LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 63 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p. m. to-day. Fine day.

THEATRE.—There was a great performance of "Deborah" last evening, the intense passion of the Jewess being most impressively portrayed by Miss Dargon. The recitation of "Sheridan's Ride" was delivered splendidly. Applause was unstinted.

This evening, for the benefit and on the occasion of the last appearance of Miss Dargon, she will appear as "Kathleen Desmond," in the new Irish drama, entitled "The Rising of the Moon," written expressly for her by Fred. Lyster, Esq. Miss Adams is announced as "Molly Malone," Mr. Cogswell as "Col. Gerald Desmond," Mr. Thorne as "Arsly McGee," Mr. Harris as "Pat O'Brian," Mr. Marden as "Major Lindsay." Messrs. Wilton, Teasdale and Paul will also appear. A fine histrionic treat may be expected. Of Miss Dargon's ability there is no question. She is making her mark upon the American stage. It is no ordinary treat to witness her vivid, lifelike impersonations.

On Monday evening, "Blind Tom," the musical prodigy, will commence a series of his peculiar performances. The following notice of one of his entertainments is from the Territorial Enterprise of May 6:—

The concert given last night at Piper's Opera House by "Blind Tom," the wonderful natural musician, attracted an immense audience, and all who had the pleasure of listening to his remarkable playing could but express themselves delighted. He performed during the entertainment last night a number of very difficult pieces of music which he has stowed away in his cranium. Being blind, all his playing is of course from memory, and it is said he has at command not less than 5,000 pieces of music. Among Tom's musical feats last night was the playing of "Yankee Doodle" with one hand, and "Fisher's Hornpipe" with the other, at the same time hastily singing "Tramp, Tramp," and all in different keys. He gave an imitation of a music-box, and so perfect was it that any one who had not seen him at the piano would have sworn he was listening to the notes of a genuine music-box. His imitation of the banjo was also perfect, as were several other of his imitations. He is able to spell out the name of any object shown by a person in the audience, from the notes struck on the piano by the gentleman who has him in charge. He also does some very startling spelling on his own book, when any one gives him a word on which to practice—the more syllables the word contains the greater the relish with which he attacks it. He spells altogether from sound, and his spelling would have delighted Artemus Ward. Last night some one gave him the word "erysipelas." He went after it like a trout after a grasshopper, thusly: "E-r-r, ear, r-y, eary, s-i-p, carrysip, e-l-o-u-s, earysipelous." Then he capered about and clapped his hands in great glee. He has a fashion of applauding himself at the conclusion of every piece he plays, and every speech he makes. He gives a funny imitation of an old darkey in Louisville, Kentucky, who is trying to give his customers the analysis of the water of a mineral spring which he serves out, and does and says many queer things. While not engaged in playing he amuses himself by standing on one leg and hopping about the stage. Altogether he is an odd, extraordinary creature. His "Battle of Manassas," composed by himself, is a curious musical composition, and he delights in explaining the several parts as he goes along. The "Rain Storm" is another piece of his own composition. By once hearing a piece he plays it perfectly. Professor Sauer was called upon the stage last night and played a piece, and as soon as it was finished Tom seated himself and reproduced it note for note. Those who would spend a pleasant evening would do well to attend the concert to-night. No lover of music or of fun should fail to go and see Tom during his stay in the city.

PERSONAL.—Governor Claflin, of Massachusetts, is in town. He arrived on Thursday evening.

Mr. Hall, of the well know and substantial firm of Benedict, Hall & Co., New York, is now on a short visit to the city.

This morning we were introduced, by Judge Hayden, to Mr. John Crockett, of San Francisco, son of Judge Crockett, of the supreme court of California. Mr. Crockett arrived in this city last evening, and expected to proceed on his way home this afternoon. Mr. Crockett represents the California Life Insurance Company, and has been eastward to insure it in the Republic Company of Chicago.

Mr. G. H. Vrooman, of the firm of G. T. Raynolds & Co., Manufacturers and importers of paints, colors, varnishes, and artists' materials, New York and Chicago, and Mr. C. S. Dunbar, representing the firm of Warner, Marston & Felix, manufacturers and jobbers of cordage, twines, brushes, wooden-ware, etc., Chicago, are also in town, in the interest of the firms which they respectively represent.

Bishop Abraham Hatch, of Wasatch county, is in the city.

SALT LAKE CITY, May 9, 1873.

Editor Deseret News:

Dear Sir—"Protestant," the "Twelfth Warder" who wrote you on the 8th instant, was misinformed with regard to the action of the Warden of the Territorial prisoners obtaining permission to keep them in any part of the Twelfth Ward School House. The facts are, I never applied for such permission, much less did the trustees grant it. I did obtain permission to locate the portable prisons, temporarily, on a piece of vacant ground at least forty feet from the said school house, where the prisoners are locked at night, but it is not probable they will be kept there in school hours.

A. P. ROCKWOOD, Warden.

FRUGALITY.—A striking instance of frugality came under our notice the other day, illustrated in the case of an aged Scandinavian, so freely able to speak a word of English. He came to Utah last year, since which time his only labor has been that of collecting paper rags, from the results of which he has saved a trifle over $150. His economy has evidently not been prompted by avarice, as he purposes donating the means for the emigrating of some of his poor relations. The old gentleman appears to be about seventy years of age.

QUARANTINE RAISED.—The quarantine has been raised, by the quarantine physician, from the residence of Mr. James Bourne, 7th Ward. We are glad to learn that that gentleman and his child are in good health.

Mr. Bourne being unable to personally thank his many friends for their manifestations of kindly feeling and sympathy during the trying ordeal through which he has lately passed, has consequently desired us to express his appreciation of the kind offices, through the column of the News. He wishes them to be assured that he shall never forget those kind attentions which were bestowed at a time when the feelings are the most susceptible, in the hour of affliction.

RECEIVED.—"Woman's Exponent" for May 1, is full as usual of interesting and instructive matter.

The "Western Life-Boat, and Journal of Biography," devoted to biography of men of the times, notes of history and geography, anecdotes and incidents of travel. Des Moines, Iowa. A neat and useful periodical.

The "St. George Enterprise" for April. Joseph W. Carpenter, editor and proprietor.

The "Graefenberg Manual of Health," by Joshua F. Bridge, M. D. A very useful medical work of 248 pages, published by the Graefenberg company.

DANGEROUS.—It is becoming a common practice for children to play around inside and upon the platforms of the street cars while the latter are in motion. The little ones are unconscious of the danger they thus incur, and should be taught to desist from this kind of amusement.

Another kind of play frequently indulged in by children, and which might easily result in serious accidents, is the climbing into freight cars on the railroad tracks of younger juveniles while older ones can frequently be seen manipulating the brakes. Parents and others would do well to give a little wholesome instruction on these points where it is needed.

O WHERE and O where are the slippery Modocs gone?

MODOCS.—For news concerning the Modoc war read our dispatches, by which it will be seen that a successful sortie has been made by the Indians. Rather difficult fellows to handle, those Modocs are.

SPREADING.—Bishop Davis and Sons, machinists, moulders, &c., are erecting a new two-storey addition to their workshops, in the Seventeenth Ward. This indication and the number of men at work show that this firm is doing a swimming and increasing business. The castings turned out at this foundry are said to by very excellent. Bishop Davis thoroughly understands the business.

COMPLIMENTARY.—Recently Bishop E. T. Burton and Elder John Clark were tendered a complimentary supper by the Relief Society of the 15th Ward. This was the method the ladies took to show their esteem and respect for those two brethren previous to their departure on a mission abroad.

The martial band serenaded George Burton the other evening, the musicians having the same object in view as the ladies in tendering the supper.

"JUVENILE INSTRUCTOR."—No. 10 of the current volume of this interesting periodical is out to-day, and contains a quantity of very choice reading matter, and a couple of illustrations. The contents of the number include "A Japanese Idol," an article from the pen of "Beth" on "Heat," "History of the Church," "Editorial Thoughts, "The Eagle and the Baby," "Volcanic Eruption in Iceland," "Questions and Answers on the Bible," "Questions and Answers on the Book of Mormon," "Young Missionaries" (poetry) by "Lula," and the first installment of "A Boy's Voyage Around the World." The last named includes the narration of the personal experience, as a sailor, on a whaling vessel, of a well known gentleman of this city, as well as his adventures under other circumstances by sea and land, all of which actually took place. It will also include descriptions of countries, islands and peoples visited by him in his travels and voyages. The narration will probably be continued in the Instructor a considerable time, and will be very interesting to its readers.

PROBATE COURTS.—Last Tuesday, John O'Neal, convicted and sentenced in the Probate Court of Tooele county, in the June term of 1872, for robbery with attempt to kill, was on his own petition brought before Judge Boreman on a writ of habeas corpus, the plea of petitioner's counsel being that the Probate Court had no jurisdiction in criminal matters, and that his client was illegally detained. The case was heard and argued on that day, and a decision rendered this morning, to the effect that the Probate Court had no criminal jurisdiction, and the petitioner was discharged.

CACHE.—Bro. Wm. M. Cowley writes from Logan, May 7. He complains of the time taken for papers to reach that place from this city. He says—

"Some of this slowness may be due to the mails, for papers that are mailed on Friday arrive at Logan and are delivered to subscribers on Monday, 10 a.m., the next week. The people complain considerably about this arrangement. The way this happens is, the Friday's papers are sent north on Saturday, which arrive at 11 p.m., and remain on the train till 9 a.m. on Monday. This is too slow for these days of railroads.

"The season is very backward here this year. But very few of the trees have commenced to open their buds. The wheat crop is nearly all put in, but it is very slow in coming up, due principally to the dry spell that preceded the cold and snow we have had lately. Indeed it snowed some this forenoon. An unusually large quantity of grain has been put in this season, but the farmers are in the dumps over the low prices grain brings in the market.

"A great many are now turning their attention to sliding timber for lumber, railroad ties, etc., as the cold weather is very favorable to this kind of labor.

"The stonework of the co-operative store is nearly finished for the first story."

SALT LAKE CITY, May 9, 1873.

Editor Deseret News.

The article in the NEWS of Thursday evening was incorrect in stating that the basement of the 12th Ward school house was used for sleeping purposes by the convicts. They only cook their onions, bacon, etc., there and make it partially their sitting room and sleep in their cages outside. I will not embellish the picture, but give you the facts, that you may use them as you please. The error probably came from your correspondent learning that the Warden had the keys to the basement and not properly understanding the moves of a traveling penitentiary.

Yours truly, ELLIOT HARTWELL.

MARRIED.

In this city, on the 8th inst., by President D. H. Wells, Mr. JESSE W. FOX, Jr., and Miss RUTH MAY.

"Are we not one? are we not join'd by heav'n?
Each interwoven with the other's fate?
Are we not mix'd like streams of meeting rivers
Whose blended waters are no more distinguish'd
But roll into the sea one common flood."

DIED.

OUR FATHER'S HOUSE THE UNWRITTEN WORD

BY DANIEL MARCH, D. D.—Author of Night Scenes in the Bible.

THIS Earth is one of the Mansions of OUR FATHER'S HOUSE and all the forms and forces of the physical universe are revelations of God's UNWRITTEN WORD. The author, in this new volume, goes from room to room in the great House that God has built, showing us the riches and splendors stowed in every department, making the whole journey of life a happy walk of children with their Father—going out into open fields, listening to the singing birds, the whispering winds and murmuring forests; looking with ceaseless delight on green landscapes and grazing flocks, on beautiful flowers and springing grass, gazing with awe at the wonders of the mighty deep, walking beneath the shade of ancient mountains and climbing sacred heights. Wondering at the great Earth wheel turning beneath our feet, watching the storm with cloud on cloud in billowy darkness rolled, lightnings answered in thundering voices, and again the beautiful bows hung out on the retiring cloud.

Cure for All!—Never Despair!

E. L. PLANT.

Bronchitis, Diptheria, Coughs, Colds, and all Derangements of the Throat and Chest.

In any of the above diseases, immediate and permanent relief is obtained by effectually rubbing this detergent Ointment twice a day upon the neck, chest and back; and in all stages of influenza, settled coughs, and wheezing at the chest, the same treatment may be followed with efficiency and safety.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Old Sores, Wounds, and Ulcers.

By rubbing this Ointment perseveringly upon and around the affected parts twice a day, it will penetrate to the tissues beneath, and exert the most beneficial influence; the inflammation soon diminishes, the pain becomes less intolerable, the matter thickens, and a cure is soon effected. In all long standing cases Plant's Pills should also be taken, as they greatly assist in expelling all depraved humors from the body.

Skin Diseases of all Kinds.

In this class of complaints, no matter the age, the sex, the place, or under what name the disease may be classified, immediate ease, and ultimate cure, may with certainty be procured, if this Ointment be plentifully rubbed upon the part affected, while Plant's Pills are taken in appropriate doses, night and morning, to purify the blood.

Gout, Rheumatism and Glandular Swellings.

Every one suffering from these excruciating complaints should have recourse to these purifying remedies, as they have rescued thousands from a life of fortune, after all other means had failed to give them relief. The Ointment and Pills used conjointly will act so searchingly and certainly, as to effect cures in the most hopeless cases.

Piles, Fistulas, and Internal Inflammations.

Persons afflicted with these distressing complaints will find in this wonderful Ointment instant means of relief, and all can effect their own cure without explaining their infirmity to any one. Plant's Pills, if taken in small doses, greatly assist the Ointment, as they purify the blood and regulate the stomach in an extraordinary manner.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following Complaints:

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Burns, Bunions, Chilblains, Chapped Hands, Contracted and Stiff Joints, Corns (soft), Fistulas, Gravel, Glandular Swellings, Lumbago, Piles, Rheumatism, Sore Nipples, Scalds, Sore Throats, Skin Diseases, Scurvy, Sore Heads, Tumours, Ulcers, Wounds.

The Ointment and Pills are sold at Professor Plant's.

The Ointment is sold in pots at $1 and $5; the smaller Pot of Ointment $1; the smallest Box of Pills $1, which contains four dozen. Sent to all parts. Full printed directions are affixed to each Pot and Box.
