SOME SILVER NOTES.

Carlisle's Congressional District for Free Silver.

A VICTORY FOR THE WHITE METAL.

Address Issued from the Headquarters of the National Silver Party.

NEWPORT, KY., May 31.—Much has been published today about Secretary Carlisle's old district, the Ninth, being carried yesterday for free silver. This (Kenton) county, the home of Secretary Carlisle, has two contesting delegations to the state convention. The county delegation favorable to Carlisle is not instructed, but it is believed it will be seated by the free silver state convention at Lexington this week, although the other Kenton county delegation is instructed for free silver.

CINCINNATI, May 31.—The Enquirer tonight has complete returns from 115 of the 119 counties in Kentucky, and shows that the delegates to the Democratic state convention at Lexington next Wednesday, with the exception of Pom. Kennel, Spencer and Casey counties not heard from, will stand as follows: silver, 784; gold, 69; uninstructed, 53; not heard from, 13.

VICTORY FOR SILVER.

CINCINNATI, May 31.—There is much comment today over the reorganization last night of the Hamilton county Democratic committee. Chairman Luttenbeck is a gold standard man and a friend of Cleveland, Carlisle and Attorney-General Harmon. A resolution was adopted appointing James S. Mayers, Thomas Nestor, John Foley, Henry Jansen and John Sheehan, all silver men, to make the appointment of wards and townships or delegates to the Democratic state convention to be held at Columbus June 23rd. As the appointment has always been made by the committee, Mr. Luttenbeck announced before the vote was taken that if the resolution was adopted he would resign. The resolution carried, 59 to 15, and Luttenbeck resigned. This is accepted as an indication that the two congressional counties in Hamilton county, which have eighty-five votes in the state convention, will send free silver delegates to the Columbus convention.

NATIONAL SILVER PARTY'S ADDRESS.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The National Silver party, through its chairman, J. J. Mott, today issued from its headquarters in this city an address to the friends of silver. It is as follows:

Headquarters National Silver Party, Washington, May 30th.

To the Friends of Silver—Since the founding of this party on January 22, 1895, the work of organization has been steadily but quietly pursued, and the country has been aroused to a pitch of excitement unknown since the Civil war. Silver is on all lips throughout the land. It is echoed and re-echoed from the gilded mansion to the lowly cottage.

As each hour passes it becomes more apparent that a political conflict, the like of which has never been seen before is at hand.

It must be clearly understood that party ties cannot withstand this conflict, and so far as the friends of silver are concerned they must not. The party leader who puts in his time mending party lines while the silver cause suffers will be relegated to a deserved seclusion. There is no time for composing differences between men who do not agree on this question. The only thing to be considered is, how those who do agree can get together. Those who say they are for free silver, and at the same time plan for the entry of parties, are not the friends of silver and the suffering people. The entry of said parties is the death of silver as everybody knows.

Those who look to coming years for a peaceful settlement of this matter mistake the condition of the times and the temper of the people. Years can be no delay. The conflict will not wait. The hour has come. The secret of success in this conflict consists in the lining up for the battle. Those who compose the line must be friends, striking the same blows for the same object. This breaks party lines, and party lines once broken, silver will be free.

That meeting of earnest men on the 22nd of January, 1895, marked an event that will live in history. The convention which grew out of it, to be held in St. Louis on the 22nd of July, will undoubtedly be one of the most important conventions and patriotic gatherings ever assembled in this country. Upon the wisdom of its acts and that of the People's party convention, to be held at the same place and time, depends the vital question as to whether we can have a just settlement of this money issue in our generation. If that issue can be clearly presented to the voters of the United States, stripped of all minor political questions and under a standard and leadership which will command the confidence of the people, it will win by an overwhelming majority.

Our labors are urged to push the work of organization with all possible vigor, giving no heed to those who are waiting the action of the old parties, that contain enemies as well as friends of the cause. The power of our organization to defeat the action of Janus-faced politicians is being recognized by all parties, hence clean-cut declarations for or against silver are the rule in local conventions of all parties this year. Our purpose is to unite for action all believers in the restoration of free silver and property. This cannot be accomplished by inaction or delay on the part of our leaders.

The Republican party is committed to the gold standard through the platforms of 80 per cent of the state conventions, and any sensible that may be made to its national platform will deceive no one.

The Democratic party must not expect the country to accept any candidate it may name sequestered in by the gold wing of that party.

The question of vital importance to free silver men is to name a candidate for President upon whom nomination will be readily sequestered in by all the believers in monetary reform.

Friends of silver, look to your interests and organize now while the fruit is ripe for planting. We do not wait on the presidential action of any party.

SILVER MEN WILL BOLT.

CHICAGO, May 31.—A special to the Herald from Pittsburg says: The bolt of the free silver Prohibitionists from the regular national convention, and the formation of a new silver party, is now claimed to be the first move of silver men to bolt all the political conventions.

SAFE FIELD DEAD,

Was Not the Name Called By Mr. Thurston from Yokohama.

CHICAGO, May 30.—H. H. Kohlsaat of the Chicago Times-Herald received a cable message this afternoon dated Yokohama, and signed by Lorin A. Thurston, ex-minister to the United States from the Sandwich Islands, which said:

"Kate Field died at Honolulu, May 18th, of pneumonia."

Miss Field was in the Sandwich Islands as the special correspondent of the Times-Herald, and the last news of her was a letter dated May 5th, in which she informed Mr. Kohlsaat that she had been doing a great deal of horseback riding, and that the exercise in the open air had completely restored her health, which before she went to the Islands had been badly shattered. No further particulars than those contained in the dispatch of Mr. Thurston are known.

MORGAN'S COMPLAINT.

He Says We Are Progressing Towards Royal Prerogatives.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Senator Morgan of the committee on foreign relations and author of the joint resolution recognizing the existence of a state of war in Cuba and declaring the neutrality of the United States, was asked today concerning the probability of securing action on the resolution before adjournment, and in reply said:

"Unless the House should act upon Mr. Hyde's resolution, which is identical with the resolution offered by me in the Senate, that is now held up in the committee on foreign relations. Congress will probably dispose before any further action is possible. The responsibility will doubtless lessen the disposition of some senators. The disposition of the majority of the Senate committee is to devolve upon the President a responsibility that he is evidently eager to assume. Congress has practically ceased to be a factor in the government, except in the case of a war, when the Constitution permits it to act. Really by a (w)hitlike vote, Congress has ceased to be a factor in the government, except in the case of a war, when the Constitution permits it to act. Really by a (w)hitlike vote, Congress has practically ceased to be a factor in the government, except in the case of a war, when the Constitution permits it to act. Really by a (w)hitlike vote, Even this function is denied when it is applied to our foreign political relations.

"For a government with co-ordinate departments, of which we boast, we are making a strange and rapid movement toward re-establishing the royal prerogative in the hands of our executive. If any British constitutional power was destroyed in America by the revolution of 1776, it was the prerogative of the crown. If the President, acting alone, can substitute the action of the body of the law of war for the laws of peace, which are governing our relations with Cuba, and if he can make the total revolution of our legal status as citizens and as a nation binding upon us by his proclamation, it is in vain that we abolished the prerogative in our federal Constitution. If the President, without the concurrence of Congress, should proclaim that war existed in Cuba, and that the United States assumed the relation of a neutral power toward the recognized belligerents under the laws of nations, he would usurp a power of the most dangerous character. In the moment of that usurpation he would be a dictator. Our submission for a decree that would be so just and so humane, the people would forgive the usurpation, but the shock it would give to our free government would lead in time to dictator.

"War exists in Cuba, and the whole world knows it, and while Spain admits its existence in every act, but refuses it on paper and in a diplomatic way, our government and people are required to endanger this falsehood and to admit that peace prevails in that island. They punish our people for treason, insurrection and piracy with the death penalty because they are charged with disturbing the peace and violating laws that are intended to preserve the peace in Cuba, while peace does not exist in the island.

"After the almost unanimous declaration of both houses of Congress that belligerent rights should be accorded to Cuba and that we should treat them, if we deprive without giving relief to our people from this situation, we can find no excuse for abandoning them to this dreadful fate, except that we are really to abdicate our power in favor of the two supposed power or wishes of the President. The President's powers are not increased by our refusal to exercise powers that rightfully belong to Congress alone or jointly to both departments of our government. So far as I am concerned this will not be done through any want of effort on my part.

"For more than seven weeks the President has known the will of Congress, which expresses constitutionally the will of the people. If that declaration is not sufficient to give the people security against Spanish violation of our treaties, or to improve the President with the solemnity, we should not, and cannot, be justice to ourselves, omit to present the same facts and convictions to the President in a definite form of action that he cannot refuse to consider.

"Neither Spain nor the President, with the armies and navies of both countries and the aid of the civil powers given the President under our laws, with the terrace of Spanish cruelty and the aid of our police and the Spanish police and the Pinkertons to our pole, have been able to prevent the carrying of men and munitions of war from the United States to Cuba. This effort has been presented with a faithlessness and vigilance worthy of a better cause.

"The President has refused to inform Congress of his attitude of the executive department as to the conviction and sentence of death of our citizens captured on the Competitor. That is not a negotiation. No new treaty is needed to cover our rights in that subject. It is an accomplished fact, and the victims are in prison under a vile sentence unwittingly imposed upon them.

"The plea is urged for the delay of further action by Congress that a recognition of belligerency, morally, will give rise to new complications, and if we do anything it is wise to recognize the independence of Cuba and leave it to Spain to declare war for that act. If she resents such a course. That ground is taken with no expectation of its resulting in such recognition. It is not necessary that we should have war with Spain in order to give our citizens the shelter of the law of nations in respect to a public war that already exists in Cuba.

"It is our own people and not the Cubans that we should protect (and this plain duty relates to the existing state of late and not to conditions that may exist if we should hereafter be engaged in war with Spain."

Jackson Sentenced.

NEWTON, KS., May 29.—Judge Hein today overturned the motion for a new trial for Scott Jackson, convicted of the murder of Pearl Bryce, and sentenced Jackson to be hanged on June 26. Subsequently the court granted a motion for a stay of execution in sixty days to enable the defendant to take the case before the court of appeals.

EMPEROR WILLIAM.

His Startling Experiment With a Lunatic.

BERLIN, May 30.—(Copyrighted, 1896, by the Associated Press.)—The Emperor had a startling experience on Monday, during a pleasure excursion with the empress, near Potsdam. He was accosted by an escaped lunatic, named Becker, a salesman of Berlin, who had made his way out of the asylum near Dalldorf. He addressed his majesty as being a usurper to the throne, which rightfully belongs to Becker. The maniac entered the imperial train handkerchief. Emperor was seized by members of his majesty's suite and escorted to this city, where his identity was established. Emperor William is said to have been greatly perturbed by the incident.

The majesty was the center of public attention during the past week. His protectorate of Hamburg for Bismarck upon the occasion of the ex-chancellor's funeral, and his purport to honor of his grandmother, Queen Victoria, have been much commented, especially the behavior toward the latter. He was received most cordially with the British ambassador, Sir Frederick Lascelles, and this is interpreted as a sign that the relations between Germany and Great Britain have improved. The inspection of the British naval engineers will visit Hamburg and Berlin in June, and great preparations are being made for the reception of the visitors, due to the emperor's personal influence.

Whooping Cough.

There is no danger from this disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It lessens the cough and cures the disease quickly. It also lessens the severity and frequency of paroxysms of coughing, and insures a speedy recovery. There is not the least danger in giving the remedy to children or babies, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale by druggists.

While in Stockton, Cal., some time ago, Thos. F. Lanigan, of Los Banos, that state, was taken very severely with cramps and diarrhoea. He chanced to meet Mr. C. M. Carter, who was similarly afflicted. He gave "a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and we went to the Golden Drug Store and procured a bottle of it. It gave Mr. Carter prompt relief and I can vouch for its having cured me." For sale by druggists.
