IN VARIOUS COURTS.

Cases Taken Up on the Law and Motion Calendar.

NATURALIZATION AND PROBATE.

Two Warrants of Arrest Issued This Morning by Commissioner McNally.

Nothing of any great moment has engaged the time of Chief Justice Merritt today, the only important matter on the special order for this morning—the case of Frohman vs O'Malley—having gone over for a week.

OVERRULED.

S. F. Walker vs James H. Bacon et al. Demurrer to amended and supplemental complaint overruled; fifteen days to answer.

DEMURRER TO AMENDED COMPLAINT.

Preston Reeves vs Patrick McEvoy et al. Demurrer to amended complaint submitted.

NATURALIZED.

Jacob Jensen, Karl W. Hubl, John Engbeck, Duncan McFadyen, Chas. Stirling, John Renshaw, John Salt, Geo. Bates, August Drouse, Patrick Mooney, Otto Kathoiney, Wm. L. Morgan, Frank Bates, Joseph Nattrass, Alma Chalker, Christian W. Oesch.

PROBATE COURT.

One order of sale of personal property was made in the probate court this morning. It was in the matter of the estate of Robert McKeeaney, deceased.

In regard to the estate of Geo. H. Lamb, deceased, an order was made setting Thursday, October 18th, to hear petition for letters of administration and revocation of letters issued heretofore.

WARRANTS OF ARREST.

U. S. Commissioner McNally this morning, on the complaint of Wm. White, issued a warrant for the arrest of Fred Lindsley. The charge preferred is assault with intent to do bodily harm, alleged to have been committed on September 13th.

The other warrant taken out is for the arrest of a Mrs. Connelly, the complainant being P. Erskine and the alleged offense malicious destruction of property and obtaining $8 by false pretenses. It would seem that an execution was levied upon certain goods of the defendant, among the articles sold being a stove. The purchaser of the stove was Mr. Erskine, but when he went to fetch the article subsequently he found that some portions of it had been removed. These Mrs. Connelly refused to let him have until he had given her $8, which she claimed was due to her, and which he paid over under protest. Out of this the charges arise.

COURT NOTES.

J. J. Clark, a former member of the fire department, by his attorneys, Powers & Straughan, filed in the Third District a petition for a writ of certiorari against the board of police and fire commissioners. The action is similar to that commenced by William Gilbert against the same commissioners a week ago. Clark alleges that he was wrongfully dismissed from the department.

The Western Mattress company has begun an attachment suit in the Third District court against the Sorensen & Nelson Furniture Co. for $113, for goods sold and delivered.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - SEPT. 18, 1894.

An Unrehearsed Scene.

Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock Attorney John Murphy was assaulted by F. M. Wheeler, special detective in the employ of the U. P. R. R. Co. Wheeler arrested one Peter Jansen for petit larceny; he was charged with stealing lumber and other articles from the U. P. freight yard. It developed that a proposition had been made by Detective Wheeler to the accused that if he would pay him $20 and $10.25 coal, that would settle the case. The prosecuting witness testified that $10 was about the value of the property alleged to have been stolen. Not guilty was the verdict of the jury. It was Attorney John Murphy that appeared for the accused, and in his address to the jury he remarked that anyone that would hold up a man and try to squeeze blood money out of him in such a manner was an infamous scoundrel. Mr. Murphy had only left the court a few minutes and was standing on the corner of Twenty-fourth and Washington avenue in conversation with Mr. L. B. Adams, while on the other side of the street was Wheeler and special detective Maxwell. Maxwell took position at the Utah Live & Feed corner and Wheeler went directly over to Murphy and demanded what he meant by the above remark. Murphy replied that he meant just what he said. Directly Wheeler struck at Murphy and then drew a large pistol from his pocket and attempted to strike Murphy's head with it. Mr. L. B. Clark was within a few steps of the combatants and tried to separate the men when the pistol was leveled at him and he was told not to interfere. Mr. Durbrow of the Standard office also received the same admonition backed with a significant flourish of the pistol. Wheeler immediately went before Commissioner Ferrier and paid $5, but it is doubtful if that will be a settlement of the affair.

Attempted Suicide.

Last night Jessie Tillman, who is an inmate of Eliza St. Omar's resort on Electric avenue, attempted to commit suicide. She was not successful in throwing her head off, although she used a thirty-eight caliber bulldog. The bullet struck her chest bone and glanced upwards. Not much damage done.

Matrimonial.

J. S. Commissioner H. C. Wardleigh performed the ceremony of marriage in behalf of Benjamin H. Lewis, 21, and Laura Calvin, 19; William E. Lewis, 25, and Annie Smith, 19, all of Ogden.

Licenses were also issued for marriage to John B. Stratton, 24, and Sarah E. Perry, 18, both of Sisterville; also Edward Mahoney, 23, Des Moines, Iowa, and Julia Kehoe, 18, Danbury, Iowa.

Heifrich Brought Up.

William V. Heifrich was arraigned before Judge Smith. He took the statutory time to plead, and the court fixed Thursday next as the day on which he should do so.

NEW PLANTS OF THE SEASON.

A Few of the Many Novelties That Claim Attention From Florists.

Among the more important of the new plants recently illustrated and described in Vick's Monthly is a remarkable form of the hardy white Japanese anemone, Honorine Jobert. The habit of the new plant is the same in all respects as that of the parent form—the same vigorous growth and profuse bloom, only the flowers have several whorls of sepals instead of one. The flowers are much more lasting both while left on the plant or in a cut state—an advantage which cannot fail to be appreciated. The new plant is introduced under the name Whirlwind. Planted in masses, this anemone will make a grand show in September and October.

A hardy variety of pink that promises well is Her Majesty. The plants form a compact mass of bluish green foliage and produce flowers in great profusion and during a long period, even giving some blooms as late as October. The flowers are large, very double, pure white, with the fragrance of the carnation, and supported on stiff, upright stems.

A distinct white variegated variety of geranium is introduced by the name Silver Pearl. The leaves of this are broadly bordered with white. The flowers are double, like little roses, and of bright carmine color.

Other newcomers are Hibiscus Sinensis, a shrubby perennial plant, which blooms in two months from seed; Ipomoea sinuata, a handsome perennial climber, blossoming in about two months from seed; carnation, Eden Craig, flowers a soft shade of pink, large, of fine form and substance and borne on long, stiff stems, a free and continuous blooner; carnation, Florence Eddy, a sport from Nellie Lewis, a beautiful clear rose color, with splashes of pink on the outer petals.

HER MAJESTY PINK.

Attachment For Knapsack Pumps.

In a report from the Wisconsin station in 1891 was given the description of an attachment to the Climax pump whereby kerosene is mechanically mixed with water for use as an insecticide. That attachment was designed by Professor Goff. In a recent bulletin from the Mississippi station is presented a description of an attachment to the knapsack pump. At this station effective work has been done with this attachment in combating the cucumber cabbage insect pests.

Following is a brief synopsis of the bulletin referred to: 1. By means of an attachment to the knapsack pumps we are now enabled to mechanically mix kerosene with water for use as an insecticide. 2. The mechanical mixture appears to do all the work of a kerosene emulsion, thus greatly simplifying the method of applying kerosene as an insecticide. 3. The attachment is applicable to all the knapsack pumps of the tailowing patterns and can now be obtained in connection with the "Perfection" or "Bullseye." 4. As this attachment is not patented, all manufacturers are at liberty to place it upon their pumps. 5. The attachment can also be used for many purposes where a mechanical mixture of two liquids is wanted.

Three Leading Scientists

Proclaim the Superior Value of Dr. Price's Baking Powder.

Scientists are devoting closer attention to food products. Recent examinations of baking powders by Prof. Long Dr. Hayne, and Prof. Prescott, were made to determine which powder was the purest, highest in leavening strength, most efficient in results, and most economical in cost. They decide that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder excels in all the essentials of an ideal preparation for household use. They write:

"Chicago, March 1st, 1894.

"We have purchased in the open market cans of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and also of the other leading brands of baking powders, and have submitted them to chemical analysis. We find that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is a pure cream of tartar powder, that it has a considerably greater leavening strength than any of the other baking powders we have ever tested.

"Dr. Charles E. Hayne, Chief Medical College, Chicago.
"Prof. Albert B. Prescott, Univ. of Michigan, Ann Arbor."

Time of Harvesting Corn.

At the Iowa station last season four lots of corn were cut—Sept. 10, and 17 and Oct. 6 and 13. The greatest weight of ears was from the cutting of Oct. 6, the greatest weight of fodder from the cutting of Sept. 17. From the first to the third lots the dry matter of the ears increased materially, because the shrinkage of the leaves and so a loss figure at the expense of the husks, cobs and stalks.

A Made Two Yesterday.

Blake—Why so gloomy?

Jones—My wife let me have the last word in an argument this morning.

"What of that?"

"That shows that she is going to do as she promes anyhow."—New York Weekly.

All of J. M. Barrie's stories are said to have grown out of his everyday life, and in the young man who is pictured walking home deep in the bother of Thrums and vicinity one can find the boyhood and the present life of the brilliant young Scotchman.

He was a wealthy soprano, and at the concert sang "Oh, For the Wings of a Dove!" yet an hour later at supper she took the wings, legs and most of the breast of a turkey and then passed her plate for "more stuffing."

The German name for train car is "pferd strassenwerkshabwagen." It looks formidable, but we would the English equivalent if written in one word in the German style—"horsecardrailwaycarriage."

The descriptions given by Stanley of the outer houses of the Gauls and Britons might be applied to brazen habitations in central Africa today.

For an example of pure and unalloyed nonsense take a barber's opinion of the young man who is growing a full beard.

A Good Appetite
Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong. The universal testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its merits in restoring the appetite, and as a purifier of the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine.
