Martha Davis, Frances Lafever, Curtis Sherrill, Jordan Sherrill and families, John Watson and family. The unmuzzled children, hospitality of Saints and friendly interest toward the Elders, visiting members of the Church, and the numerous friends who were in attendance can never be forgotten.

Saturday's meetings were fairly well attended. On Sunday the house was packed to overflowing. Many stood by open doors and windows listening attentively to the instructions given. Joseph Elder dwelt chiefly upon one of the fundamental principles of the Gospel plan of salvation. Powerful discourses were delivered by President Kimball and Elder Smith, in which they very impressively portrayed the position of the Latter-day Saints, tracing their history since the Church organization. The discourses were listened to with interest. The people felt at the close of conference, that they had received an hundred-fold in return for their trouble in coming to the meetings, some of them from a considerable distance.

The reports were encouraging, showing over thirty baptisms since last conference.

Many people who were once bitterly opposed to the Saints are becoming interested, and beginning to investigate the doctrines of the Gospel.

The Elders lose no opportunity to raise the warning voice and spread the Gospel truths.

By request a meeting was held in the Smithville court house on Monday night following the conference. Smithville is the county seat of De Kalb county. Appropriate remarks were made by President Kimball and Elder George A. Smith. An unexpected and therefore the more highly appreciated, reception was tendered the Elders as they were about to retire. This was a surprise to the Smithville string band, who came, were invited into our room, and played several beautiful selections.

The following appointments were made at our last council meeting: Elders W. W. Rowe and J. H. Thomas, to labor in De Kalb and White counties; Elder Riley G. Williams and A. Y. Duke to labor in Van Buren county; Elders Benjamin Gardner and George S. McAllister to labor in Macon county; Elders Don C. Rushton and Henry Smedley to labor in Cumberland county; Elder H. L. Hunter and Heber C. Iverson to labor in Fentress and Pickett counties.

The Elders of this conference regretfully mark the death of "Grandma" Jane Maxwell, whose noble spirit passed away on the 16th of September last. Sister Maxwell was born December 4, 1817, and was baptized June 7, 1842. She was a friend and favorite among the Elders.

HYRUM C. IVERSON,
Secretary.

All lovers of home who saw the beautiful oil painting representing the "Awakening of Love," in the Mallin's Food exhibit at the World's Fair, will be glad to know that the World's Fair Commissioners have granted to Mallin's Food the highest award for infants' foods—a medal and a diploma.

IMPORTED LEGAL VOTERS

Persons Favoring An Honest Election Bring Them to Report to the Committee's Headquarters.

Citizens of Salt Lake. Information of undoubted character reaches us from various parts of the city, especially from the Fifth and Second Precincts, that the issue of imported voters with whom the Liberal leaders hope to carry the city are beginning to make their appearance with the intention of voting on Tuesday next. Empty houses are being filled up by small squads of men who need them for periods reaching just beyond election day. These men will attempt to vote the names of the 800 or more whom the various deputy registrars called to find in making their canvass of the city, but who came in droves to Registrar Walker's office and registered there, swearing that they lived at various addresses in the First, Second or Fifth precincts. A second and thorough canvass has failed to find these men, many of the addresses given being in vacant lots, in stores, or residences of well known citizens.

We ask all people who wish to see a fair and honest election on Tuesday next to promptly report to Citizens' Headquarters, Hooper Block, any suspicious cases coming under their notice where numbers of men move into vacant houses, or stores or hording houses or Hotels within the next six days. Prompt reports will enable the committee to take steps for the detection of frauds, and aid in securing a fair and honest expression of honest citizens and bona fide property holders at the coming momentous election.

HAS CURED

Dyspepsia, Incipient Bright's, Diabetes, Kidney Troubles, Indigestion, Nervous Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, Constipation, Gravel, Rheumatism, Catarrh of the Bowels, Liver Difficulties, Female Complaints, Catarrh and Inflammation of the Bladder.

SEE WHAT IT HAS DONE FOR ME

I am as good as one risen from the dead. A few months ago I had given myself up to die, and by mere chance I heard of Miller's Geneva Mineral Water, from Geneva, New York. I called at the Water Depot in Portland, Oregon. I told the agent I had been afflicted for many years with what is called Cystitis, or inflammation of the bladder, also diabetes, that I had lost fifty pounds weight in the last year, and that I would soon pass to an unknown sphere. I have spent thousands of dollars on doctors and medicine, and all to no avail; and was using medicine all the time for the last six years, by the time I had used five gallons of the Geneva Water I was completely well. Oh, how sorry, all you that are afflicted and suffering with Urinary Troubles or Stomach Ailments of any kind, the Geneva Mineral Water will cure you. It has cured me.

Come and see me and judge for yourself. 108 Post office Block, Salt Lake City.
