THE AUTUMN GAME OF POLO.

The East has just caught the polo fever, which has raged in the West for several years. The game of polo is played on horseback, and is not only a sport, but a fine art; it can well be classified with poor riding and other gentlemanly sports. To play the game successfully on horseback requires not only a skillful rider, but a trained horse. An untrained horse on the gun ground would be here by the score of its rider and would be hopeless if one of the riders dropped, which must all be conveyed by the feet and legs.

TRAIN DITCHED AND MAIL AGENT KILLED

Cases of Thompson and Davidson—New Presidio Hospital—Troops Embark on the Senator—Lost Both Legs.

The transport Kentucky, was docked Sunday and will be made in readiness for further service.

Daniel Kreider died at Cripple Creek Sunday through taking an overdose of morphine. His mother is said to live in Ogden.

The troops assigned to the transport Senator will go on board today (Monday) and the vessel will sail for Manila on Tuesday.

The remains of Chaplain Freeman of the Baltimore, who committed suicide at Nagasaki and which were brought over by the Zealandia, were shipped to Logansport, Ind., today (Monday).

The resignation of Major John Carr of the Washington regiment has been telegraphed to Washington. Major Carr gives as his reason for resigning the necessity of attending to business affairs.

A carpenter named Eli Sens, while crawling under a Southern Pacific freight train to get across the track at Reno, Nev., Saturday night, was thrown under the wheels and lost both legs. He died at 4 o'clock Sunday morning.

There are now seven United States transports in port at San Francisco. The arrival of the Zealandia and Pennsylvania has made it possible to send all the remaining troops on the Presidio away in a bunch and the chances are that they will be on the way before next week.

Butte and Deadwood played football Sunday, each scoring a touchdown, and the game ended in a tie. During the game Mahoney, left halfback for Butte, got under the pile in a mix up. He appeared to suffer no serious injuries at the time, but Monday night he became unconscious and was taken to the hospital. He has concussion of the brain and the chances for his recovery are slight.

Word reached Los Angeles, Cal., Sunday night that the deathbed Pacific overland train No. 1, the mail train, was ditched near Colton. The Mail Agent Gordon F. Rodgers was killed. As far as learned there were no other fatalities. The overland was sent east in charge of Conductor Ryan, and the Colton train was delayed on account of the track being blocked.

Gerald will soon be broken for the same head on at the Presidio Presentation to young Herrod, for the part of sergeant-major in the war with the Philippines and Hawaiian is most proper. The prize provided for the holidays, arranged for all possible contingencies. They will be of wood, but will not be in any sense temporary structures. The best of materials will be laid and the buildings will be substantially built in every particular.

Troops from Camp Merriam in the vicinity of San Francisco, passed through the streets of San Francisco this Monday morning to embark on the steamer Senator for Manila. They embraced the third battalion of the Twenty-third infantry, recruits for the Second Oregon and Battery D of the California heavy artillery. The troops were up early and the men took up their march to the Pacific street dock, where they arrived at 11 o'clock. The Senator is scheduled to get to sea on the ebb tide at 1 o'clock this (Monday) afternoon.

The Seattle Post-Intelligencer says: one of the results of the survey of the mouth of the Yukon over this summer by Capt. Pratt of the Coast and Geodetic survey, is to add an area of 2,500 square miles to Uncle Sam's domain. Capt. Pratt found that the south mouth of the Yukon emptied into Bering sea twenty-five miles further west than has been supposed. In addition to this it was found that the whole coast line, from Cape Deer around to St. Michaels, is further west than is shown on the maps. The strip to be added embraces about 2,500 square miles.

On adoption of Colonel Wheaton of the Washington regiment, a board of officers was appointed some days ago to examine Chaplain J. B. Thompson and Lieut. S. C. Davidson of that regiment as to their fitness for the chaplaincy during the journey to the Philippines. The board found that both were unfitted as reported. Thompson has been approved only in part by the commanding general, who has ordered the Chaplain Thompson proceed with his regiment to Manila and that Lieutenant Davidson be assigned to some command remaining at San Francisco. Davidson has been attached to the Nevada cavalry.

The transport Pennsylvania, which arrived at San Francisco Sunday morning from Manila, via the Ladrone Islands and Honolulu, brought thirteen sick soldiers from Manila and sixteen from Honolulu. Among the latter were Clement Acker, James Dunt, Joel Holmes, William Phillips and H. M. Hallock, all of the New York volunteers. The men were at once removed to the division hospital. Phillips and Hallock became demented at Honolulu and Hallock was so violent Sunday that he was put in a straight-jacket. The Pennsylvania brings no news of importance. She will be fumigated and docked immediately.

Somewhere about San Francisco curbstone bunco game is being which was sent from Manila to H. H. Materson of Tacoma, to be delivered to the people of Olympia. The case of the Sagalkin Olympia captured the seizure and decided to present it to the city for which it was named. Thomas Tonney of Tacoma was interested with the arrangements. He sent it to America by James Curtis, a messenger on the steamer City of Sydney. The San Francisco customs authorities seized the emblem and, according to advices received at Tacoma, are about to send it to Mare Island, Mainmast is corresponding with the owner of the Sagalkin and the San Francisco officials, so far some reason has neglected to notify the city of Olympia of its unbracketed gift.

England and Russia in the Far East.

It is not only British trade and capital, but also British shipping and British subjects, that Russia seeks to exclude. A Russian law has been passed which comes into force in 1899, under which goods forwarded between Russian ports, whether in Europe or the Far East, must be carried in Russian ships. The only exception is with regard to silk carried between Russian ports on the Baltic and the Black Sea. A further law has been enacted, also coming into force in 1899, under which only Russian sailors may be employed in Russian ships; and it will be remembered what efforts have been made by Russia to exclude British engineers from Manchuria, and how the Japanese engineers employed by the Chinese customs under Sir Robert Hart have been dismissed by the Russian sphere influence.

It is well to remember that, although at the present time these regulations are directed against British interests, and will be enforced against British carriers enterprise, and one may lay stress on passing on the date 1899. It has been hoped that by 1899 the Siberian railway would be completed. The 1899 the Russian government is forbidden by treaty with Russia to construct railways in Corea. It is expected that by 1899 the Siberian railway will be in use on the coast of Lapland will be completed, and therefore every British subject from Aberdeen to London, it was at one time expected that by 1899 regular steamship communication between Tacoma, on the Sound, and Port Victoria, on the Sea, would be established, and the new Pacific route to the Atlantic Ocean (a Norwegian territory, and by British) and for port Victoria the fair the Pacific Pacificus. Yet there are those who say that Russian control of Port Arthur has been predicted to make an incapable of planning a forward movement on more than one point at a given date.
