SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES

H. E. Phelps has and Does Sell

A better class of goods, to patrons of limited means, than any other house in the city. He believes in giving the hard working person the benefit of his money in every sense of the word.

He has a splendid assortment of ladies', misses', and children's real beaver cloaks, which he will sell from $8 to $15 each, and warrant every one. It is certainly a good opportunity to get a good article for a small price. These are facts known by one who well understands business and the quality of goods.

If the writer of the above special notice will call around I will make him a present of a lady's nice, beaver coat. H. E. PHELPS.

To the Public

We will continue to sell our goods at the low closing out prices until the 24th inst., when we will cease selling at retail, and prepare the balance then on hand for the final closing out Auction Trade sales, December 28 and 30. The stock will be put up in job lots and sold without limit or reserve.

THERE is REASON in all THINGS.

It is reasonable to conclude, that Benson's Capcine Plasters, having received the highest and only award at the Centennial Exposition, over all other plasters, having received the universal praise of the highest medical authority in the world, must possess unusual merit. Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster was invented to overcome the slow action of the ordinary porous plasters, the only objection ever found to this otherwise popular article. They relieve pain at once, and cure quickly, when other plasters will not even relieve. They strengthen weak backs, cure rheumatism, spinal and kidney affections, sciatica, lumbago, neuralgia, pains in the back, hips and sides. Persons easily affected by change of weather should wear these constantly during the winter season, as they are a sure preventive of colds. Sold everywhere. Price, 25 cts.

LAME BACK. Immediate relief by use of Benson's Capcine Plaster.

FRAUD—BEWARE! THERE ARE FRAUDULENT and Worthless Imitations of Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster in the market. Some of them contain dangerous poisonous drugs. Each genuine Benson's Capcine Plaster has the word Capcine cut through it. Take no other.

Solid Facts will Tell.

For all the bitter opposition of jealous rivals, no better illustration could be had of this fact than the immense sale already attained by the great Throat and Lung Remedy, Dr. Aug. Kaiser's German Elixir. For the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, it is truly wonderful, even those suffering from Consumption in advanced stages find great relief, and numbers of patients have found, to their delight, not only relief but cure. It being perfectly harmless, makes it at once popular with mothers, who of all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial size may be had for 25 cents.

They Can't Do It.

We understand that some physicians are crying out against HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR to their patients, telling them that it will do them no good, and endeavoring in every way possible to injure the sale of the same; but that cry comes too late, as the people of this city and country have learned by experience that this article is a certain cure for Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption, and that instead of having to pay their physician from $2 to $5 for advice and prescription, and then paying their druggist for putting up the same from fifty cents to $1, they can go to any drug store and get a bottle of HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR for the small amount of 50 cents, which is sufficient to cure any ordinary Cough or Cold, and $1 size will annihilate the worst cases. Depot, Cottenden's, 7 Sixth Avenue, New York City. Sold by all druggists.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer.—To-day, 1 o'clock p. m., the thermometer noted 30 degrees F. in the shade. Clear.

Better.—The condition of Bro. B. Y. Hampton, who has had a severe attack of sickness, is said to be improving.

Home Mission.—The Home Missionaries of this Stake are requested to meet at the Council House, this Monday evening, the 30th inst., at 6 o'clock.

Postal Matters.—A post office has been established at Ashley, Wasatch County, with Wm. H. Wallis, postmaster.

Samuel Egesley has been appointed postmaster at Silver Spring, Salt Lake County.

Complimentary. — Elder Peter Reed, the well-known builder of this city, being about to start on a mission, his friends in the 16th Ward will tender him a complimentary party as a token of their esteem and good-will and to start him off in lively spirits. The ball will be given on New Year's Night, January 1st, 1879. Ticket 75 cents. We believe there will be a large turn-out, for Peter has hosts of friends.

Benefit Ball.—The folks in the Seventh Ward intend to aid our young missionary, Elder Hugh Watson, in starting for Old England to preach the gospel. They will therefore give a grand benefit ball, in the Seventh Ward Assembly Rooms this evening, when all who attend will contribute to help the missionary while they enjoy a pleasant evening. Tickets seventy-five cents, and as much more as any one voluntarily desires to pay.

The Dramatic Company of the Fifth Ward, not to be behind in generosity, will give a concert, tonight, for the same purpose, in their Meeting House. We hope it will also be well patronized.

Mysterious Poisoning.—A mysterious case of poisoning has taken place in our community, in the family of David Miller, a baker, residing in the 15th Ward.

On Friday night, after having supper with his folks, at which time some vegetable soup was partaken of, he left to go to the Deseret Bakery, his place of business, were he remained until Saturday morning. On reaching his home again, he saw a light burning inside, but found the door locked. No one answering his knock and request for admittance, he broke a pane of glass, reached inside, unlocked the door and entered. He found his wife, the hired girl, who is between 12 and 13 years old and his two children lying in bed, fast asleep. All efforts to arouse them were unavailing, and a physician was summoned who pronounced it to be a case of intoxication. Not satisfied with this, Mr. Miller dismissed him and sent for Dr. Thompson, who, on arriving pronounced it to be a case of arsenical poisoning. Since then, the older of the two children, aged between 4 and 5 years, has revived partially, and from her it was learned that before going to bed Friday night, they took some whisky teddy. The mother has also stated this, but since denied it. Dr. Thompson has been unable to find any bottle or poison around the place and the cause of the circumstance is so far shrouded in mystery. The child is only slightly affected. Mrs. Miller, though in considerable distress, will probably recover, but it is very doubtful about the restoration of the girl.

Drs. Thompson and Benedict made another visit to the house this afternoon, but nothing further was elicited.

Farmington Notes.—Farmington is a thriving settlement of 1,200 inhabitants, nearly entirely Latter-day Saints. It is, as its name implies, a farming community, and its people are not more noted for industry and energy, than for their uniform kindness and warm hearted hospitality.

Bishop John W. Hess is a good and wise father to the people, and with his able counselors, Elders Arthur Stayner and Jacob Miller, is continually striving to improve the general condition of his charge. A good feeling prevails; meetings, Sunday schools and the societies for mutual improvement are well attended by old and young of both sexes, and are in a progressive state.

There are six day schools in active operation, two Sabbath schools going, and another in contemplation; Elders Jas. T. Smith and Brother Christianson energetically at work in forwarding this branch of the Lord's work. Brother James H. Wilcox and Sister Lucy Clark preside over the Y. M. and Y. L. societies respectively, which hold joint sessions monthly. The primary association is progressing satisfactorily, under the kind and motherly supervision of Sister Aurelia Rogers, the good results of its organization being already manifest.

The Ladies' Relief Society, with Sister Ortentia Leonard as presiding officer, is also deserving of honorable mention, Farmington being also the place of residence of Sisters Sarah I. Coombs and Minerva E. Richards, the president and secretary of the Relief Society Stake organization. One of Farmington's noblest institutions, and one much appreciated by its members and the people at large, is the Farmington Institute, a literary and musical society, under the efficient direction of Elder Arthur Stayner. The Davis County Co operative Company is a worthy industry, with a capital of $16,000, of which Farmington owns $10,000. The settlement is in a healthy situation, at the very base of the towering mountains on the east, and though noted for the fierceness of its winds, strange to say, in the recent gales that have made such havoc in her neighboring settlements, Farmington escaped almost entirely.

The Townsend Case.—The decision in the Townsend House contempt and injunction cases was given in chambers, on on Saturday. In the former, Wm. Jennings and Benjamin W. E. Jennens were found guilty of contempt in failing to regard the temporary injunction restraining them from interfering with the free ingress to and egress from the Townsend House, of Mrs. Townsend, and judgment was entered that they pay the costs of the contempt proceedings within three days from the notice thereof; in default of which they were to be confined in the county jail for the term of three days. W. H. Hooper was adjudged not guilty of contempt.

In the injunction matter, the defendants were to show cause why the temporary injunction should not be made permanent. The following is the order of the court in this case:

"The injunction is allowed substantially as in the amended restraining order, with the proviso that it shall not restrain any proper legal or equitable proceeding or suit for the possession of the property by the defendants; the injunction to issue upon the filing, by the plaintiff, of a bond or undertaking, in the usual form, in the sum of $200, with sureties to be approved by the clerk of the court. Four days are allowed to file such bond, and the restraining order to remain in force in the meantime."

Mrs. Townsend will occupy her apartments in the Townsend House, and be protected in the premises until the trial for the possession of the property comes off, which will probably be some time next summer.

Good Coal. — We notice with pleasure that Mr. W. Salmon has opened a depot for receiving coal direct from the Weber mines and supplying the public with fuel for which he will take part payment in store orders. This will secure a double good. Haulers from the mines will find a place to deposit their loads without having to wait around on the streets in the cold for a customer, and consumers who cannot always command ready cash will be able to get coal a little easier. Then it will be delivered at 25 cents per ton lower than the current cash rate, and those who want wood for kindling, can get some if they wish, at the same time. Mr. Salmon will also keep baled hay for sale at his depot in the Market House, and this will be handy for coal haulers as well as the general public. If you want good Weber coal, remember you can get it of Salmon, who will execute orders promptly.

The Tax Matter.—In chambers, on Saturday, the case of the Bingham Cañon and Camp Floyd, and Wasatch and Jordan Valley Railroads vs. Collector Crismon came up. The hearing was on the order for defendant to show cause why an injunction should not issue restraining the collector from making seizure of the railroad property for delinquent taxes. Testimony was adduced and a long argument ensued, but no decision was given. The case will be continued next Friday afternoon.
