DIED UNDER THE OPERATION

Treatment for the Removal of Facial Blemishes.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—John White, 23 years of age, daughter of Benjamin S. White, a wealthy lumber man, died at her home in Chicago, under the treatment for the removal of facial blemishes.

White was treated by Dr. J. H. White, a physician who had been practicing in Chicago for many years. The treatment consisted of the use of an electric current, which was applied to the face. The current was supposed to destroy the blemishes, but it had the effect of destroying the life of the patient.
