A MAN

WHO IS UNACQUAINTED WITH THE GEOGRAPHY OF THIS COUNTRY, WILL SEE BY EXAMINING THIS MAP, THAT THE CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC R. R.

IS THE GREAT CONNECTING LINK BETWEEN THE EAST AND THE WEST!

Its main line runs from Chicago to Council Bluffs and Omaha, passing through Joliet, Ottawa, La Salle, Geneseo, Moline, Rock Island, Davenport, West Liberty, Iowa City, Marengo, Brooklyn, Grinnell, and Des Moines, (the capitol of Iowa) with branches from Bureau Junction to Peoria; Wilton Junction to Muscatine, Washington, Fairfield, Eldon, Kelsaup, Centreville, Princeton, Trenton, Gallatin, Cameron, Leavenworth and Atchison; Washington to Sigourney, Oskaloosa and Knoxville; Keokuk to Farmington, Bonaparte, Bentonsport, Independent, Eldon, Ottumwa, Kidyville, Oskaloosa, Pella, Monroe, and Des Moines; Des Moines, to Indianola and Winterset; Atlantic to Audubon and Anita. This Company own and control their Sleeping Cars, which are interior to none, and give you a double berth between Chicago and Council Bluffs, Leavenworth, or Atchison for Two Dollars and Fifty Cents; and a section for Five Dollars, while all other lines need a section for the same points. Three Dollars for a double berth, and Six Dollars for a section.

What will please you most will be the pleasure of enjoying your meals, while passing over the beautiful prairies of Illinois and Iowa, in one of our magnificent Dining and Restaurant Cars that accompany all through Express Trains. You get an entire meal, as good as is served in any first-class hotel, for twenty-five cents; or you can order what you like, and pay for what you get.

Appreciating the fact that a majority of the people prefer separate apartments for different purposes, (and the enormous passenger business of this line warrants it,) we are pleased to announce that the Company runs its PALACE SLEEPING CARS for sleeping purposes, and its PALACE DINING CARS for Eating purposes. One other great feature of our Palace Cars is a SMOKING SALOON where you can enjoy your "Havana" at all hours of the day.

Magnificent Iron Bridges span the Mississippi and Missouri rivers at all points crossed by this line, and transfers are avoided at Council Bluffs, Leavenworth and Atchison, connections being made in Union depots.

CATARRH

IS IT CURABLE?

THOSE who have suffered from the various and ever-changing forms of disease caused by Catarrh, and have tried many physicians and remedies without relief or cure, await the answer to the question with considerable anxiety. And well they may; for no disease that can be mentioned is so universally prevalent and so destructive to health as Catarrh. Neglected Colds, Influenza, Coughs, and colds and frequently fatal affections of the lungs follow, in many instances, a case of simple but neglected Catarrh. Other sympathetic affections such as deafness, impaired eyesight, and loss of sense of smell, may be referred to as minor but nevertheless serious results of neglected Catarrh, bad enough in themselves, but as nothing compared with the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs likely to follow.

IT CAN BE CURED.

IT can be cured. There is no doubt about it. The immediate relief afforded by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH is but a slight evidence of what may follow a persistent use of this remedy. The hard, incrusted matter that has lodged in the nasal passages is removed with a few applications; the ulceration and inflammation subdued and healed; the entire membranous linings of the head are cleansed and purified. Constitutionally its action is that of a powerful purifying effect, destroying in its course through the system the acid poison, the destructive agent in catarrhal diseases.

A COMPLICATED CASE.

Gentlemen.—My case is briefly as follows: I have had Catarrh for ten years, each year with increasing severity. For nine years I had not breathed through one nostril. I had sloughings in the throat, a very bad cough, asthma so bad as to be obliged to take a remedy for it at night before being able to lie down and sleep, and a constant dull pain in my head. My head was at times so full of catarrhal matter as to injure my sense of hearing and compel me to get up several times in the night to clear it, and my throat before I could sleep. Every one of these, and not quite three bottles of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, My hearing is fully restored. I have no asthmatic symptoms, no cough, no droppings in the throat, no headache, and in every way better than I have been for years. I could tell the effects of the CURE on my appetite, on my kidneys, and, in fact, every part of my system. What has been done in my case is wholly the effect of the RADICAL CURE. Very respectfully,

FITCHBURG, Oct. 14. C. H. LAWRENCE.

Indorsed by a Prominent Druggist.

I hereby certify that Mr. Lawrence purchased the RADICAL CURE of me, and from time to time made me familiar with his case. I believe his statement to be true in every particular.

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, May 15, 1879.

I DON'T MEAN HIM.

It had been noised abroad that Mr. Axley would preach on the morning of the following Sabbath. The famous divine was a great favorite; with none more so than Judge White. At the appointed hour, the judge, in company with a large congregation, was in attendance.

The services were begun by another preacher, at the close of whose address Mr. Axley rose, and stood silently surveying the congregation. All were hushed in expectation. Every eye was riveted on him. He then began:

"My friends, it is very painful, but a necessary duty, for a minister of the gospel to reprove vice, misconduct, and sin, wherever found; and be assured I will not shrink from the duty on this occasion.

"And now," continued the speaker, pointing with his long finger, "that sandy-haired man, sitting yonder by the door, who got up and went out while the brother was preaching, and staid out so long; who got his boots full of mud, and came in and stamped the mud off at the door, making such a noise that nobody could hear the preacher;—that man thinks I mean him.

"No wonder that he thinks so. It is a disgrace to the State that he should have grown up here and have no better manners. Now, my friend, I advise you to go home and learn how to behave yourself before you again come to the house of prayer. But I do not mean him.

"And now," pointing again to his mark "that little girl about old—with flowers inside of her bonnet, she that was giggling and laughing and chatting all the time the brother was speaking—she thinks I mean her.

"And she ought to think so. I am sorry for any parents that have brought up a girl to her age without teaching her to behave modestly and properly; they are to be pitied. Little girl, you have disgraced your parents as well as yourself. But I do not mean her.

"And now, that man on the bench in the corner, who is looking up as bright as if he had never been asleep in his life, and never expected to be, but who was nodding and bewing and snoring all through the sermon—that man thinks I mean him.

"And, indeed, he may well think so. My friend, the house of God is not intended for a place of sleeping. When you want to take a nap, go home, take off your clothes and go to bed, there is the place to sleep, not in church. But I do not mean him."

And thus he went on, fixing his dark eye on each offender, till he had pointed out nearly every man, woman, and child who had in any respect deviated from strict propriety, ending each reproof with "I do not mean him," or "I do not mean her."

Judge White, sitting on the front bench, just in face of the preacher, was all the time enjoying the fun wonderfully. He laughed, he rubbed his hands, he chewed his tobacco with the greatest vigor. As each new offender was brought up he chewed more and more violently till the floor before him became a puddle.

"Now," said the preacher, drawing himself up with a severe look, "I suppose you want to know who I do mean. I mean," said he, pointing his finger true as the needle to the pole, "I mean that dirty tobacco chewer, sitting on the end of the front seat. Look at those puddles on the floor! A toad would be poisoned in them, and think of the sisters' dresses being dragged through such pollution!"

Judge White's laughter was checked as suddenly as if a thunderbolt had fallen. Every eye in the congregation was instantly fastened on him. He has averred that he never afterwards dared to chew tobacco in church.
