To above indebtedness must also be added sundry sums heretofore appropriated, but not paid, as follows:

To build forts in Kane County, previously reported	$ 1,000 00
To improve Meadow Valley and Muddy Road, previously reported	696 00
To estate of W. J. Appleby, for his services, previously reported	22 00

Owing to the very large sum appropriated February 20th, 1874, there has never been sufficient money to purchase Safes for the Courts, in the Treasury, at any time. The party from whom the Safe for the Auditor's office was purchased yet holds a warrant for near three-fourths of the amount, which cannot at present be paid.

Very respectfully,
WM. CLAYTON,
Auditor of Public Accounts.

Salt Lake City, January 1st, 1876.
