OUR OWN STATE.

OGDEN.

United States and Second District Court Notes—City Council Notes.

Special Correspondence.

Ogden, March 14.—The adjourned session of the United States district court was held yesterday. The entire forenoon was occupied in impaneling the grand jury, which is as follows:

Abel J. Evans, foreman; W. V. Eberly, W. H. Dougall, W. H. Pickering, Henry Carrington, George E. Hale, Joseph W. Maynes, George Calder, R. E. Miller, Thomas W. Peters, J. C. Murphy, A. V. Nash, Salt Lake; John S. Carlon, Ogden; John Bringhurst, Springville; R. J. Sheffield, Kaysville; M. F. Darley, Wellsville; James Calder, Thomas Groves, Farmington; Joseph Sowby, W. J. Steed, Farmington; Joseph Coats Sr., Lehi; George F. Morley, Mount Pleasant; George H. Blair and John H. Cardon were excused. A. V. Nash and George F. Morley were not served.

George H. Blair and John H. Cardon were excused. A. V. Nash and George F. Morley were not served.

The following were called in petit jurors: Alfred Smalley, George Sommer, Jr., T. W. Jennings, J. C. Cutler, W. F. Nesbitt, A. F. Cummings, J. W. Fox, T. A. Clawson, R. B. Eldredge, Shepard Crowther, Henry Green, J. F. Hardy, J. J. Daly, H. Anderson, Salt Lake; John Hills, Ogden; Richard Fox, Morgan; Hyrum Peck, Weber; Woods Cross, Robert Dale, Uintah; James Kimball, Kaysville; Aaron Porter, Centerville.

Bench warrants were issued for Robert Gale and A. H. Porter, who failed to answer the summons to appear.

The petit jurors were excused until 10 o'clock this morning, at which time the cases against Thomas Bee for irrigation and Ogden Waterworks company were set for hearing.

In the case of Fred A. Abel & Co. vs the San Francisco Insurance company, the motion of the defendant for exoneration, which was argued last Monday, was denied.

The court heard objections of Crosby & Brickson, W. H. Wolfe & Co., Hodgeson & Co. et al, to the discharge of E. J. Harrocks, in the matter of voluntary bankruptcy.

The grand jury was in session during the afternoon.

SECOND DISTRICT COURT.

The following matters came before Judge Hagan in the second district court yesterday:

Joseph Barker vs John Woodhouse; motion to retax costs filed by accessing costs against the defendant, except the attendance of defendant's witnesses for one day.

Samuel Halverson vs Dora H. Topham; costs reduced by $2.40.

J. M. Corey et al. W. H. Hinckes et al; demurrer sustained and ten days given in which to amend.

The hearing of the certiorari proceedings of A. L. Fryer vs Achilles Pearce, justice of the peace, was set for Wednesday at 1 o'clock p.m.

The court adjourned until 2 o'clock p.m. today.

COUNTY SCHOOLS.

Reports of the county schools for the half-term ending March 4th, are as follows: Enrollment, 2,360; average attendance, 90 per cent; number of visits by trustees, 38; per cent; number of trustees, 12; number punished corporally, 2. Considerable sickness is reported in the schools at districts. Parents and trustees visit the schools frequently. Lack of funds will necessitate the closing of several schools in the near future.

OGDEN CITY COUNCIL.

The council met at 8:30 p. m. with all members present except Councilman Ach, who is in the East.

The rules were suspended, and the bids for sprinkling wagons were opened. The bids were as follows:

Bidder.	350 Gal. Wgn.	600 Gal. Wgn.
Geo. A. Lowe	$200.00	$219.00
Con. Ind. Co.	345.00	299.00
Bradshaw Bros.
Mfg. Co.	222.00	215.00

Referred to the committee of the whole.

The petition of the W. C. T. U. asking repeal of glove contest license was denied, and the committee recommended that the license fee be raised from $100 to $500. Report adopted.

Sundry claims were allowed in the amount of $676.87. A pay roll amounting to $387 were passed. The Lynne Irrigation company were was allowed $50 for cleaning a siphon on Washington avenue and Poll Tax Collector E. A. Stratford received $2.60 for collections.

The bo ond of Frank G. Berry was pronounced in a fine sanitary condition and the sanitary inspector was ordered to issue a certificate.

City Recorder E. H. Anderson reported that a gentleman had been served on the wages of L. D. Lee one of the firemen; that the recorder had paid no attention to such gentlemen, that for this reason he had been summoned before the justices' court, which court A. Pierce, Justice, had rendered judgment against the city for $27.50. In order to test the liability of the city to be garnisheed, the recorder thought the case should be appealed. On motion of Councilman Weatherby he attorney was instructed to appeal the case to the district court.

In a remonstrance to the council, the attorneys declared that one fee only can be collected from a merchant contractor, in a case like Lee's, although the business may be carried on in different places. He must, however, be taxed upon the amount of business carried. The question arose over Wright & Sons refusing to pay license on more than one place. Filed.

The attorney also explained that in the Bowman case, the judge held that the city could compel a contractor to take out a license precedent to practicing his profession, but held that on occupation tax could be levied on professional men and collected, but not by fine and imprisonment. Filed.

Lewis Collection Weather Co. had filed his bond in the sum of $2,000, signed by John W. Chambers and John L. Herrick. Approved.

The poll tax register, notices and receipts were approved by the council, and ordered printed.

Interest amounting to $1,254.32 on improvement bonds of 1892 was ordered paid.

H. H. Thomas and ten others asked to have 24th street and Madison avenue graded on the corners between 27th and 28th street. Street committee.

All the public parks were ordered to be in charge of the parties who had charge of them last year, at the same price, on report and recommendation of the Committee on Public Grounds.

A remonstrance against discharging the fire hose company collectors, who served during 1898, being introduced by Councilman Pingree, Morent Poulter will serve as collector for the whole city for 1899.

The cemetery ordinance passed 3rd reading and an ordinance passed 3d reading defining a boarding house, keeper as one who rents more than ten rooms and boards more than two persons.

The matter of providing new pole and fire ordinances as per request of the of the Legislature was referred to the committee on laws and fire to report at next meeting.

The matter of appealing the case of city vs Bowman, was referred to the committee on laws and power to act, to report to the city attorney.

One hundred dollars was appropriated to the Mayor's contingent fund.

Four sprinkling wagons of 600 gallons capacity were ordered of the Studebaker Bros. Manufacturing company, at $215; and one of 750 gallons capacity $225. Adjourned at midnight for one week.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Ex-Senator Frank J. Cannon was a visitor to Salt Lake yesterday.

Attorney Broderick of Boise, Idaho, is in the city visiting James R. Bower.

The Second ward choir will give a party and dance in the amusement hall Thursday evening.

Bert Olson, private secretary to ex-Representative King, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hansen.

The bloom cause which were to have been heard before Police Justice Allen last evening were indefinitely postponed.

Charles Meghan received his letter of appointment as postmaster of Ogden yesterday, and was busy during the day in getting his bond filed.

M. F. Murray of the Eighth Ward, now arrested for a second time, for the United States district court, was released on his own recognizance and left for home last evening.

Willis R., son of Theodore and Maud Herman, aged two years, nine months and twenty-eight days, died Friday evening. The funeral was held from the family residence at 2 o'clock yesterday.

Hon. C. W. Miller, ex-mayor of Meadville, Pa., on route to Boise, Idaho, to look after some mining interests, stopped over in Ogden yesterday and visited his old friend Chief Ed Davenport.

Parley L. Williams, United States Marshal for Utah, and John H. Miller, United States Marshal for Idaho and Attorney A. T. Rhineher were in attendance at the United States district court yesterday.

PROVO.

Business Before County Commissioners—Fourth District Court.

Provo, March 14.—At the meeting of county commissioners held yesterday, a communication was received from Secretary of State Hammond to the effect that the claim of Utah county for $25.38, one-half cost of platting for the assessor for 1898, had been rejected, on the ground that it is the duty of the county surveyor to prepare maps and plats without any compensation in addition to his salary.

Gorman Ellsworth was appointed bee inspector for Payson, Salem and Spring Lake.

T. M. Smith's resignation as constable of Cedar Fort precinct was referred to the commissioner Davis.

The treasurer of Millard county asked for one-half of taxes of transient sheep herds owned in Utah county and assessed in Millard county, the assessed valuation of sheep so assessed amounts to $21,338. Taken under advisement.

A communication from City Recorder Nelson asking a reduction of $24.20 made from a claim of the county for $214.80 against the city for expenses of the court house. The communication was referred to Commissioner Moses Evans; he to consult with a committee from the city council with a view to arriving at an understanding as to court house equities.

Messrs. Brown & Smith of Colton were granted a retail liquor license.

All the bids were received for the proposed addition to the court house were rejected as they were considered too high.

The county treasurer presented the following report of the general fund for February:

Balance on hand Feb. 1st	$11,526.82
Receipts during February	866.68
Total	$12,393.50
Disbursed	2,545.42
Balance on hand March 1....	$ 9,847.98

The same official reported as follows of the State and county school fund:

Balance on hand, Feb. 1st....	$816.95
Receipts during February....	14.84
Total	$831.49
Disbursed....	664.38
Balance on hand March 1st....	$165.71

The following bills were reported collected during February:

County clerk	$596.32
County recorder	208.35
Sheriff	39.45

On motion of Commissioner Hughes all county officers were instructed to receive all their books, stationery and other office supplies through the county auditor, as provided by the revised statutes.

Mrs. Ellen Johnson, ex-county treasurer, presented a claim for $19 for services performed by Mrs. Cora E. Black in the county treasurer's office in January, February and March, 1898. Taken under advisement. The same disposition was made of a claim of Mrs. Jakeman for $26, paid to E. H. Lynch for work done upon the books of the county clerk last year.

Architect R. C. Watkins asked to be permitted to draw plans for addition to court house. Taken under advisement.

Numerous claims and salaries were allowed.

FOURTH DISTRICT COURT.

The suit of George Chisholm and Agnes Chisholm vs John A. Lewis came on for hearing before Judge Dusenberry, yesterday afternoon. The plaintiff's evidence was taken under advisement. Plaintiffs ask that a certain deed to a lot in Spanish Fork city be declared fraudulent and void. The deed was given by the plaintiff, Agnes Chisholm, who is 73 years of age, to her daughter, Sarah Ann Lewis, and was obtained from plaintiff, as the complaint alleges, while she was in a feeble state of mind, and without her understanding that she was signing a deed, but that she was led to sign a piece of paper, which she afterwards found to be a deed. The complaint alleges that she was induced to execute the deed by fraud. Defendant claims that the deed was signed with the full knowledge of the plaintiff, by its nature and that defendant paid for the lot a certain promissory note for the sum of $100.

Mattie E. Nelson Viquet vs Dunn & Co. et al, judgment for $426.32 on a suit for recovery of a certain note, between 27th and 28th streets. Street committee.

Alvera Evans was granted a divorce from Nelson A. Evans on the grounds of failure to support. Plaintiff was awarded the custody of two minor children, $10 per month alimony, the return of a certain horse or $75 cash, and $25 attorney's fee, and to resume her maiden name of Alvera Christensen. The parties are from Salem.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Charles T. Webb, aged 21, of Mercur, and Jessie Oldfield, of American Fork, aged 18, have received a marriage license.

Wm. H. Dole was down, yesterday, on business.

Elder Lauritzen Peterson of Pleasant View ward has returned from a two and a half years' mission to the Southern States, during which time he labored in the Kentucky conference. Elder Peterson enjoyed his labors, and speaks highly of the hospitality and kindness of the Southern people. While he was away he traveled some 7,000 miles, and had his two companions baptized, he converted and blessed 41 children.

The remains of the two-months-old son of Mrs. Margaret Shotwell, of Spanish Fork, who died Sunday evening, at 6 o'clock, from cholera infantum, were taken to Provo City for burial last evening.

Will G. Kess, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, came down from Salt Lake on business, yesterday.

Private advices from Mesa, Arizona, bring the information that Dr. Karl G. Maeser, who has been there during the new Stake academy started, has left for Mexico.

A very pleasant surprise was given last night by the Relowzie to the T. G. O. F. ball.

E. A. Nock and A. J. Tanner, of Salt Lake, are at the Hotel Roberts.

B. Y. ACADEMY NOTES.

Clarence Clark, a member of the senior class leaves in the 16th for a mission to the Southern States. At the residence of Dr. Pike, where Mr. Clark resides the commencement on Friday evening gave him a surprise party. There an enjoyable evening with him and several other young people, was spent.

Prof. Nelson's advanced English class (notwithstanding the snowballing commotion) are developing a fine talent for a series of debates. Some of the subjects selected are: The Roberts Controversy, is Roberts a Good Thing for Utah? and Resolved, that Elections be Prevented in Utah? Some of the worthy points have been caught out, but the general opinion seems to be that Roberts deserves a decision in all cases.

PARK CITY.

Special Correspondence.

Park City, March 11.—Ward conferences was held here last Sunday. President Cluff was present and imparted valuable instructions. He also discussed the exercises of the Jubilee, in the afternoon. Regarding the Sunday School Jubilee, President Cluff stated that work on the same would begin as soon as spring opened. The Sunday School officers were unanimously sustained.

EUREKA.

Bishop Lunt's Return Brings a Spirit that Awakening.

Special Correspondence.

Eureka, Juab County, March 11.—The members of the "Morning" Church boys had quite an exciting time Saturday afternoon, and it came as if we are speaking, in a way been of spiritual fire and activity.

Bishop Lunt's return. A meeting which was held with all the resident officers of the ward, was well attended. The Bishop urged all to renewed zeal and diligence, and with encouraging words of the work, he informed the assembly that the time is at hand when the Lord will bless the faithful, and the work will be hastened. Brown's Canyon has given to such an extent that the Bishop thought it necessary in justice to his patrons, to warn them of the danger. We have been with sunshine and balmy breezes in a delightful spot for all of our experience of the past week. We are hoping that this is old Bessie' final kick.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

PARKER, IDAHO.

Interesting Local News—Our Folks' Relatives.

Parker, Fremont Co.,
March 12th, 1899.

To the Editor:

We have had an unusually cold winter this time, or, rather are having one, as the snow is still a foot deep in the fields. Very much colder than that in the wagon ruts where it is drifted. We have had only one usual winter than. For about one week the thermometer varied from 24 to 40 below zero.

There has been a constant string of teams running until quite lately, hauling away the greater part of the 150,000 bushels of grain raised on our side of the river.

There is likely to be a very great scarcity of hay this coming spring, the price already being from four to five dollars per ton for baled hay.

The health of the people is not very good at present. The flu wind has left many in its wake, with lingering grippe, terminating with pneumonia, in most cases. Mumps also are prevailing to a great extent—luckily of a mild type.

THE OLD FOLKS' REUNION.

On the 3rd inst. the old folks—all over 50—had a reunion in the Parker ward meeting house. The occasion was unusually decorated, including elaborate mottoes—"Old Folks Our Guests," "Welcome Our Guests," and another that "Welcome Our Guests." The standing ward committee, Bishop Eli Ricks, Bishop Jesse Ricks, Mr. A. J. Greene and Mrs. J. E. Bennington, with their sub-committees, were very assiduous in making every one feel at home. The table was perhaps the most attractive feature, both to the eye and the palate, the abundance were varied, by food as well as flowers. Many of the veterans hailed from Utah, but Salt Lake was conspicuous amongst the local institutions. The guests were waited in the order of their age. There were present a person over 70, 16 between 60 and 70, and 16 between 50 and 60. When asked, Bishop E. E. Carlson the address of a person in a place for spectacle, with chosen words, which was responded to by Judge J. Ricks, Dorlon Ricks, Mr. Bennington, of the first entire musical selections were rendered by the Hill's string band, and the Parker ward choir, which choir was unusually vocal and strident, and the doctor raised his voice in song.

"What heathen creatures these pretty women are!" he was thinking—on occasions such as this the sexes's equilibrium is disturbed.

"I just too of you to control yourself," he said shortly. "Everything depends on Quiet. His life is hanging on a thread."

"Is he dee? O cod! Then he is not dead?"

She had hooked past the doctor, deaf mute, in the full glare of the light, and unpleasantly. Then he was intensely ashy pale.

"Either has received a new counte of the footman, a little girl of 11, under dressed and pale-faced, conscious only for a new and shining wedding ring. Her face was transfigured the evening, and now it was she and her husband which whispered and discussed. Her husband:

"Darling, are you enjoying yourself?" whispered the last husband.

"Oh, yes, dear," replied the little pale girl enthusiastically. "It's all so pretty and so different to work. I've never seen anything so pretty in my life.

"I've been helping Lucy Lacy; she asked me to take some tables down to supper," the low husband went on, "I'm sorry you couldn't see her. Don't you you are not dull now all alone?"

"Dull? Oh, dear, no!" cried the little pale girl, with a little shiver of ecstasy. "Why, there's Lady Lucy looking at us, dear; I expect she wants you to dance."

The boy barried off again, proud and elated and his little wife sat smiling and looking at the dancers. The dancers have looked sharply from one to the other. I wonder how long that state of things will last," she indulged herself remarks.

She knew a certain amount about the Lacy family, and knew that the last had confided various details to the course of his apology for their presence. Lady Lucy, Lady Lucy, a pretty, pleasant, with a decidedly Roman and limited tolerance, and the little wife was pondering, and they had met in a place where in the east—some constituted kindship, she have thought of which such a similar thing, she knew, "I wonder how long" she asked herself, "what will have become of them?" And at that moment the music ceased.

It was exactly two years since she married a girl of 17 but could a young love match with handsome Chipchase Trelawney.

She was extremely white and still, while that dead and half-forgotten pain flashed vividly before her. She should never have married it possible that for her husband to be at his side while she listened herself successfully elsewhere and talked to him the normal state of things between them.

There had been no control, no discipline. Her mother had died away from each other in those ten years of married life, until now they were comparative strangers. What she could have told how or when the division began.

She looked at the uncomfortable corner again, and with new eyes. That pale little face was the happiest in the place, and the dull eyes were bright. And when the her husband came near, always with a glance and smile in that direction, the little face lit up, and the dull eyes looked back at him. They really seemed to be enjoying their evening.

Mrs. Trelawney looked at him, and then, with an indescribable sensation, it occurred to her that she, the admired and feted society belle, was actually envying that plain, badly dressed, pennyless little girl.

Mrs. Trelawney breathed a long sigh of relief when the benighted door was shut upon them. The cab was on its way home, she had a long way to drive, plenty of time to follow out her present train of thought, and to be as unhappy as she pleased.

She told herself that she was a miserable little wretch, a mere worldly butterfly, and it was no wonder Honora was tired of her. If only Honora had been poor as she had been, she might have worked and struggled together! If only their one child had lived beyond infancy! If only the boy had lived to think of even now. If only all the last ten years could be lived over again, she would be better, better, better!

Now it was too late, and then she suddenly sat up straight, with fast-beating hearts. It was not too late. It could not be too late. She would begin this night and try to realize something of the meaning of those ten years ago. She would call up her husband and tell him she remembered! having done so, she would return home to-morrow days, when sympathy imperative and precious—she from coming with her, to their mutual disappointment.

She gave the necessary order to her coachman and then sat tense and upright, her eyes bright, her cheeks flushed.

As they were not far from the club now—five minutes more, and her new life would have begun.

She had lost sight of the time was, but it could not be so late, for the pavement was thronged with people—all going the same way, in a rather hurried manner, as if anxious to get home. It occurred to her after a moment. There were so many of them that presently she ventured to lean out and ask aloud if they were all going to the same place, she had her little hands on the seat to her impatience and looked again.

"It's the club that is on fire ma'am," a policeman shouted in an ear turned white, he added sharply: "Don't be frightened, ma'am, they've got the fire out with the hose by this time, and every one is out."

"All safe?" Mrs. Trelawney gasped.

"All safe, ma'am, except the poor fellow," said the policeman, cheerfully. "Nothing to speak of ma'am—only one poor fellow killed. A sad business that."

"Who?"

"The gentleman who did such great things out in Dorset a few years ago—Major Trelawney."

"Dead!" she cried.

Had they breakfast him—he—home? she wondered with a long shudder, when the cab had rolled away and she was hurrying to meet her—the doctor. She was not surprised to see him standing in the hall, for she knew nothing good always any more.

I have bad news for you Mrs. Trelawney."

"I know—I know!" she answered petulently. In her unreasoning misery she was angry with the doctor for being so stupid as to be surprised. Her face was unusually aloof and aristocratic, and the doctor raised his eyebrows.

"What heathen creatures these pretty women are!" he was thinking—on occasions such as this the sexes's equilibrium is disturbed.

"I just too of you to control yourself," he said shortly. "Everything depends on Quiet. His life is hanging on a thread."

"Is he dee? O cod! Then he is not dead?"

She had brushed past the doctor, deaf mute, in the full glare of the light, and unpleasantly. Then he was intensely ashy pale.

Either has received a new counte of the footman, a little girl of 11, under dressed and pale-faced, conscious only for a new and shining wedding ring. Her face was transfigured the evening, and now it was she and her husband which whispered and discussed. Her husband:

"Darling, are you enjoying yourself?" whispered the last husband.

"Oh, yes, dear," replied the little pale girl enthusiastically. "It's all so pretty and so different to work. I've never seen anything so pretty in my life.

"I've been helping Lucy Lacy; she asked me to take some tables down to supper," the low husband went on, "I'm sorry you couldn't see her. Don't you you are not dull now all alone?"

"Dull? Oh, dear, no!" cried the little pale girl, with a little shiver of ecstasy. "Why, there's Lady Lucy looking at us, dear; I expect she wants you to dance."

The boy barried off again, proud and elated and his little wife sat smiling and looking at the dancers. The dancers have looked sharply from one to the other. I wonder how long that state of things will last," she indulged herself remarks.

She knew a certain amount about the Lacy family, and knew that the last had confided various details to the course of his apology for their presence. Lady Lucy, Lady Lucy, a pretty, pleasant, with a decidedly Roman and limited tolerance, and the little wife was pondering, and they had met in a place where in the east—some constituted kindship, she have thought of which such a similar thing, she knew, "I wonder how long" she asked herself, "what will have become of them?" And at that moment the music ceased.

It was exactly two years since she married a girl of 17 but could a young love match with handsome Chipchase Trelawney.

She was extremely white and still, while that dead and half-forgotten pain flashed vividly before her. She should never have married it possible that for her husband to be at his side while she listened herself successfully elsewhere and talked to him the normal state of things between them.

There had been no control, no discipline. Her mother had died away from each other in those ten years of married life, until now they were comparative strangers. What she could have told how or when the division began.

She looked at the uncomfortable corner again, and with new eyes. That pale little face was the happiest in the place, and the dull eyes were bright. And when the her husband came near, always with a glance and smile in that direction, the little face lit up, and the dull eyes looked back at him. They really seemed to be enjoying their evening.

Mrs. Trelawney breathed a long sigh of relief when the benighted door was shut upon them. The cab was on its way home, she had a long way to drive, plenty of time to follow out her present train of thought, and to be as unhappy as she pleased.

She told herself that she was a miserable little wretch, a mere worldly butterfly, and it was no wonder Honora was tired of her. If only Honora had been poor as she had been, she might have worked and struggled together! If only their one child had lived beyond infancy! If only the boy had lived to think of even now. If only all the last ten years could be lived over again, she would be better, better, better!

Now it was too late, and then she suddenly sat up straight, with fast-beating hearts. It was not too late. It could not be too late. She would begin this night and try to realize something of the meaning of those ten years ago. She would call up her husband and tell him she remembered! having done so, she would return home to-morrow days, when sympathy imperative and precious—she from coming with her, to their mutual disappointment.

She gave the necessary order to her coachman and then sat tense and upright, her eyes bright, her cheeks flushed.

As they were not far from the club now—five minutes more, and her new life would have begun.

She had lost sight of the time was, but it could not be so late, for the pavement was thronged with people—all going the same way, in a rather hurried manner, as if anxious to get home. It occurred to her after a moment. There were so many of them that presently she ventured to lean out and ask aloud if they were all going to the same place, she had her little hands on the seat to her impatience and looked again.

"It's the club that is on fire ma'am," a policeman shouted in an ear turned white, he added sharply: "Don't be frightened, ma'am, they've got the fire out with the hose by this time, and every one is out."

"All safe?" Mrs. Trelawney gasped.

"All safe, ma'am, except the poor fellow," said the policeman, cheerfully. "Nothing to speak of ma'am—only one poor fellow killed. A sad business that."

"Who?"

"The gentleman who did such great things out in Dorset a few years ago—Major Trelawney."

"Dead!" she cried.

Had they breakfast him—he—home? she wondered with a long shudder, when the cab had rolled away and she was hurrying to meet her—the doctor. She was not surprised to see him standing in the hall, for she knew nothing good always any more.

I have bad news for you Mrs. Trelawney."

"I know—I know!" she answered petulently. In her unreasoning misery she was angry with the doctor for being so stupid as to be surprised. Her face was unusually aloof and aristocratic, and the doctor raised his eyebrows.

"What heathen creatures these pretty women are!" he was thinking—on occasions such as this the sexes's equilibrium is disturbed.

"I just too of you to control yourself," he said shortly. "Everything depends on Quiet. His life is hanging on a thread."

"Is he dee? O cod! Then he is not dead?"

She had brushed past the doctor, deaf

A Seasonable Cleaning

cannot be accomplished without more or less painting, papering, kalsomining, etc. We cheerfully furnish estimates on all kinds of work in this line and our reputation for doing the best work at the smallest cost, ought to induce you to at least give us a trial order—or ask us to give you an estimate—which means about the same thing.

Buy Your Paints Here

GEO. W. EBERT,
325 STATE ST.

Demand Steadily Growing

For our $3.50 Shoes for Men and Women. Exclusive styles at this price only to be had of us in this city.

See Our New Display.

ALWAYS RELIABLE
Davis & Co.
MONEY SAVING DRY GOODS

Your Husband Won't Fall Dead

but he will, no doubt, be very much surprised if you, in your quiet way, kind way, suggest that you think it best for him to hereafter do his drinking at home. It will please him! All men like and they won't have to "sneak it" if you will allow him to enjoy a glass at home—it will do you a world of good—the moderate use of it. Suggest it and note its effect. You'll wonder why you never thought of it before. A good place to get it would be from any of our agents.

Krug Cabinet Beer

M. THOMAS, Agent.
P. O. Box 703, Salt Lake City.
FRED KRUG BREWING CO.
OMA.

Annual Statement for the year ending December 31, 1898, of the condition of the NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.

The name and location of the Company, National Life Insurance Co., United States of Vermont.

Name of President, Lyman Phelps.
Name of secretary, Joseph A. De Ruy.
The amount of its Capital Stock $1,000,000.00
The amount of its Liabilities (including Capital) is $1,276,718.96
The amount of its income during the year ending December 31st, 1898 $1,012,802.42
The amount of its expenditures during the year ending December 31st, 1898 $ 725,806.19
The amount of notes paid during the year $84,087.73
The amount of notes written during the year $1,824,000.00
The amount of notes in force at the close of the year $3,824,000.00

STATE OF UTAH, } ss.
SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

I, James T. Hammond, Secretary of State of the State of Utah, do hereby certify that the above named Insurance Company has deposited in this office the statement of its condition, from a copy of which the above and foregoing is prepared, and that the said Company has complied with the laws of this State relating to Insurance.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the State of Utah, this 13th day of March, A. D. 1899.

J. T. HAMMOND,
(Seal.) Secretary of State.

A conservative, well managed company in the National Life Insurance Co., of Montpelier, Vermont. No bonds, submortgages are offered by it for extraordinary issues. Policyholders' Boards or risks are not written by this company. Its policies are comparatively larger returns and better results to intending insurers. Call on or address Jas. Pearce, Manager, 203-204 McCornick building, Salt Lake City, Utah.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT.

West Rockaway Mining Company.

Principal Place of Business, Salt Lake City, Utah.

NOTICE is hereby given that at a meeting of the board of directors of West Rockaway Mining Co., held at Salt Lake City, Utah, Feb. 18, 1899, an assessment of $[illegible] on each share of the capital stock of the corporation, payable at once to S. G. Milne, treasurer, 240 State street, Salt Lake City, Utah, and any stock upon which the assessment shall remain unpaid on the 20th day of March, 1899, will be delinquent and advertised for sale at public auction, and in order to prevent the sale of such stock as may come before said meeting.

By order of the Board of Directors.

H. S. MILLER, Secretary.
Dated Salt Lake City, Feb. 28, 1899.

NOTICE OF SALE.

Notice is hereby given that under and in accordance with the power and authority granted by that certain trust deed made, April 19, 1895, by Charles Hong and Margaret Hong, his wife, to William M. Bradley, Trustee, for the Utah Title Insurance & Trust Company, the holder of said trust deed and the indebtedness secured thereby, and recorded in Book 4-D of Mortgages, page 128, in the Recorder's of Salt Lake County, Utah, the undersigned trustee will offer for sale and sell to the highest bidder for cash in the front entrance to the City and County Building, being the front door of the Salt Lake County court house of said Salt Lake County, on Salt Lake and State of Utah, on March 20th, 1899, at 12 o'clock noon of said day, all the real estate hereinafter described, or so much thereof as is necessary, to pay and discharge the indebtedness secured by said trust deed, and costs and expenses of said sale, which said real estate is situated in Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and is particularly described as follows, to wit:

Lot 1, Block 3, Plat "E" Salt Lake City survey, and commencing at a point 10 rods north of the southeast corner of said Lot 1, Block 3, Plat "E" Salt Lake City survey, and running thence north 10 rods; thence west 16 rods; thence south 10 rods; thence east 16 rods to the place of beginning, together with all appurtenances and privileges there now belonging.

WILLIAM M. BRADLEY,
Trustee.

Dated February 24th, 1899.

STOCKHOLDERS' NOTICE.

Office of the Phoenix Mining Company, Salt Lake City, Utah, March 7, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that there will be a meeting of the stockholders of the Phoenix Mining Company, held at the Company's office, Rooms 41 and 42, Second South St., Salt Lake City, Utah, on Monday, 3rd day of April, 1899, at 10 o'clock a.m., for the purpose of voting on the proposition of selling all or any portion of the Company's Mining Claims, situated in the Mineral Mountain Mining District, Salt Lake County, Utah, and for the purpose of transacting all other business as may come before the company.

ANDREW GEBHARDT,
President.
H. A. GEBHARDT JR.,
Secretary.

DELINQUENT ASSESSMENT NOTICE.

Bonanza Mining Company, a Corporation organized and existing under the laws of Utah, with principal place of business in Salt Lake City, Utah. There are delinquent upon the following described stock on account of assessment levied on the 16th day of January, 1899, the several amounts set opposite the name of the respective shareholders, as follows:

Name.	No. No. Certs.	Shares.	Ass.
Thomas Cunningham	1	1	$ 1.00
Thomas Cunningham	10	500	50.00
William McLaughlin	48	500	7.50
Samuel McGuire	111	1,000	15.00
Thomas Wise	113	100	1.50
George Kelley	122	1,000	15.00
E. R. Peacock	123	500	7.50

And in accordance with law and an order of the Board of Directors, made on the 25th day of February, 1899, so many shares of each parcel of said stock as may be necessary, will be sold at the office of said company, No. 16 North Main St., on the 20th day of March, 1899, at the hour of 2 p. m., to pay the amount of assessment on said stock, as may be necessary, together with cost of advertising and expenses of sale, either with the cost of advertising and the expenses of sale.

JOHN WILLS,
Secretary.

Dated March 1st, 1899.

ASSESSMENT NO. 5.

Dalton Duck Tunnel Mining Company. Situation of Principal Place of Business, No. 408 McCornick Block, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the board of directors of the above named company, held on the 11th day of March, 1899, an assessment of one-half (1/2) of one per cent per share was levied upon the capital stock of said corporation, payable immediately to H. Green, treasurer, at 105 East Second South street, Salt Lake City. Any stock on which this assessment may remain unpaid on the 20th day of March, 1899, will be delinquent and advertised for sale, at public auction, and unless payment is made before, will be sold on April 19, 1899, to pay the delinquent assessment, together with cost of advertising and expenses of sale.

H. GREEN, Secretary.
No. 105 East Second South Street, Salt Lake City, Utah.
Dated Feb. 17, 1899.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

Salt Lake City, Utah,
February 8, 1899.

The partnership heretofore existing between J. S. Perry, W. A. Smith and L. H. Carver, under the name and style of The Perry Storage Company, and doing business in Salt Lake City, Utah, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. J. S. Perry having retired from said partnership, and his interest in said partnership having been purchased by W. A. Smith and L. H. Carver. In the future the business will be run under the name of Deseret Storage, by W. A. Smith and L. H. Carver, who assume all the debts of the late Perry Storage Company.

J. S. PERRY,
W. A. SMITH,
L. H. CARVER.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

Notice is hereby given that in accordance with and under the power and authority granted by that certain trust deed made September 25, 1897, to the undersigned trustee, by Sarah A. Sabin and John F. Sabin, his wife, to secure payment of one hundred dollars, and recorded in Book "3-A," page 63 of Mortgages, of Salt Lake County, Utah, the undersigned trustee will offer for sale and sell to the highest bidder for cash in the east front entrance to the city and county building, in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, Utah, being the front door of the county court house of said Salt Lake County, on March 13th, 1899, at 12 o'clock noon of said day, all the real estate hereinafter described, or so much thereof as is necessary, to pay and discharge the indebtedness secured by said trust deed, being $1,000 not principal and interest accrued from March 25, 1898, to the day of sale at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, Rent of the premises, and costs and expenses of said sale, February 6, 1899, and also to pay reasonable attorney's compensation for said trustee, cost of this notice and expenses of sale.

The sale will be made at the request of the holder of said indebtedness and hence of default in the payment of said indebtedness and interest.

The real estate above referred to is situate in Salt Lake County, State of Utah, and is described and particularly described as follows:

Lot Twenty-eight (28) of lot Seventy (70) in block forty-five (45) Plat "B" Salt Lake City survey, said premises being a lot 10 rods in front on the east side of the northwest corner of said lot extended, and running thence south west 16 rods, thence south 10 rods, thence north west 16 rods, thence north 10 rods to the place of beginning, together with all appurtenances and privileges there now belonging.

WILLIAM H. JACOBS,
Trustee.

Dated February 6th, 1899.

PROBATE AND GUARDIANSHIP NOTICES.

Consol County Court of Los Angeles Region for Further Continuance.

SEASIDE.

In the District Court of Salt Lake County, State of Utah.

Phebe Hesdon Brown, Plaintiff.

William Henry Brown, Defendant.

The State of Utah, to said Defendant:

You are hereby summoned to appear within ten days after the service of this summons upon you, if served within the County in which this notice is served, and within forty days if served elsewhere, and defend the above entitled action, and in case of your failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you according to the demand of the complaint, of which a copy is herewith served upon you.

RICHARDS & VARIAN,
Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Dated February 20th, 1899.
P. O. Address: McCornick Block, Salt Lake City, Utah.

STOCKHOLDER'S MEETINGS.

Notice is hereby given that the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Star Gold & Silver Mining Company will be held pursuant to requirement of the articles of incorporation of said company on the third Monday in March, 1899, (March 20) at the general office of said company, Room 218, 221, Progress Building, in South Main street, Salt Lake City, Utah, at 8 o'clock p. m. of said day for the election of a Board of Five Directors to serve for ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before such meeting.

THOS. KANE, Secretary.

Dated February 1, 1899.
First publication February 13, 1899.

ANNUAL STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

The annual stockholders' meeting of the Adelaide Mining Co. will be held at the office of the company, Rooms 218 to 221, Progress Building, Salt Lake City, at the office of Judge E. J. Anderson, room 15 Atlas block, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such business that may legally come before the meeting.

CHRISTINE ZOGBAUM,
Secretary.

Salt Lake City, March 11, 1899.

STOCKHOLDERS' NOTICE.

Annual meeting of the stockholders of the Hecla Mining Company.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Dunderberg Mining Company will be held at No. 8 Exchange Place, Salt Lake City, on Monday, April 3rd, 1899, at 11 o'clock a.m., at which time, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such business that may legally come before the meeting.

JOHN WILLS,
Secretary.

SPECIAL STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

Notice is hereby given to the undersigned, being the owners of one-fourth of the capital stock of the Treasure Hill Mining Company, that a special meeting of the stockholders of said company will be held at the office of the company, 212 Atlas block, Salt Lake City, Utah, on Thursday, the 16th day of March, 1899, at 10 o'clock, at which said day, for the purpose of considering the question of increasing the capital stock of the corporation from $25,000 to $50,000, and for the purpose of considering the question of selling the property of the company or of developing other modes for the purpose of paying the debts, for the purpose of electing a new board of directors, and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may come before the meeting.

D. F. WALKER JR.,
FRANK WALKER,
W. H. DONIGAN,
Stockholders of Treasure Hill Mining Company.

Dated Salt Lake City, Utah, February 12th, 1899.

ASSESSMENT NOTICE NO. 3.

Pleasure Mining Co. Principal place of business, Salt Lake City, Utah. Mines situated in