(Continued from Page One.)

MANY LADIES MEET.

Dodge, who was the great reformer in this movement. It seemed her to be a miracle controlling the great Napoleon. He had locked up his legions in certain proportions. By a bargain of the Czar of Russia and some other the place of the land of Poland was restored by another the lady was restored by another and so history was made, and it was apparently at the slower was apparently at the slower rate. (Applause.) It was in the interest of the woman suffrage movement." (Applause.)

A BRIGHT COLORADO WOMAN.

Mrs. L. S. Kinsbury, of Denver, Colorado was next introduced by Miss Anthony who said a high tribute to her work in that great state. The hot work in Colorado was also given on that subject, and she said that she was a member of the editorial staff of the Denver News and was in charge of the department of politics. She said that the success of the conference would be in the interest of that position, namely "Social Purity" was very good for her paper. Mrs. Sunderly quietly spoke. Mrs. Sunderly quietly spoke. Mrs. Sunderly quietly spoke