LETTER TO LEGISLATORS.

Governor-Elect Wells Advises the State Lawmakers to Meet for First Sunday after Statehood.

Governor-Elect Wells has mailed the following letter to the members-elect of the State Legislature:

DEAR SIR—Inasmuch as the Constitution ceases to prescribe an definite time for the convening of the first State Legislature, and as it is desirable to secure uniformity of action in the matter, I would respectfully suggest that it be considered by the members-elect that they will assemble and organize on the Monday after the date of the proclamation of the President declaring Utah to be a State. As this is the time fixed by the Constitution (Section 22, Article 6) of the commencement of the terms of the officers-elect at the first session under the provisions of the Constitution, and as the executive and judicial officers will take the oath of office and assume their duties on that day, it seems appropriate that the Legislative officers also assume their duties at the same time. You are therefore requested to meet at the capital city and county building in Salt Lake City, at 12 o'clock m. on the first Monday next succeeding the issuance of the proclamation of the President declaring the State of Utah admitted into the Union.

Very respectfully,
HEBER M. WELLS,
Governor-elect of Utah.

TO THE JOINT BUILDING.

Change in Car Service by the Salt Lake Street Railway for the Benefit of Patrons.

With the advent of the New Year the Salt Lake Street Railway company will make a change in car service that is sure to be very much appreciated by that portion of the public at least which resides within the business district.

At that time it is proposed to give a twelve minutes service on the Warm Springs and Waterloo lines thus making it easier to reach the joint building, by reason of the greater frequency of trips than at present, while the Union Pacific depot and First ward car would runs along Third South will go down East Temple to Fifth South and then [illegible] at the joint city ward county building. These changes are made with the view of affording the best possible transportation facilities between that building and the business district during the session of the legislature. It may be that the change will include the running of the Waterloo car to the Union Pacific depot and the First Ward Union Pacific depot car between Waterloo and the Warm Springs but that is a matter that has not yet been definitely determined.

WHERE ARE HIS PARENTS?

Charlie Brothers Is Searching the Town for His Father and Stepmother.

Charlie Brothers, a lad of eight years, whose troubles were mentioned in the press several days ago, is still roaming around this city in search of his parents, who left Salida, Colorado, early in November last, so he says. The little fellow is very bright and intelligent, and to a NEWS reporter he this morning, related the following:

"I came to Salt Lake last Saturday night from Salida, Colorado, to join my father, William Brothers, and stepmother, who left there about a month ago. They left while my mother Rosine, who is 18 years old, and I, were boiling coal. For five or six days afterwards we went to their house and found the house boarded up, and nobody there. We went to the city marshal who told us that our parents had gone to Salt Lake, and that they wanted me to come out to them. He had to give my brother Jack arrangements with the railroad conductor, to bring me through to Salt Lake, and that is how I got here. I've been hunting all over town for my folks, but I can't find them, and if I don't find them pretty soon I'll have to go back to Salida."

When questioned as to whether or not he thought his parents were trying to run away from him, he said, "Well, it looked that way at first, but I don't see why they should, as they have always treated me kindly. Sometimes of course, my stepmother would scold me, but that was only when I didn't do right."

The lad's father is a coal miner and it is supposed he came out this way in search of work as he could get none in Salida. Since the boy's arrival in this city he has been living at the city jail, and has been treated kindly by Jailer Kimball. He is anxious to find his parents however, as every day they remain so tend the anxiety of his mind, and speculation of the fact that their little son is searching for them, and would be pleased to have them call at the police station and take him away.

Street Car Collision.

Two of the city railway company's cars came together in a sudden and forceful collision at an early hour this morning at the intersection of East Temple and Second South streets. As a result Main and Second South street passenger traffic was impeded for a time. The front platforms of both cars were pretty badly smashed. Fortunately no one was hurt. The effects of the company say that there was no excuse for the motorman and the motorman was at fault. The company employes who are responsible will, on investigation, heartily wish the affair had not taken place.

Fell From a Street Car.

Frank Myers, a colored man, who, according to report, was under the influence of liquor, boarded a Second South street car, on East Temple street, last night for his home on Tenth East. He took up a position on the front platform and while the conductor was going through the car collecting fares he lost his balance and was precipitated to the ground head foremost. He was quite severely hurt but was progressing all right today and will probably soon be himself again.

ORGANIZATION ASSURED.

The Salt Lake Stock and Mining Exchange Has a Roll of Twenty-five Charter Members.

The mining stock exchange is now an assured concern, and as the full list of charter members has been procured, the next thing in order is to fix upon a plan of organization and elect officers for the ensuing year. Last night a meeting of the promoters was held in the parlors of the Knutsford, at which time James H. Hayes was authorized to call a caucus of the members to take place tomorrow, when such matters as organization and election of officers will be considered, and the roll of charter members prepared in order to allow others, who may so desire, to become enrolled.

The charter roll contains at present twenty-five names, which have been appended to the following document:

We, the subscribers hereto, agree to associate ourselves together as charter members of a corporation to be known as the Salt Lake Stock and Mining Exchange, to be started with twenty-five charter members, each subscriber agrees to agree to pay $25 each upon call of the persons appointed by the subscribers hereto to collect the same.

Joined In Wedlock.

There was a very pretty home wedding last night at the residence of Mrs. Gilchrist, corner of Third and B streets, when Miss Emma was united to Henry J. Faust Jr., son of Dr. H. J. Faust, the veteran druggist. Elder O. F. Whitney performed the ceremony that made the young couple one and with. Following the nuptials came a reception to invited guests, who numbered about three score. The floral decorations of the apartments were artistic and beautiful and heartfelt congratulations were freely given to the young couple on their abandonment of single life for wedded bliss.

DOLL-PUTNAM.

St. Mark's cathedral was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening, the event being the marriage of Miss Gertrude Doll to Mr. Graham F. Putnam. At 8 o'clock, the time for the ceremony, the church was well filled with friends of the happy couple, and the strains of the "Lohengrin March" pealing forth from the organ, brought up a procession of the ushers of honor, bridesmaids, and the bride who was met at the foot of the chancel by the groom and Rev. L. B. Rogers, who tied the nuptial knot which made Mr. Putnam and Miss Doll man and wife. After the ceremony, a drive was taken to 207 Third street, the home of the bride, where a delicious repast was served.

Hill, Peter Gordon, Alfred Phillips, Joseph Sutherland, R. H. Harmon.

Fire at Circleville.

Special to the News.

CIRCLEVILLE, Utah, Dec. 9, 1895.—While the good people of Circleville were attending their usual Sunday service meeting the report of "fire" was given, and there was a general rush for the door, some having the fear that the meeting house was on fire. As soon as the door was thrown open, however, they could understand that they were out of danger, but could see in the distance that much of the property of Joseph Nielson was ablaze. The men rushed to the scene as quick as possible, but could render no assistance, as it was impossible to keep the fire from spreading in the dry. The entirely dry weather in this section of late has made any thing that will burn, such as hay, grain, stacks, fencing, etc., like tinder. Had it not been for the Circleville Bluff and others, considerably more property might have gone up.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Charley's Aunt comes to the Theater tomorrow night. It is a comedy in which the author, Brandon Thomas, has succeeded in starting "twelve single souls with no single thoughts or six partners, to wit, matrimony."

AT THE GRAND.

Nightly night at the Grand usually means a good house, and last night's audience was no exception to the general rule. Nearly every seat in the auditorium was occupied, with a fair attendance in the upper galleries. The play, The Secret Swing, was presented in a very creditable manner and all the roles were filled with the most vim and polish. Miss Pollock, who seemed much affected over the recent death of her husband in New York, did exceedingly well and more than justified the favorable reports that had preceded her.

The music was a pleasing feature of the performance, and added greatly the appreciation of the play. The scenic effects were beautiful.

The Secret Swing goes again tonight and tomorrow night with a Saturday matinee.

At Turner's hall last evening the Danish Brotherhood gave an entertainment, one feature of which was a lecture by Dr. Hjaerrye, on social conditions and the developments in other situations of Denmark. Dr. Hjaerrye recently came from Copenhagen, and has entered upon the practice of medicine here with the intention of making this city his home.

Catarrh starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes, ears and throat, and is in fact, the great enemy of the mucous membrane. Neglected colds in the head almost invariably precede catarrh, causing an excessive flow of mucous, and if the mucous discharge becomes interrupted the disagreeable results of catarrh will follow, such as bad breath, severe pain across forehead and about the eyes, a roaring and hissing sound in the ears and oftentimes a very offensive discharge. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles.

THE TEST

Tea or coffee is delightfully drinkable. We have them in our stock, and right here we want to say that it is a mistake to suppose that good tea or coffee can be bought anywhere, for they can't be. The market is flooded with spurious brands, and careless dealers are more apt to handle them than anything else. There is adulteration abroad and adulteration at home, and consumers need to be careful of the place where they buy. Intelligence and commercial integrity and honor in the local merchant afford the guarantee of purity which all are interested to find, in there are pure goods in the market, and careful and honest merchants know how to get them and do get them.

ANOTHER RAMBLER DAY.

The Rambler boys made a great showing in the Ogden races. The first event of the day was the ten mile road race, in which McCoubrey finished third, taking third prize and third time prize. Then came the track race, Joe Rose taking second in the series, Fowler first, Grant second, and Thatcher third in the series, class E, all "Ramblers" you will note. In the half mile class A, Grant took second, Cotton third. Hall also, class B, Thatcher second, Fowler third. Five mile, class B, Fowler second. In this race a mule in a yellow suit lost his head and fell. Cunningham and Weiss head immediately behind him, the result was a spill for those parties and the race lost to Evans. The two mile, class A, was another Rambler event, Meg taking first, Joe Rose second and McCoubrey third. Fourteen miles 2m sec 25sf is glory enough for one day.

People who laugh and people who cry,
And days may come if God grants,
But there's one thing we know whatever may go
