After dinner he was surprised by the presentation of a superb silver tea set. The marriage of General Sheridan to Miss Rucker will take place in this city on Thursday evening next.

Appointment.

WASHINGTON, 1.—Colonel Robt. Allen, assistant Q. M. General, having reported from leave of absence, is assigned to duty as chief quartermaster of the military division of the Pacific.

The debt statement, to-day, shows a reduction during May of $1,189,000. The balances in the Treasury are as follows—currency $4,360,000; special deposits of legal tenders for the redemption of certificates of deposit, $55,000,000; coin $84,000,000, including the coin certificates $20,000,000; outstanding legal tenders $377,000,000.

A Talk With the Indians—More Bonds Called for.

All the delegations of Indians were at the rooms of the Secretary of the Interior this a.m. to have another council. All the agents and interpreters were present. The Indians were gaudily attired and painted. Commissioner Smith told the Indians that when they were here last, the Secretary made a proposition to them to go to Indian territory, and asked them to consider the offer of the government of $25,000 to relinquish a part of their hunting grounds, also of the desire of the white people to go to the Black Hills and the difficulty in preventing them. In regard to going to Indian Territory they expressed themselves opposed to it, and unless they had changed their minds it was no use saying anything about that. The Secretary told them that if they did not accept the offer of $25,000 in thirty days they might not get it at all. In regard to the Black Hills they had now had plenty of time to think, and it was hoped that they could give such definite answers to-day as would make it unnecessary to have any further talk on the subject. Red Cloud said—"The Great Spirit hear me, have mercy on me and pity me." He called heaven and earth to witness before he spoke that the President must have made a mistake in telling him, when he came here, that their arrangements were for thirty-five years; the President told him at that time to select a country for a hunting ground, and he had done so. The two men by his side came last summer, and told him for the first time about the $25,000, and he said, Wait till I go and see the President, and see if he has got the money, see if it is really there. I have children and I am not willing to do anything to make them poor. The $25,000 will only pay for the land to Pawnee Creek, we wish to retain the rest. When he was here four years ago he was shown a large building where all the money is kept, and he knows he had a large amount of money there. He would take this $25,000, but when winter comes he wanted them to get more. When he came here before nothing was said about Indian Territory, but since he had been here this time he had seen but little of the President, and thought it was hard that he should be asked to go there to live, and he had now told them they that he would not go there. His country was a good one, and he wished to keep it. He did not like running the Nebraska line through his country, and he considered it a robbery. Last winter when the annuities were issued many of his people were absent, and did not get their goods; he wanted more goods for them; he was not satisfied with the food sent him, he did not like salt pork, and he thought his children had died from eating it. He wanted bacon, rice, and hominy and tea sent to him. He was looking to the future for his children, and tried to do the best for them. After a further talk the Indians agreed to accept $25,000 in consideration of relinquishing a large portion of their hunting grounds in Nebraska. The Secretary is willing to concede them considerable territory, ten or fifteen miles south of the Nebraska river. A treaty was drawn up, but Spotted Tail refused to sign it until they received the [illegible] appropriated for this purpose. It was explained that the money could not be obtained till the treaty was signed, and the Indians were given a copy of the treaty to take to their rooms [illegible]. The Secretary of the Treasury [illegible] for ten million of the [illegible] coupon bonds.

[illegible]

In the Court of Claims the following judgments were rendered in favor of the following claimants, all of San Francisco, for loss on the Crown Point case: 106, Locke and Montague, $166,662; 150, Rantzinik & Co., $161,046; 155, E. H. Adams et al, [illegible]; 157, B. Benchley & Co., [illegible]; 158, John C. Doherty, $303,911; 153, C. G. Hooker, $46,505; 157, John Schults, $105,993; 272, A. [illegible], $[illegible]; 273, [illegible], Sacramento, $[illegible]; on the above cases interest is allowed from the date of the loss, May 13th, 1863, at 4 per cent. The following judgments were also rendered for San Francisco, in cases growing out of the capture and destruction of the Tycoon, April 27, 1864, from which date interest is to be added: No. 105, Locke & Montague, $205,832; 138, L. B. Benchley, $205,286; 155, C. G. Hooker, $186,016.

$128,000 Fire.

NEW YORK, 1.—A fire this p.m. destroyed the planing mill of Kinsted & Smith, on Ninth street, public school No. 36, adjoining, one of the finest in the city, and a five-story tenement house. A few minutes before the fire broke out the children were dismissed for recess. By the burning of the tenement house eighteen families are left homeless. The loss is estimated at $128,000.

Surprise in the Iron Trade.

The Evening Post says the new failure of the Aberdare Iron Company in England causes general surprise among the trade in this city. Prominent men consider it a remarkable and important failure. The Aberdare Company is a very old concern, and has extensive factories in Wales, where were for many years turned out thousands of tons of railroad iron. The company has done but little for years past.

Hotels Crowded.

COLUMBUS, 1.—The hotels are all crowded with delegates to the Republican State convention, to be held in this city to-morrow; it is thought that ex-Governor Hayes will be nominated for governor.

Stock Exchange Opened.

DENVER, Col., 1.—The Colorado stock and exchange board was formally opened in this city to-day, a large number of the prominent capitalists of the territory, as well as a large number from the Pacific coast, being present. Interesting speeches were made by President Decatur, Mr. Bennett, of Nevada, and others.

Movement of the Anti-Slavery Society.

From the Anti-Slavery Society a deputation, comprising half a dozen members of Parliament, yesterday evening, presented a memorial to Lord Derby, urging on the government the duty of taking decisive steps, by way of friendly mediation, to bring about the equitable termination of the war in Cuba, and the abolition of the slave trade. Mr. Ashley said that as the U. S. had relinquished the idea of annexing Cuba, its good offices might be relied on to support this movement. Others called attention to the atrocities in the coolie traffic. Lord Derby replied that the government had no right to interfere in the coolie question. An assertion made by the memorialists that the Cuban war was fast culminating in favor of the insurgents was premature; he did not think that Spain would view any proposal of mediation favorably. Lord Derby said the British government would be glad to avail itself of any prospect offered of putting an end to the existing state of things in Cuba; the emancipation of the slaves would no doubt, sooner or later, be accomplished. The slave owners are aware of this, and are only fighting for the continuance of the present system. He believed that emancipation would not be accomplished by itself, but must form part of a scheme for the pacification of the island. The present time was not favorable for English interference. He believed that the U. S. had no desire to annex Cuba, but at the same time the American government would receive any attempt of England to interfere between Spain and Cuba with suspicion, and he apt to put a wrong construction upon it.

FRANCE.

Examination Completed.

PARIS, 1.—The committee of thirty have completed the examination of the public powers bill, and have agreed to report in favor of its passage, with amendments, the most important of which are as follows—that an extraordinary convocation of the Chambers may be demanded during prorogation by one-third of the members of each House, instead of half, as originally provided; that war cannot be declared by the executive without the assent of the Chambers. The first amendment is opposed by the government.

PRUSSIA.

Commenting on Lord Derby's Speech.

BERLIN, 1.—The official Gazette, commenting on Earl Derby's statement in the British House of Lords, admits that the increase of the French army created a certain amount of uneasiness, which was not attended, however, with warlike resolves or deliberations in Germany, and the idea of requesting France to reduce her forces, or to discontinue her military organizations, was never entertained or mentioned.

It takes a pretty smart man to tell when he is happy.
