SALT LAKE CITY, September 13, 1871.

WEATHER ITEM.—The highest point reached by the thermometer to-day was 78.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE MEMBERS of the High Council are requested to meet at the City Hall on Thursday and Friday mornings at ten o'clock.

GOING EAST.—H. B. Hawkins, Esq., will start for the East in the morning. His business connected with the Northern Pacific Railroad he has left in the hands of Daniel Grant, of this city, who will furnish all inquirers with reports of excursion parties, circulars, etc.

VANITY.—Some of the stuff that is penned for correspondents, or professedly so printed, is really as unmitigated trash as it is easy to conceive of. For instance, a letter appeared in the Chicago Times recently, signed the "gifted writer" expatiates rhapsodically upon stupid-faced masculines, vinegar feminines, Ogden a den of thieves, Mormon isolation, one hundred pairs of eyes pointing skywards, 16th drink, 24th wife, and——n that infernal old Mormon," Brigham. The Times, or any other newspaper must have been wonderfully hard pressed for matter to admit two columns of such frothy inkslinging as that. It is a slap upon the tastes of the Chicagoans.

THE MIDNIGHT RAID POLICY.—How is it now? Is this nefarious policy of sending out deputy marshals with five or six officers, under shadow of the blackness of midnight, to raid upon the citizens, here, there, everywhere, to be continued? If so, "due notice be given" and the people "govern themselves accordingly." A mansion's house has been talked of as his castle, but if the sudden furtive attacks of social times, attacks at midnight, are to be perpetrated now, why every man will feel necessitated to consider that his house ought to be prepared and defended as his castle, and then midnight raids will not be certain to prove harmless—somebody will get hurt.

HANDING IT CHEAP.—Ten dollars for an outrageous attempt upon a girl in New York. They don't rate feminine purity very highly there. The people here are down upon outrages of that class, but there are some who prowl around, expecting deputy marshals and courts to protect them in such diabolical business, and the marshals and courts—well, everybody knows what they do.

INTERNATIONAL MONEY ORDER SYSTEM. The International Money Order system, which will be in operation in this Territory, as will be seen by the annexed communication of Postmaster Moore, on and after the 2nd of next October, will prove a great boon to the people, especially to the poorer class. We have many times been interrogated by divers individuals as to the manner of remitting money to Great Britain, and many, doubtless, who wished to remit small sums for the relief of their friends, have been deterred from doing so owing to their ignorance of how they should proceed in the matter. All difficulty in this respect will soon be removed. All that a person, wishing to remit any sum of money to Great Britain or Ireland, will have to do after the inauguration of the system, will be to apply to the Post office for an order, in the same manner as if the money was only to be remitted to the next town. The system, of course, is reciprocal between the two countries, parties being able to remit from Great Britain to this country in the same way:

POST OFFICE, SALT LAKE CITY,
September 12th, 1871.

Editor Deseret News:—The Post-Master General has selected this office, with others, for the issue of Postal Orders, payable in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Monday the 2nd of next October has been fixed as the date on which the issue and payment of British International Money Orders is to commence.

RATES OF COMMISSIONS.

On orders not exceeding $10, 25 cts.
Over $10 and not exceeding $20, 50 cts.
Over $20 and not exceeding $30, 75 cts.
Over $30 and not exceeding $40, $1.00.
Over $40 and not exceeding $50, $1.25.

No single order issued for more than $50. Parties desiring to remit larger amounts must obtain additional orders.

J. M. MOORE,
Post Master.

GETTING THROUGH WITH IT, DO.—When will California get through with counting and examining votes and other fussy election news? People are getting tired of it. They want to read something more interesting. That is not half so interesting as an ox train we heard the other day.

A BELLIGERENT DEPUTY WARDEN.—This morning David Burnett, deputy warden of the penitentiary, under U. S. Marshal Patrick, appeared before Alderman Clinton, for examination, on a charge of disturbing the peace, &c., by profane cursing, flourishing a pistol, and threatening to shoot various parties, and otherwise behaving in an outrageous and belligerent manner last evening. The evidence in the case showed that Burnett went to the house of William Short, sen., in the 7th Ward, and demanded to be provided with some refreshments, which demand, owing to the insolent manner in which it was made, was not complied with. Burnett next went to the house of William Short, junr., a brief distance off, and the latter, seeing he had been drinking, treated him kindly and was about to get him some refreshments, when Mr. Burnett commenced cursing and swearing, and abused the inmates of the house. Thereupon Mr. Short ordered him out of the house. At this juncture Burnett drew a derringer and presented it at the man's person, threatening to shoot him, and causing Mrs. Short to be very much frightened. He said he didn't care what he did, as Marshal Patrick would see him safe through, and that before two years were passed every d——d "Mormon" would be cleaned out of the place." He next went into another part of the house, in which one John Ince lives. The latter told him to go out when he (Burnett) cocked and presented his pistol at him. Ince then stepped out and seizing a hatchet, returned, grasped the wrist of Burnett's hand in which the pistol was held, and raising the hatchet in the other threatened to strike if the pistol was not disarmed. By this means Ince secured possession of the pistol and, Mr. Short having sent for the police, Burnett was given in charge. None of the parties abused by him were acquainted with him, his going to the house of Mr. Short being apparently purely accidental. The evidence against the prisoner was conclusive and he was fined $50, which was paid.

Burnett heretofore has had the reputation of being a very quiet and peaceable man, having been in the employ of Mr. A. W. Rockwood for over six years, during which time he conducted himself circumspectly. He has evidently, however, undergone what might be termed "a change of heart," produced no doubt by coming under the jurisdiction and influence of the new order of things at the penitentiary. It is easy to correctly surmise from what source he obtained the idea that the "Mormons" were to be "cleaned out in two years." This is a consummation devoutly wished by certain individuals hereabouts, but wishing is all that it will amount to, for the "Mormons" will live and flourish long after such characters are enveloped in their own filth and corruption and forgotten.

Moral, It won't do for some people to be too positive that the Marshal will "see them through."

SURPLUS ENERGY.—Wouldn't it be a good idea for those deputy marshals, disgusted citizens (transients), and for the matter of that soldiers also on a pinch, instead of wasting their surplus energy upon the desert air at Provo, or anywhere else, hunting citizens at unseasonable hours, to direct their attention to such useful labor as gathering in the harvest, cutting corn, digging potatoes, helping to thrash grain, holding the plough, grading railroads, and many other things of undoubted productive benefit to themselves and the community at large. All sorts of officers live upon the people, and the people want as few officers as possible, and those few to be as usefully employed as possible. Even the Marshal might strengthen his two or three hundred dollars salary by useful agricultural or mechanical labor, and the country would be prouder of him than if he spent his whole time in trotting around after Warden Rockwood, or dispatching half a dozen "boys in blue" to Provo on a midnight raid.

DIED.

In this city, Sept. 12, 71, of intermittent fever, ALICE JANE, daughter of Edward and Ann Callister, aged 10 years 7 months and 21 days. Funeral services will take place to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock in the 7th Ward School House. Friends are invited to attend.

In the 11th Ward of this city, on the 12th inst., at 5.40 p. m., of teething, MAMIE TALULA, infant daughter of Thomas F. and Jane Manning, aged 1 year, 4 months and 5 days.

The funeral services will take place to-morrow at residence of parents, at 2 p. m. Friends are invited to attend.

NEW REFORM.—The introduction of Soda Water and Sarsaparilla, by Day & Co., has done more in the way of a Temperance Reform than all the lectures that have been delivered in the country. The natural condition of man is a thirsty one, and it has long been an established fact that water will not quench thirst. The question then arises, can we find a substitute as harmless in its effects, and more delicious in taste than anything yet discovered? We find it in Day & Co.'s Soda and Sarsaparilla. If every one would sign the Pledge and drink nothing but this Celebrated Beverage, much degradation, misery, shame and crime would be prevented in the world. If any one doubts the truth of our remarks let them step into the first place they come to and try it. It will vouch for itself. em(170)tf
