CRITICAL ANALYSIS.

UNIVERSITY OF DESERET, Salt Lake City, June 8th, 1887.

By carefully examining DeLand's Chemical Baking Powder with the microscope and with chemical reagents, I find that it is free from Alum, Starch, Flour, Bone Ash, Ammonia and White Earths; and that it consists essentially of Cream of Tartar and Bi-carbonate of Soda.

The Baking Powder examined I purchased at Barnes & Davis, in this city.

A SURE CURE FOR THE PILES.—You need not suffer from this most distressing disease again in all your life. Emall's Balm acts as a poultice and lubricator, absorbs the tumors and allays the intense itching at once. No caustic, no acid, no pain. A. McGibbons Esq., 19 Poplar street, Allegheny, Pa., writes: "I had itching and bleeding piles so bad I could not sit, stand or walk without intense suffering. I doctored with many physicians, and tried all the (so called) cures that I ever heard of, in vain (paying out hundreds of dollars), until I used Emall's Magic Balm, or Ointment. After the first application I enjoyed the best night's sleep I had for ten years, and two boxes have cured me completely." ☞ Wherever introduced Dr. Emall's Balm takes the lead, and has the largest sale of any Pile remedy in the world. How a Dying Child Was Saved!

CICERO, HAMILTON CO., IND., Sept. 19, 1887.—The following is a true account of what your S. S. S. has done for our little daughter, Hazel, now four years old. When 12 months old a lump appeared on her heel, which slowly grew larger. The family physician thought it was caused by a piece of broken glass or needle, but failed to bring anything to light. The child became feebler all the time, seeming to lose the use of her leg, and finally quit walking entirely. The middle and fourth joints of either hand became enlarged, the flesh becoming hard. The hip joints became involved, so that when seventeen months old she could not stand, having lost the use of leg and arm. Partial curvature of the spine also followed. The nervous system was wrecked, muscles contracted, and there was general wasting of flesh and muscle. At eighteen months of age she was placed under the treatment of a prominent physician of Boston, Mass., but at the end of ten months she had declined to such a degree that she was in a dying condition. This was in April, 1885. We took the child away not knowing what to do. In this dreadful dilemma we were over-persuaded by friends to try "one bottle" of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC, which we did, and before it had all been taken we saw a change for the better in her symptoms. We kept it up, and have done so to this day, and will keep it up, if the Lord wills, for many days to come, for it has brought our dying Hazel to life, to vigor, to strength and health again. The ashen hue of her cheeks has changed to a rosy tint. She is able to walk anywhere, her languor and melancholy have passed away, and she is now a blithe, cheerful, happy romping child. Should you wish to increase your testimonials of proof of the virtue of S. S. S., our names and what we have said is but a portion of what we owe to you, should you wish to use them.

Kindly yours, BEN. F. SWIFT. GERTRUDE E. SWIFT.

A NEW LAW.

AN ACT REGULATING MARRIAGE.

SECTION 1.—Be it enacted by the Governor and Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Utah, that marriage between parents and children, ancestors and descendants of every degree, and between brothers and sisters of the half as well as the whole blood, and between uncles and nieces or aunts and nephews, or between any persons related to each other within and not including the fourth degree of consanguinity, computed according to the rules of civil law, are incestuous and void from the beginning, whether the relationship is legitimate or illegitimate.

SEC. 2. Marriage is prohibited and declared void:

1. With an idiot or lunatic.

2. When there is a husband or wife living from whom the person marrying has not been divorced.

3. When not solemnized by an authorized person, except as provided in Section 7 of this act.

4. When at the time of marriage, the male is under 14, or the female is under 12 years of age.

5. Between a negro and a white person.

6. Between a Mongolian and a white person.

SEC. 3. Where the marriage is contracted in good faith, and with the belief of the parties, that a former husband or wife, then living, was dead or legally divorced, the issue of such marriage, born or begotten before notice of the mistake, shall be the legitimate issue of both parents.

SEC. 4. Courts having general equity jurisdiction may declare void a marriage obtained by force or fraud, or at the instance of any next friend, where the male was under 16 or the female under 14 years of age at the time of the marriage, and the marriage was without the consent of the father, mother, guardian or other person having the proper charge of his or her person, and has not been ratified, by cohabitation, after that age.

SEC. 5. Marriages solemnized in any other country, State or Territory, if valid where solemnized, are valid here.

SEC. 6. No marriage solemnized before any person professing to have authority therefor, shall be invalid for want of such authority, if it is consummated with the belief of the parties, or either of them, that he had authority, and that they have been lawfully married.

SEC. 7. Marriages shall be solemnized by the following persons only:

1—Ministers of the gospel, or priests of any denomination in regular communion with any religious society.

2—Probate judges, justices of the peace and judges of the district and supreme courts.

SEC. 8. No marriage shall be solemnized without a license therefor, issued by the clerk of the probate court of the county in which the female resides at the time. Provided, that when she is of full age or a widow, and it is issued on her application in person, or by writing signed by her, it may be issued by the clerk of any probate court.

SEC. 9.—If at the time of applying for license, the male shall be under 21 or the female under 18 years of age, and not before married, no license shall be issued without the consent of his or her father, mother, or guardian, personally given or certified in writing to the clerk, over his or her signature, attested by two or more subscribing witnesses, and proved by the oath of one of them, administered by the clerk. When the parties are personally unknown to the clerk, a license shall not issue, until an affidavit is made before the clerk, which shall be filed and preserved by him, by the party applying for such license, showing that there is no lawful reason in the way of such marriage. The party making said affidavit, or any subscribing witness, if he falsely swear therein is guilty of perjury.

SEC. 10. The person solemnizing the marriage shall, within thirty days thereafter, return the license to the clerk of the Probate Court of the county whence it is issued, with a certificate of the marriage over his signature, giving the date and place of celebration, and the names of two or more witnesses present at the marriage. For failing to make such return he is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 11. The license, together with the certificate of the person officiating at the marriage, shall be filed and preserved by the said clerk, and shall be recorded by him in a book kept for that purpose, which shall be properly indexed in the names of the parties so married.

SEC. 12. If any person shall solemnize a marriage without such license, he shall be imprisoned not less than one nor more than twelve months in the county jail, or fined not more than $1000, or both fined and imprisoned.

SEC. 13.—If any person, not authorized, shall solemnize a marriage under pretense of having authority, or falsely personate the father, mother or guardian in obtaining license, or forges the name of any father, mother or guardian to any writing purporting to give consent to such marriage, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding three years.

SEC. 14.—If any authorized person shall knowingly, with or without license, solemnize a marriage, such as is herein prohibited, he shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding three years, or fined not exceeding $1,000, or both fined and imprisoned.

SEC. 15.—Every clerk or deputy clerk who shall knowingly issue a license for any prohibited marriage, shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding two years or fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000, or by both fine and imprisonment, and in case of conviction, shall be expelled from his office by the judgment of the court before which his conviction is had. And if he wilfully issues a license contrary to his duty, as herein prescribed, he shall be fined not exceeding $1,000.

SEC. 16. In the absence of the clerk, or during a vacancy in the office, the license may be issued by the probate judge, who, in so doing, shall perform the duties and shall incur all the responsibilities of the clerk, and be liable to the same penalties, and shall return a memorandum thereof to the clerk, and the same shall be recorded as if issued by him.

SEC. 17. When doubt is felt as to the validity of the marriage, either party may, in a court of equity, demand its avoidance or affirmance, but when one of the parties was within the age of consent at the time of the marriage, the other party being of proper age shall have no such proceeding for that cause against the party under age.

SEC. 18.—All fines collected for any violation of this act shall be paid into the treasury of the Territory.

SEC. 19.—The clerks of the various probate courts shall be entitled for each license issued, the sum of one dollar, and for recording the same, when returned to him, the sum of one dollar and twenty-five cents, all of which he may demand at the time of issuing the license.

W. W. RITER, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ELIAS A. SMITH, President of the Council.

Approved March 8, 1888.

CALEB W. WEST, Governor of Utah Territory.

They tell down east of a poor fellow who owned a remarkably fat hog, and who also owed a rich man. The hog was about all the property the poor debtor had worth levying on, and the law exempted a man's only pig. One day the creditor, meeting the debtor, said, "You need another pig, let me send you a nice little one." The poor man was astonished. "Why, I owe you for the hog I've got now," he stammered. "Never mind, you need another one, and I'll send it," and he did; and the little pig was put in the pen by the side of the fat one. In less than an hour the constable came and attached the fat hog and took it away, and thus the law and the rich man were satisfied.

Through the medium of one of your books received through Mr. Frank T. I take great pleasure in forwarding to you this testimonial, unsolicited as it is by you, in order that others suffering from similar maladies may be encouraged to give your CUTICURA REMEDIES a trial.

James E. Richardson, Custom House, New Orleans, on oath says: "In 1870 Scrofulous Ulcers broke out on my body until I was a mass of corruption. Everything known to the medical faculty was tried in vain. I became a mere wreck. At times I could not lift my hands to my head, could not turn in bed, was in constant pain, and looked upon life as a curse. No relief or cure in ten years. In 1880 I heard of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, used them, and was perfectly cured."
