OGDEN COLLEGE,

WM. A. OBENCHAIN, A. M., PRESIDENT.

DEAR SIR:

I am more than pleased with my "Howe" Ventilating Stove, and cannot say too much in its praise. In the first place, It is the only base burner I have ever seen that is constructed on correct principles, while in heating capacity and economy of fuel it is all that you claim for it. In the fresh air which it warms and diffuses throughout the house there is a balminess of temperature which I have never found in the heat of any ther stove; not even when sitting close to the stove is there any sense of oppressiveness.

Very truly yours,

WM. A. OBENCHAIN, Prest.

The "Howe" Ventilator stands today the most remarkable discovery in heating stove construction. We will cheerfully refund the price of any stove not proving Perfectly Satisfactory.

WHY INDIANS DANCE

Little Wound Says they Want to Exhibit Their Discontent.

THE IRISH DELEGATES IN AMERICA.

The Story of an Editor and a Town Marshal in Alabama.

A CONFERENCE.

Little Wound Does Not Want War, He Says.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 29.—A Pioneer Press special from Pine Ridge Agency says a conference was held today between Special Agent Cooper, Agent Roger and ex-Agent McGillicuddy and the chiefs Bad Yellow Hair, Little Wound, Little Bear and Broken Arm. Little Wound was spokesman and many questions submitted to him met with evasive answers. He frequently asserted that he did not want war with the whites. He said the dance was organized by the Indians because they have an accumulation of grievances, and used this means to exhibit their discontent. One great cause of trouble seems to be jealousy among the chiefs and Indians. Little wound made several statements which were directly at variance with the facts and therefore all his talk was taken with allowance. The sensational reports of last night that a battle was imminent had no foundation. The correspondent asserts that an investigation shows that mismanagement of the Indian bureau is largely responsible for all the trouble.

THE INDIANS ENJOY THE REPORTS.

PIERRE, S. D., Nov. 29.—The fact that several companies of troops have reached the Bad Land country and will head off any marauding Indians, has resulted in a subsidence, to a large extent, of the scare.

An Indian who was sent to Bigfoot and Hump's camps at the mouth of Cherry Creek some time ago, returned to Fort Bennett today and says the intention of the hostiles is apparently to soon join Short Bull on Pass creek, and subsist there during the winter on cattle quartered in the Bad Lands. He said there was a number of educated Indians among the Cherry creek hostiles, who came to Pierre regularly and bought copies of the papers. These they took back and read to the other Indians. The Indians, he said, enjoyed greatly the reports of great alarm everywhere among the whites. It seemed to strengthen their belief that the Messiah was coming and the whites were ready to either die off or leave the land to the Indians.

BUFFALO BILL AT THE AGENCY.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 29.—A special from Standing Rock Agency to the Tribune says Buffalo Bill and Powell had not been many hours at the agency today before the report spread that they had come for the purpose of arresting Sitting Bull and removing him from the reservation. Cody and one or two others left for Bull's camp about noon. Trouble is anticipated in case arrest is attempted and the soldiers at Fort Yates are prepared for a campaign at a moment's notice. Information was obtained tonight that the commanding officer of the post has received instructions from General Miles to postpone the arrest of Sitting Bull for the present. Agent McLaughlin has couriers out to catch Buffalo Bill. Messengers from Bull's camp last night reported a dance going on, but everything quiet.

THE NAVAJOES.

FORT WINGATE, N. M., Nov. 29.—Rumors are current of a probable uprising amongst the Navajo Indians, the sudden departure of the Sixth Cavalry attracting a number of Navajoes into the post. The traders and others report them as very insolent and overbearing. They are holding large dances and believe in the Messiah craze. They are even holding a dance near the limits of the post, led by medicine men. The ranchers report that cattle are being killed, horses stolen and cowboys attacked.

THE NINTH CAVALRY READY.

OMAHA, Nov. 29.—The Bee's Pine Ridge correspondent telegraphs tonight that all appears to be in readiness for a move of the Ninth Cavalry, presumably against the ghost dancers, but no information can be obtained. The correspondent learned that troops are now stationed all around the discontented Indians, in such a manner that the latter can be rounded up and confronted by an overwhelming force without delay.

EXPOSED TO DANGER.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 29.—A telegram from Fort Sill calls attention to the fact that troops are being drawn away from the West and South west to Dakota, leaving the inhabitants in Texas, New Mexico and Arizona exposed to danger from the wild, fierce tribes. The Blanket Indians, in the Southwest part of Indian Territory, have caught the "Messiah" craze and are dancing.

ON THE CANADIAN RIVER.

PARIS, TEXAS, Nov. 29.—Information reached here tonight from the Comanche and Kiowa reservations that a great number had joined the Cheyennes and Arapahoes in the Messiah craze, and it is now in full force on the Canadian river, where the ghost dance is in progress. It is estimated that 3000 are there, all armed, and plenty of cattle.

MORE ARRESTS.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 29.—A Chamberlain, S. D., special to the Pioneer Press says the Indian police at Lower Brule made several more arrests today, but the dance still continues at White River. No danger is apprehended.

GENERAL MILES' TACTICS.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D., Nov. 30.—The hostile Indians, numbering nearly 6000, are gathered at Wounded Knee in war paint, and threaten an immediate attack. Preparations for a fight are going on in a camp here.

The plan of General Miles is to hem in with soldiers the entire country occupied by the exciled Indians. The links in this great military chain are around by the east to North Rosebud, Lower Brule, Fort Sully, the Cheyenne river fort, and by the west to North Clericks, Fort Meade and Standing Rock. This is the circle, with Fort Robinson on the southwest and Fort Niobrara on the southeast as supply stations to the entire system.

A scout came in from Wounded Knee last night and reported that the ghost dancers had killed one of their number. A medicine man concocted the old-time preparation with which the braves of Custer's time saturated their shirts preparatory to going to war. This concoction is supposed to ward off bullets. Yesterday a war shirt was dipped into the mixture and drowned by one of the braves. He then jumped into the midst of the dancers and called upon them to fire at him. They complied and fell mortally wounded.

THE STORY ABOUT JACK WILSON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Mr. Mayhugh, until recently special census agent for the Indians of Nevada, has written the Indian Bureau about the alleged Messiah, who has been referred to in these dispatches as "John Sides." Mayhugh says his name is not Sides, but Captain Jack Wilson, and that he is known to the Indians as Co-We-Jo. He goes into trances, seemingly for several hours at a time, in the presence of a gathering of Indians. On coming out of these trances he tells them he has been to Heaven conferring with the Messiah; that the latter is coming to the earth and will put the Indians in possession of it, etc. The Messiah is to appear on Mount Grant, about sixteen miles south of the Walker River agency building. Mayhugh says the Indians hold this to be a sacred mountain. He thinks if the Indians are let alone at the various reservations the whole thing will die out. All of the Walker Lake Indians don't believe in it, although Chief Joseph seems to. Co-We-Jo's influence is greatly strengthened by the fact that he has once or twice predicted the coming of rain badly needed.

HAVE MOVED THEIR CAMP.

PINE RIDGE, Nov. 30.—It is learned that the hostiles have moved camp into the bad lands and there await the coming of the troops. The scouts say that the region is better adapted for Indian purposes than the lava beds in Oregon.

It is an utterly barren region of precipitous cliffs and canyons. Few white men are acquainted with it, but the Indians know it perfectly. The fact that it would be possible for Indians from there to continue raids on settlers on the surrounding lands with impunity constitutes the reason why troops should push after the Indians now. The scout who brought the information of the movement also said the hostiles had slaughtered 500 head of cattle, mostly government property.

INDIANS STARVING.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—Adjutant General Williams tonight received a telegram from General Brooke, of Pine Ridge agency, saying there is no material change in the situation. The reported depredations by Indians are not yet substantiated, but parties are looking into the matter. General Brooke adds: "The Indians here are suffering for food, and I have nothing to give them. The proverbial improvidence of food causes this.

Advices were also received from Fort Bennett that the dancing still continues at Cherry Creek, under the leadership of Hump and Big Foot.

PARNELL MUST RETIRE.

So Say the Irish Delegates in America.

CHICAGO, Nov. 30.—Tonight, while O'Brien, Gill and O'Connor were drawing up documents severing their connection with Parnell on lines agreed upon by their colleagues in the afternoon, the other delegates—Dillon, Sullivan and Harrington—were dining in another part of the city, in company with Mrs. Parnell, the aged mother of the man. Five of them had decided that he must retire. So far as can be learned, the knowledge of what had been done was kept from the old lady, and to those who knew what was going on down town the scene must have seemed strangely unreal.

The delegates who signed the manifesto were deeply agitated this evening, but felt that they had taken the only proper course. It was announced late tonight that Harrington, who did not sign the manifesto, will separate from his comrades and return to Ireland. In an interview Harrington said the leadership of Parnell was absolutely necessary to success. He desires the united independence of the Irish party and deems Parnell's leadership necessary for this.

PARNELL STILL OBSTINATE.

Parnell and such of his party as support him had a conference last night. It is understood that Condon, Roche, Deasy and Lane urged Parnell to retire. Parnell, however, expressed a determination to fight to the last. If Parnell's supporters adopt obstructive tactics at the meeting tomorrow the anti-Parnellites will leave the meeting in a body, and vote for his retirement elsewhere.

A report is current that unless Gladstone withdraws the denial of his letter Parnell will produce proofs he has hitherto withheld of the accuracy of his statement.

Dr. Parker, in his sermon today, said Parnell's manifesto shows the writer must be mad.

A FIGHTING EDITOR.

He is Reported to Have Killed a Marshal.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 29.—At Sylacauga, Ala., this morning W. L. B. Hunter, editor of a weekly paper and correspondent of several daily papers in the State, shot and killed Charles Nickerson, the town marshal.

Monday night Hunter and a party of friends were out on a lark and were arrested by the marshal for firing pistols on the streets. In a dispatch to a morning paper in this city, Hunter mentioned the arrest and charged that the marshal was drunk at the time. When Nickerson read the article he was very angry, but did not meet Hunter until today. They met on the street, when, it is claimed, the marshal attacked the editor with a stick; Hunter shot him twice, one ball taking effect in the brain, causing instant death. Hunter is in jail.

A Good Recipe.

The new servant girl tried two kinds of furniture polish on the rosewood dining table. She declared that American furniture polish was "no good at all, at all." She got half a pound of white bees' wax, two cakes of Castile soap, and a pint of turpentine. She boiled the soap and wax together—that is, she melted them until they ran together. She then poured in the turpentine. All the hard wood in the house shines like mirror glass now. "'Tis the way they make the bars shine in Dublin," says she.

A Tree Worth $5000.

On the side of the Big Black Mountain, 300 yards from the Wise County line, in Harlan County, Ky., there stood until last week a tree that is thought to be the most valuable tree in the South Appalachian Mountains.

It is curled grain black walnut, and the owner had it grubbed up by the roots so as not to lose even a chip.

A New York lumber dealer bought the tree from an ignorant mountaineer for $50, paid a man $300 to move it to the nearest railroad, and thinks he will make a profit of $5000 from the tree.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

First Little Boy—My pa's a Free-will Baptist; what's yours?

Second Little Boy—Mine says he's a Free Thinker, but I doubt it.

Why so?

I know it because he has to think about as ma says.—Texas Siftings.

WHY THE DESERET NEWS SHOULD BE SUBSCRIBED FOR IN PREFERENCE TO ANY OTHER PAPER.

1. It is the Organ of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and the authorized medium through which the views, wishes and instructions of the Church Authorities are expressed, and given to the world.

2. It may always be relied upon as advocating or defending the right side of every question proper for public discussion to treat upon.

3. It is devoted to the interests of the Latter-day Saints, and has, from its inception, valiantly defended their rights and advocated the principles in which they believe; and every Latter-day Saint should therefore feel under obligations to do his part in helping to sustain it.

4. It is not published for speculation, and never has been, but for the good which it is capable of accomplishing; the profits, if any there be derived from it, being devoted to extending its sphere of usefulness, and benefiting the community.

5. It is doing its utmost to establish home industries, among which are paper-making, type-founding, stereotyping and electrotyping—branches necessary to the development and independence of the community, but which, during their infancy (which in the Territory they have not yet passed), can only be carried on at a pecuniary loss.

6. There is no danger of any subscriber to the News failing to get what he subscribes for through failure of the business and a suspension of the publication—a common result in the case of hundreds of newspaper ventures every year.

7. It is now printed throughout in new and readable type, so that even the aged can peruse it without difficulty or danger to their eye-sight.

8. It is free from objectionable advertisements, so that no parent need fear that his children will have their minds corrupted from having access to it; in fact, it refuses thousands of dollars worth of the best paying advertisements annually, because it is devoted to the moral and spiritual interests of its readers instead of to getting gain at their expense.

9. Its tone is not regulated by public opinion nor the hope of gaining subscribers or advertisements. It advocates that which is right and condemns that which is wrong, regardless of results financial or otherwise.

10. It never announces its numbers by printing off columns of self-praise for newspapers.

11. The News practices no deception and resorts to no subterfuges to induce people to subscribe; but, on the contrary, prefers to stand upon its own merits, as the people's newspaper, with a promise only to do its utmost to give its patrons the full value of their money—a promise which it has endeavored to faithfully keep in the past.

12. In conclusion, if a Latter-day Saint can afford to subscribe for only one paper, that paper should be the DESERET NEWS; and if more than one, the News should invariably be the first.

The "braggy" method of advertising costs nothing. Day after day printer's ink produces assertions which we clip and read much to our amusement. After a careful study, we find that every dealer carries the "largest, finest and cheapest stock in the city." Why such foul "ads" are issued is more than we can explain. While we are not contesting supremacy in the ranks of the largest Clothing Establishments from New York to San Francisco, yet we claim the title of "First-Class Clothiers" of the continent, and beyond question the largest in the Northwest.
