SENATOR FORAKER READY FOR FIGHT

Said to be Trying to Induce Gov. Harris to Enter Senatorial Contest Against Chas. P. Taft.

STANDS PAT ON THE TARIFF

Dick Says Dingley Bill is Better Than Any Future Congress Can Make.

Columbus O., Nov. 24.—Senators Foraker and Dick today conferred at length with Gov. Harris over the fight for Senator Foraker's seat which is to be waged before the coming legislature. The two senators were closeted with the executive or political friends throughout most of the day and evening, but declined to make any statement regarding their conferences other than to deny reports that they had entered an alliance on the senatorship. These reports were to the effect that the senators were seeking to induce Gov. Harris to enter the senatorial contest as their candidate against the expected candidacy of Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati and Congressman Burton of Cleveland. Beyond the denial of any alliance, the conferees would not talk. Gov Harris admitted to friends that the senatorial situation had been canvassed. One of his intimate associates said this evening that the governor in all probibility would not become an active candidate for senator.

Senators Foraker and Dick saw only a few members of the legislature while in Columbus. This afternoon both addressed a gathering of 100 woolgrowers and other interested in the wool business, and both took an attitude against revision of the tariff on that subject.

Senator Foraker said:

"I don't know that I will have the privilege of assisting in any tariff legislation, but if I do I shall bend every effort to the cause of protecting home industries and making America independent of every nation on the globe. I do not believe that any proposed tariff commission could do any better in providing protection for American industries than has been done by the Dingley law, which has proved satisfactory to everyone who is interested in tariff."

Senator Dick said:

"The Dingley tariff bill, in my opinion, is better than any future Congress can make. The prosperity under it is a testimonial which cannot be denied, and therefore stands as an endorsement. I would feel better if we were talking about a readjustment of the tariff instead of a revision. I am satisfied to let well enough alone."

OWEN KILDARE TO BE EXAMINED AS TO SANITY

New York, Nov. 24.—Owen Kildare, author and playright, who was a member of a Bowery gang before he gained literary and dramatic honors, is in Bellevue hospital, where his sanity will be investigated. His commitment was ordered by a magistrate yesterday after he had been arraigned on a charge of intoxication, at the request of his wife.

Mrs. Kildare told of her husband's alleged threats to commit suicide which he admitted, saying that his condition was the result of over-work and financial worries. His wife was fearful less he dissipate the money which she said he was to receive from articles written by him.

After temporary observation, Kildare was pronounced of sound mind.

Kildare started life as a newsboy in the gang which was led by Timothy D. Sullivan. He has been in turn, pugilist, professional athlete, filibuster, manager of theatrical and sporting ventures and latterly writer.
