HARRIMAN'S FATAL ILLNESS DESCRIBED

Prof. A. von Strumpell of Vienna Says He Suffered From Chronic Spinal Trouble.

THEN STOMACH DISORDER

No Scientist Could Have Saved Him—All That Could be Done Was to Alleviate His Suffering.

Vienna, Oct. 1.—The nature of E. H. Harriman's fatal illness is described in detail by an Austrian specialist, Prof. A. von Strumpell, who treated the railroad magnate in Vienna. In a letter to a professional friend which found its way into the columns of the Vienna Neue Freie Presse, Prof. von Strumpell says that according to reports of Mr. Harriman's state of health as furnished by the patient's own medical advisers, he was suffering from a peculiar form of spinal disease known as chronic spondylitis.

An examination made in Vienna by means of Roentgen rays apparatus confirmed this diagnosis and accordingly Mr. Harriman was ordered to take the cure in the summering hills and at Gastein.

"Afterward," the professor goes on, "quite independently of spinal trouble, symptoms of a stomachic disorder arose which seemed to me suspicious and malignant.

"At Gastein Mr. Harriman improved noticeably, and we began to hope that after all our apprehensions might prove to be unfounded. But by the end of July the stomach troubles became worse and when I re-examined the patient at Salzburg on Aug. 3, there was unfortunately no room for doubt as regarded the diagnosis.

"We doctors all agreed from the beginning that the cause was not one for an operation. The trouble manifested itself in an exceedingly secretive way; there was no trace of any palpable swelling.

"In order to make quite sure, I advised Mr. Harriman to enter the Neu-Wittelsbach sanitarium, near Munich, where a most thorough examination of the state of the stomach was made. The diagnosis of stomach carcinoma became a certainty. Prof. Friederich Muller, an eminent specialist of Munich, concurred in this view, also in the opinion that an operation could not be performed.

"Mr. Harriman was a doomed man. No scientist in the world could have saved him. All we could do was to make the end of his life as free from suffering as possible."

CREDITOR SUES PRINCE MIGUEL OF BRAGANZA

Vienna, Oct. 1.—Suit was brought today in the commercial justice court against Prince Miguel of Braganza, who recently married Miss Anita Stewart, for a debt of 6,000 crowns, borrowed from an usurer when the prince was unable to pay his Paris hotel bill, or to buy a ticket to England or to Scotland, where Miss Stewart waited for him.

During the proceedings it was shown that Braganza, who protested against the amount charged, had since applied to the same usurer for a loan of 200,000 crowns.

The judge inquired strenuously into the facts to learn what amount of cash the prince received for the bill, less the interest. The usurer, fearing he might be arrested, withdrew the suit.

The prince's aunts, Archduchess Maria Theresa and Duchess Parma, are prepared to repay the debt with reasonable interest, but not the usurous charge.

NEW SYSTEM OF WARNINGS TO CLEAR STREETS

Chicago, Oct. 1.—Gongs on the patrol boxes in the downtown district that will sound an alarm when engines are rushing to a fire will in the future warn policemen to clear the streets. This will greatly accelerate the movement of the apparatus, it is claimed.

Delay that is costly to insurance companies is frequently encountered by firemen on account of the difficulty in moving engines and other apparatus through crowded thoroughfares.

The police signal system in use in the down-town district is equipped with gongs for calling patrolmen to the boxes in cases of emergency. These boxes are two blocks apart, and a policeman can hear the ringing of the gong no matter where he is if on the street.

When he hears the gong sound warning he goes to the patrol box and is told of the fire and its location. Before the fire apparatus reaches the corner at which he is stationed, the policemen have had time to clear the streets and the engines pass on without delay.

CHICAGO SCHOOL MARMS MUSTN'T DROP THEIR R'S

Chicago, Oct. 1.—That Chicago miss who slurs her r's, uses phonetic pronunciation, talks as if she had a mouthful of pebbles, or in a dreary monotone, need not apply for a position as teacher in Chicago's public schools.

That is the decision of Mrs. Ella Flagg Young, superintendent of schools. Moreover, Mrs. Young is going to enforce this rule to the letter.

In a long communication addressed to the school management committee yesterday, Mrs. Young set forth that too little attention was being given to "oral expression;" that while some attention was given to this subject at the Chicago normal school, where the city's teachers are made, the applicants for admission to the normal schools should be examined on the subject and that a certain proportion of the applicant's credits should be an oral expression.

YOU NEEDN'T.

You needn't keep on feeling distressed after eating, nor belching, nor experiencing nausea between meals.

In other words, you needn't keep on being dyspeptic, and you certainly shouldn't.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures dyspepsia—it strengthens and tones the stomach perfects digestion, creates a normal appetite, and builds up the whole system.

CURES WAYWARD BOYS WITH HYPNOTIC SUGGESTIONS

New York, Oct. 1.—"Let him go in my care, your honor," said Dr. Siegfried Block yesterday, in the Gates avenue court, Brooklyn. "I have him under hypnotic influence. Whatever were his evil purposes, I have corrected them."

Dr. Block is connected with the Long Island hospital. As he spoke to Magistrate Nash, he placed his hand affectionately on the shoulder of Bernard Scharf, 16 years old. The youth had been arrested last July charged with having robbed a baker of a little money.

"I have known this boy a long time," said Dr. Block, after the magistrate had discharged young Scharf in the physician's custody. "I realized that I could cure him by hypnotic suggestion, as I have cured others. He has been under my hypnotic control. While he has been shiftless and lazy, he has become industrious and honest in the last two months. I assert and shall assert everywhere that hypnotism has reformed this boy."

"Generally debilitated for years. Had sick headaches, lacked ambition, was worn-out and all run-down. Burdock Blood Bitters made me a well woman."—Mrs. Chas. Freitoy, Moosup, Conn.

BRYAN-BAILEY DEBATE WILL NOT TAKE PLACE

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 30.—In explanation of his position on the proposed debate with Senator Bailey of Texas at Atlanta, William J. Bryan today addressed a letter to Clark Howell, editor of the Atlanta Constitution. The letter follows:

"I wired you last night that I would communicate with you by letter, my reasons for believing a debate inadvisable.

"When a joint meeting was suggested at El Paso, Tex., I replied to the effect that I am trying to aid in the election of a Democratic majority in the next Congress; that to that end I have suggested a brief but specific tariff plank which I ask Democratic candidates to accept, reject or amend, and that believing the debate would turn attention from the issue to individuals I would not consider the proposition unless it came as a personal request.

"I might add the further reason that a debate between two Democrats would accentuate the tariff differences that have embarrassed our party in Congress and give the Republican newspapers a chance to dwell upon Democratic dissensions instead of devoting their time to the contest now being waged between the progressive Republicans and the standpatters. A debate might be pleasing to the participants and entertaining to the audience, but I think the subject which I am endeavoring to present is worthy of calm and serious consideration.

Very truly yours,
"WILLIAM J. BRYAN."

DAVID ELDREDGE DISAPPEARS IN THE DESERT

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 1.—David Eldredge, the mine owner who disappeared in the desert several weeks ago, staked his life on the toss of a coin and lost, according to "Malapai" Mike, a prospector, who says he was the last to see the missing man. Parties have searched the desert in vain for Eldridge and have given him up for dead.

Mike came here from Greenwater, Cal., last night. He says he and Eldredge, who was the son of Benjamin Eldredge, a wealthy Illinois sewing machine manufacturer, started for Telescope park to inspect a power site. On the way they lost most of their provisions and all but one of their burros. When their water supply was reduced to five gallons, Mike says, Eldredge suggested the tossing of a coin to see which should take the burro and make a dash for Greenwater for aid. Mike won, and taking one gallon of water, left his companion.

On arriving at Greenwater he sent a party in search of the missing man, but no trace of him was found.

STRENUOUS DAY FOR MINING CONGRESS

Committees Nearly Smothered With Resolutions That Have To be Acted Upon.

PROGRAM MAY BE CURTAILED

Technical Papers May Not be Read But Placed on Record—Spokane Will Get Next Meeting.

Goldfield, Nev., Oct. 1.—With the committees fairly smothered with resolutions yet to be passed upon the last full business day of the American Mining congress opened today with strenuous hours in prospect. So crowded was the program that it appeared more than likely that several important technical papers would be entered upon the record without reading. Every committee of investigation appointed last year and which progressed far enough to prepare a report voiced its findings in resolutions which were passed on to the resolutions committee. A hearing or a consideration of the special committees' report has been thought necessary by that body before taking action and this has meant a great consumption of time. It seems virtually certain that Spokane, Washington, will be named as the next gathering place of the mining congress although this may not be decided by the executive committee for some weeks. The congress after a bitter fight on this question some years ago decided to take this distraction from more serious matters out of open meetings and referring it to the directors and through them to the executive committee where all parts of the country might be equally represented.

Spokane was the only city to make an open campaign for the next convention this year and it is believed the effort will not lack reward.

The convention will come to a close tomorrow at noon. About the only business reserved for this short session is the final report of the resolutions committee. A session of the committee will be held tonight and it is hoped that no resolutions will be denied consideration for lack of time.

MAURETANIA BREAKS RECORD.

New York, Sept. 30.—Forty-four minutes were clipped from the record by the Cunard liner Mauretania, which arrived today from Liverpool. The Mauretania, which wrested the title from her sister ship, the Lusitania, on her trip today, completed her run of 2,748 knots in 4 days, 10 hours and 51 minutes, at an average speed of 26.06 knots an hour.

BIG OFFICIALS TO HUNT BIG GAME

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 1.—A notable hunting party will assemble in northern Arizona within a day or two. Frank H. Hitchcock, postmaster-general; Cecil A. Lyon, member of the National Republican committee from Texas; Ralph Cameron, delegate to Congress from Arizona, and the latter's secretary, B. W. Zachau, will meet in Flagstaff today and go to Holbrook, whence they will take to the wilderness.

H. A. Smith, Arizona's national committeeman, is expected to join the party at Holbrook. Deer and bear are the big game of northern Arizona which the hunters will pursue.

$100.00 REWARD.

Would gladly be paid for a cure by many people who are crippled with rheumatism, yet if they only knew it, they can be cured by a few bottles of Ballard's Snow Liniment, and the price is only 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 112 and 114 South Main Street, Salt Lake City.

PERIL OF THE SAN JOSE SCALE IN GREAT

Washington, Oct. 1.—The principal commercial apple orchards of the country are destined to become infested with the San Jose scale, according to a bulletin just published by the department of agriculture. This scale is spreading rapidly over vast areas each year.

The bulletin treats of the fumigation of the trees and contains a statement that "a little carelessness in spraying, the use of improper solutions, or unfavorable weather conditions at the time of making applications, may allow the survival of the scale in sufficient numbers to result later in the season, of their settling in considerable numbers on the fruit.

Volume Five Church History

Published by the Church With Introduction by Elder B. H. Roberts.

This volume deals with the history of the Church from May 3, 1842, to 31st of August, 1843. It, therefore, covers a period of about sixteen months. The main external events may be set down as follows: First, exposure of the wickedness of John C. Bennett, and his departure from Nauvoo; (2) the charge against the Prophet Joseph of complicity in an attempted assassination of Ex-governor Lilburn W. Boggs, under whose celebrated exterminating order the body of the Church was driven from Missouri; (3) the attempt of the state of Missouri to extradite the Prophet from the state of Illinois, to be tried as an accessory before the fact to an assault on ex-Governor Boggs; (4) a second attempt on the part of Missouri to extradite the Prophet from the state of Illinois on the old charge of "murder, treason, burglary, arson, larceny, theft and stealing," first brought against him in the year 1838; (5) a preliminary prospecting of the west, doubtless with a view to the contemplated removal of the Saints to the Rocky Mountains.

Of events that relate more nearly to the Church as an organization there should be mentioned: (1) the introduction of the endowment ceremonies and enlarged instructions on the subject of baptism for the dead; (2) an extension of auxiliary organization by bringing into existence the Young Men's and Women's Society.

Another item of great interest in this volume is the manifest development of the character and spiritual strength of the Prophet during this period. The trying experiences through which he passed seemed to discover new qualities of soul power within him, and to emphasize those which he was known to have possessed.

The doctrinal development of the period covered by this volume deals with several items which may be regarded as preliminary to that richer unfolding of philosophical thought to which the last year of the Prophet's teaching was so largely devoted.

ORIGIN OF THE REORGANIZED CHURCH AND SUCCESSION.

A book of 140 pages showing the latter-day apostasy.

This book is invaluable and indispensable to missionaries and all other students of Church history. It deals thoroughly with the origin of the Reorganized church and conclusively proves it to be of apostate sources, also that that church has departed from the doctrines of the Prophet Joseph Smith and now attacks them vindictively, denying many of the principles of the gospel. The book also treats the Succession in the Presidency and shows that PRESIDENT BRIGHAM YOUNG WAS PROPERLY ORDAINED TO LEAD THE CHURCH.
