County Attorney Halverson gave an opinion to the board of county commissioners that Weber county was entitled to one-half the taxes collected by Cache county on certain sheepmen the cost of collecting the same.

The case of Leonard vs. Hill was heard before Judge Rolapp in chambers yesterday, and decision rendered in favor of defendant, no cause of action.

Charlotte F. E., aged 45 years, wife of Hiram McGregor, died Sunday afternoon at her home, of cancer. She was a daughter of David E. and Charlotte Browning. Funeral from the First ward meeting house Wednesday at 1 p. m.

Four drunks were up in the police court yesterday. One was fined $5 or 5 days, one $10 or 10 days, and in the cases of two sentence was suspended. One man was fined $10 for carrying concealed weapons, and for furious driving Peter Nelson was fined and paid $5.

The quarterly conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints was well attended Sunday and yesterday. Yesterday morning's session was devoted to business and the hearing of reports from different wards and from traveling missionaries. Apostle John Henry Smith, Teasdale, Grant and Lund were in attendance.

THE LEGISLATURE MEMORIALIZED.

The school trustees of the several districts of Weber county are opposed to the proposed bill providing for the consolidation of a number of the school districts into one general district. At a meeting held Saturday afternoon resolutions were passed opposing the measure proposed in the legislature and asking the Utah law-makers to increase the present State tax levy for the benefit of county schools.

Regarding the proper use of school funds now accumulating in the State the following memorial was adopted by the meeting:

To the Honorable the Legislature of Utah: The trustees of county schools in Weber county, assembled at Ogden this January 21, 1899, would respectfully represent that the problem of irrigation should secure a prominent ... [illegible]

L. E. Eggertson and A. L. Booth, of the Stake superintendency of Sunday schools, went to Lehi Sunday, where Joseph S. Broadbent was chosen superintendent of the Sunday school in place of Andrew Fjeld, who is on a mission.

The funeral of Mrs. Katherine Jacobson took place today from the residence in the Second ward. Mrs. Jacobson died Sunday, at the age of 64, after about two weeks' illness; she has suffered from heart trouble for several years. She was a native of Sweden when she and her husband joined the Church, and emigrated to Utah in 18[illegible]. A few years after coming here her husband died. She leaves two sons and two daughters and several grand children to mourn her loss.

LEHI.

Lehi, Jan. 24th, 1899.—Saturday next Mr. H. A. Vallez, superintendent, and M. W. Ingalls, chief engineer, of the Utah Sugar Co., will leave for the East on business connected with the Utah Sugar Co. They will visit a number of beet sugar factories while away, the principal one of which is the Bay City factory, Bay City, Mich., which is under the superintendency of Mr. Vallez's brother-in-law, E. R. Bryant.

It is also their intention to investigate the question of material for the improvements that are to be made on the sugar factory during the coming summer.
