TEMPLE DEDICATION.

Times and Appointments of Numbers to Govern the Admission of the Juniority the different Stakes of Zion.

Following is a statement of appointments of the times when the Saints of the several Stakes of Zion will be admitted to witness the dedication of the Temple of the Lord in Salt Lake City; also the allotments as to the numbers of people to be admitted at the different sessions.

This arrangement is based on reports received from the Presidents of Stakes, and has been made with a view to, so far as practicable, suit the convenience of the whole people.

If additions to the numbers already at hand are hereafter reported, such extra contingents will be placed at the foot of the list. This must necessarily be done in case of this nature, so additions could not be introduced into the body of the program without deranging the whole plan. The apportionments are based numerically upon the capacity of the Assembly Room of the Temple.

The first service—which will be conducted on the morning of April 6th—is not provided for in this statement. That session will be subject to a special arrangement:

The South Gate of the Temple Block has been selected as the place of entrance for the services. Those who apply for admission should present themselves at 8 a. m. for the morning session, and 12:30 p. m. for the afternoon session, on the days designated, as they cannot be admitted on other days, nor at any other session than herein indicated.

It will be necessary for each applicant to show his or her recommend to the gatekeeper, in order to pass. The recommend will be taken up by a ticket man inside the gate. No person will be admitted without a recommend, on any occasion.

Each Stake President is expected to make the division of the people under his supervision according to the figures and dates given above. This is of great importance. If it is not promptly and properly attended to, confusion will be the result.

WILFORD WOODRUFF,
GEORGE Q. CANNON,
JOSEPH F. SMITH,
First Presidency.

DEDICATION SERVICES.

Something in Relation to the First Session.

In addition to the general authorities of the Church and others, the following officers of the Priesthood of the Stakes of Zion will be admitted to the first session of the dedication services of the Salt Lake Temple, to be held on the morning of April 6th, 1893:

Presidents of Stakes and their counselors; regular members of High Councils; Patriarchs; presidents and counselors of High Priests' quorums; presidents of Seventies, (as designated by the presiding council of Seventies); Bishops and their counselors.

The classes named above will be admitted at the south gate, which will be open at 8:30 a. m. on the morning of April 6th. All must present recommends, or they will not be admitted.

WILFORD WOODRUFF,
GEORGE Q. CANNON,
JOSEPH F. SMITH,
First Presidency.

Rules to be Observed.

Notwithstanding the fact that instructions have been given to the effect that only members of the Church who obtain recommends will be admitted to the dedication services of the Salt Lake Temple, numerous inquiries are made as to whether small children will be permitted to pass in. The regulations do not allow the admission of children who have not been baptized. Parents and guardians should not attempt to break over this rule, as those who will be in charge of the entrance ought not to be compelled to turn away those who seek to avail themselves of the first (that of the morning of the 6th) are 8 a. m. and 12:30 p. m.

No person will, under any circumstances, be admitted at the gates later than 9:30 a. m. or 2 p. m. respectively. In all probability the gates will be closed before those hours.

The egress from the Temple after each service will be by the northwest and northeast doors, respectively, and from the block by the north and east gates.

WILFORD WOODRUFF,
GEORGE Q. CANNON,
JOSEPH F. SMITH,
First Presidency.
