FORTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 11.—Pendleton's civil service bill was taken up, 44 to 16, after an ineffectual attempt to lay it aside and take up the Fitzjohn Porter bill. Logan objecting, it was temporarily shelved to take up the bill to release the Memphis and Little Rock Railroad from obligation as a land grant road, to carry government troops free and mails at a reduced rate, the release being claimed upon the ground that the company received only a small portion of the land granted it. The discussion was indefinitely postponed.

Hawley, from the civil service committee, reported with amendment his non-assessment bill, and said when the Pendleton bill comes up he will offer this as an additional section.

After the morning hour, the bankrupt bill was considered, the question being on Brown's motion to postpone indefinitely. Lost, 24 to 26, and Hoar's bill was adopted as a substitute, 34 to 30, and sent by the committee indirectly for revision.

After executive session the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 11.—Belmont, of New York, member of the committee on foreign affairs, presented his views on the Nicaraguan Canal question. Ordered printed.

Townsend, of Illinois, offered a resolution reciting that it is alleged certain existing railway lines or transportation have entered into combination for the purpose of preventing the construction of competing lines into the territories and through states, thereby establishing monopolies in transportation, and directing the committee on commerce to report without delay, a bill prohibiting and punishing such combinations.

Strait, of Minnesota, objected to present consideration, and it was referred to the committee of commerce.

Under the call of states, a number of bills were introduced and referred.

A bill was introduced by Waite, that no more silver be bought or dollars coined until the supply on hand is below $50,000,000.

By Holman, asking the secretary to give details of land grants and patented lands to railroads.

By Anderson, construing the Pacific Railroad acts to provide that the companies will pay the cost of surveying lands.

By Bingham, of Penn., a resolution inquiring what railroads aided by the government, have failed to construct and maintain their own telegraph lines, or have leased their telegraph property to a telegraph company.

By Dibrell, of Tenn., to abolish internal revenue taxes and allow rebate on whisky and tobacco; also to reduce the specie in the treasury to $150,000,000 by requiring the secretary of the treasury to pay out silver dollars for the current expenses of the government.

By Springer, of Illinois, proposing a constitutional amendment, relative to the election of President, Vice-President and members of Congress. It fixes the term of President and Vice-President at six years, and makes the President ineligible to election for the next succeeding term, abolishes the electoral college, and provides for a direct vote for president. Every State shall be entitled to as many votes as it has Senators and Representatives in Congress, and the vote of each State shall be cast in proportion of the popular vote in the State for each candidate. The term of members of Congress is fixed at three years, and each session shall begin the first Wednesday in January. In counting the votes cast for President in joint convention, each senator and member shall have one vote.

The District of Columbia bill was then considered, and the Speaker announced a few appointments on committees.

On motion of Steel, of Indiana, a bill passed authorizing brevet commissions to commissioned officers, for distinguished conduct in engagements against hostile Indians.

Adjourned.

AMERICAN.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, 11.—The House appropriations called this morning to complete the postoffice appropriation bill.

The finance committee will consider the internal revenue bill daily with the view of printing it and reporting it early. No member of the committee objected to Sherman's plan of amending it. No party prejudice was visible to-day.

The amount of the appropriation bill to be reported to-morrow, is $414,780; $30,000 less than the appropriation last year.

The Secretary of the Treasury is considering the case of Collector Haines and Deputy Collector Goodrich, of Brownsville, Texas. It is stated that Representative Upson and Representative elect Ochiltree are interesting themselves in behalf of Haines and Goodrich.

Before the Jeannette court this morning, Nindermann testified that Collins was always treated like a gentleman and an officer so far as he knew. He then described a little difficulty which he (Nindermann) had with Captain DeLong on Sept. 28th, 1881, but said it only resulted in his being placed under arrest for an hour. His examination was closed and it is expected the court will be occupied several days reading the testimony.

The Senate, in executive session, confirmed a large number of nominations, including General Pope and Colonel Mackenzie, to be Major General and Brigadier General respectively.

Washington, 12.—A report is in circulation to the effect that the Marquis of Lorne asked the Secretary of War, by telegraph, to give the Princess and himself a military escort from San Francisco to San Antonio, Texas, fears being entertained that the Fenians are plotting against their lives, and will follow the occasion of their intended journey to carry their plot into execution. This may be only a rumor, but it is a fact that an escort of one officer and ten men have been detailed to accompany the distinguished visitors.

Eastern members are determined to have the scale of the silver dollar this time. They quote the report of Treasurer Gilfillan, which shows but 22½ per cent. of the silver dollars coined since the creation of daddy dollar, have ever been put in circulation; and the recommendation of the Secretary of the Treasury and President asserting that effective member of an otherwise happy financial family. If, on the other hand, members from the south and west are inclined to assist by their votes, and think it has not been given a fair show, they will point out efforts to retire the silver dollar and silver certificates, but it is not improbable a bill authorizing the Treasury Department to coin only the amount actually needed will pass.

Fires, Casualties and Calamities.

NEW YORK, 11.—The Sturtevant House caught fire last night, and there came very near being a great disaster. Loss, $15,000.

Washington, 11.—Captain A. A. Crew, of the Fourth Cavalry, has been found guilty of defalcation, disobedience of orders and neglect of duty. The Secretary of War informed him that his resignation would be accepted. Captain Drew was ordered here about a month ago from Chicago, where he was attached to the recruiting service.

Opelika, La., 11.—Two factions, the old and new city councils, yesterday engaged in a riot. The mayor and police were involved. Nine whites and one negro were shot. Seven will die. The mayor has gone to Montgomery to get troops.

New York, 11.—John McAllister and Michael Gallagher fought in the saloon of the latter in Brooklyn. Both were arrested. McAllister is dying in the hospital. Gallagher died in jail of delirium tremens.

Cambridge, O., 11.—W. C. Bauer, school teacher, got into a general fight with his pupils to-day, while trying to discipline them. He stabbed and killed John Hayes and severely wounded Charles Lisle.

Willimantic, Conn., 11.—Two engines and four cars of a freight train on the New York and New England R'y were wrecked by a collision. The telegraph operator was at fault.

Bridgeport, Ct., 11.—By a cave in the wall of a well, Edward English and his son James, of Danbury, while they were digging, were both buried. After eleven hours work the son was rescued, and after fifty hours the father was found alive, but another cave killed him.

Bangor, 11.—Dr. N. S. Davis, F. C. Knight, Charles M. Servey and three Frenchmen, it is supposed were drowned in Moosehead Lake. L. F. David was being conveyed to see a patient at the time of the supposed disaster.

Bellevernon, Pa., 11.—This morning at 5:30, a still containing twenty-five barrels of whisky at Gibsonton Mills exploded, injuring Wm. Lucas fatally, and destroying the main building, together with the United States warehouse containing 4,000 barrels of whisky. Lost $400,000.

Janesville, Wis., 11.—Harvey Clifford, gambler, of Milwaukee, found guilty of murder in the first degree for killing Capt. Pugh, of Racine.

Boston, 11.—The receiver of the Pacific National bank has attached the properties of the National Security Bank for twenty millions. He alleges that the Pacific bank has in its possession checks and deposits of the defendants to the amount of $11,000. The Pacific bank at the time contemplated insolvency and the transfer was fraudulent.

Philadelphia, 11.—Gibson & Co., whose distillery was burned to-day at Gibsonton, was insured for $75,000.

Rev. T. Dewitt Talmage lectured this evening, subject: "Is the world growing better or worse."

A Big Bank Robbery.

Topeka, 11.—J. C. Ellis, of Kinsley, Kansas, tells the following story of the robbery there on Saturday night: L. G. Boice, the cashier, locked the safe and vault and went to supper. G. W. Crawford, county treasurer, has an office in the same building, and besides the cashier, is the only one acquainted with the combination of the lock. He left at the same time with Boice and returned with him, and found coins scattered around the room. Boice opened the vault and found $12,000 missing. The burglars evidently entered through the treasurer's office in the rear—a panel between the two rooms having been broken. It was evident the door of the safe was unlocked, not broken, so the burglars must have had the combination. Detectives were set to work and it is reported the money is recovered.

Larned, Ks., dispatch: Intelligence was received here to-day that the robbery of Kinsley Bank had been traced to the county treasurer, J. W. Crawford, of Edwards County, by means of a bunch of keys and a glove dropped at the door of the vault, and that Crawford has acknowledged himself guilty, and agreed to surrender the stolen money, which seems to be hid away somewhere out of Kinsley. This rumor is supplemented by many others, and is hard to determine just what the facts are from this distance.

Sending In with Thieves.

WASHINGTON, 11.—A citizens' committee had an interview in the jail, to-day, with O'Leary and Murphy convicted as card monte and tunko men. Each detailed the circumstances of many robberies, including the government printing office money theft, and gave the names of thieves and dectives who "stood in" as well as the percentage of the proceeds of robberies; paid detectives 20 per cent.; detectives, it was even said planned some jobs and selected men to execute them. Murphy and O'Leary gave a circumstantial account of the Christiancy diamond robbery, and alleged that the diamonds of the ex-minister were valued at from $15,000 to $20,000, and were disposed of at a great sacrifice in New York, and a heavy precentage given to two detectives, who were named. The wives of these men, O'Leary said, now wear dresses made from the silk taken in the Burdette robbery, and given to the detectives for their part of the plunder. It is alleged the entire detective force in the district received dividends landed in tunko and monte men. The detectives involved are the same ones dismissed for betraying government's interest in the star route cases. Magruder, member of the committee, thought he recognized O'Leary, who is well educated, and asked him if he had ever been to college. O'Leary answered, "at Courage College." "Then," said Magruder, "we were college mates. I now remember you well." O'Leary seemed greatly mortified at this identification.

King Kalakaua's Regalia.

OGDEN, 11.—King Kalakaua's chamberlain, Col. C. H. Judd, who, with his party, passed through Omaha yesterday homeward bound from Europe, has, as we learned from some of his acquaintances here, purchased in Europe some of the ancient insignia of royalty—a crown, a scepter and robes for Kalakaua. The robes and royal diadem will be used at the coming coronation of the King and Queen. They are modelled after those of Russia. The crown to be worn by the King is larger than that to be worn by his consort. They are each oval, and ornamented with a cross at the apex brilliantly studded with a diamond rim encircling the head, solid gold inlaid with diamonds and other precious gems. The King's scepter is composed of solid silver inlaid with gold; the robes are purple with ermine border. The King was crowned according to the customs of his own country, but on February 22nd he will be again crowned in the style that prevails in the courts of Europe. Invitations to attend the coronation have been sent to the President of the United States and to the different rulers of the old world. The ceremonies take place in a new palace, which is a magnificent structure. It was furnished by a Boston firm.

A Break for Sullivan's Pelt.

CHICAGO, 11.—A reporter this afternoon, interviewed Jim Elliott, who is to fight Allen in the coming contest. He started off with the assertion that he would fight any man in the world, with naked fists for $2,500, and would not bet any one. Sullivan he did not consider champion at all. In his estimation Sullivan was the best man he knew with gloves, and admits that Sullivan was better with gloves than himself. Elliott says he does not believe Sullivan or any other man can knock him out in four rounds, or in fact in any number. Fox, it is said, is willing to match Allen against Sullivan, at any time for $1,000. Elliott says he will return to Chicago after the fight with Allen. His fight with Sullivan takes place on the 23d inst. The place where the fight will take place will be decided upon next Thursday.

MIXED SPICE.

A Johnstown man lost his pocket book containing $1,500, and rewarded the honest finders with the munificent sum of $1. The finders feel very grateful over the fact that they were not charged interest on the money while the pocket-book was in their possession.—Philadelphia News.

Advantage of freezing to death: "Ugh!" exclaimed Brown, "I believe I shall freeze to death; but I've got to die some time," he added, "and I might as well die that way as any other." "Much better," replied Fogg, consolingly, "you'd have such an excellent chance to thaw out on the other side, you know."—Boston Transcript.

There is a lady living in Leaington who believes in doing everything in a hurry. The other day her husband hired a man-of-all-work who was too slow to suit her. The other morning he was employed cutting wood while the family were at prayers. Upon arising from her knees the first thing she said was: "That boy didn't strike but three licks while we were at prayers."
