NEWS OF THE WEST.

Cheyenne Has Made a Bargain with the Rainmakers.

FREE HAND CARVING IN TRINIDAD.

Clothing Thief Combination in Colorado Springs.—Salvation Army in China Town.

Cheyenne Leader—Frank H. Jones has effected arrangements whereby Frank Melbourne, the Canton, Ohio, shoshonemaller, will visit here. Melbourne is one of the prevailing North American rain artists. By a patented method he claims to be able to make rain fall over an area of upwards of 250,000 square miles. He claims to have experimented successfully upon twelve different occasions in Australia during a season of drought, five times in New Zealand during February of this year, and three times in Ohio during the past sixty days.

Denver News.—Colorado Springs, Colo., August 23.—Police have for several days past been receiving complaints of robbery from various dealers in ready made clothing. A description of a man was given to the police and officer Atkinson this afternoon located the party wanted. He is a Mexican named Lorenzo Campos and stated that he arrived in town Thursday. His modus operandi was to stop into a store and ask to see goods, and while the clerk's back was turned, pick up a pair of trousers or coat and vest, laying them on his arm under his overcoat, which was always carried on the left arm. Five pairs of new trousers were found at his room and were identified by different business men here.

Denver News—Trinidad, Colo., August 25.—Mr. L. Brechtley did some first-class free hand carving on the person of Burt Carter, the night clerk of the Trinidad house, at an early hour this morning. Mr. Brechtley came to the hotel about 2 o'clock and, though pretty drunk, was quiet and peaceable. Soon afterwards another person came in claiming to be a friend of Brechtley, who was too drunk to be entertained and Carter refused to give him a bed. This made Brechtley angry and drawing a knife he lashed Carter across the face, making a long gash from the roots of his hair to his upper lip. Carter grappled him and in the struggle received seven cuts in the shoulder, arm and leg. An officer by this time had reached the scene and the enraged entertainer taken into custody, none too soon for Carter faint from loss of blood, must soon have fallen a victim to the murderous knife. As it is he is still quite weak, but no serious results are apprehended. Brechtly is in jail.

San Francisco Chronicle.—The very latest news in army circles—Salvation Army circles—is the projected organization of a Chinese corps. Headquarters are established in Chinatown.

Lieutenant Fong See, the popular chief at the Market street barracks, is to be installed as commander of the Chinatown forces. About the new staff of officers there is still much doubt, occasioned chiefly by the fact that Fong See is the only Christian Mongolian in the town of the salvation Army persuasion. It was currently rumored yesterday that Chin Sun Joe had the inside track for first staff officer under captain Fong See, but as yet this is merely a conjecture. Chin lives away up in the mines. He is a good Salvation soldier, but like many a good soldier in the regular army he is head over ears in debt.

"You see," said Major Kyle, when talking over his aggressive plans with a Chronicle representative yesterday, "you see, we dont like the kind of coming men for to tell others to be good, when they are not perfectly straight themselves."

So it would seem that Chin's chances for promotion to a staff officer depend upon his speedily assuming a financial equilibrium. But the Chinatown corps is a sure thing in the near future. Should it be impossible to secure better quarters a temporary barracks will very likely be opened in Ross alley.

"Business so very high in Chinatown," explained Major Kyle, "that we will probably find it difficult to get suitable quarters within our means. They divide their buildings up into such infinitesimal spaces, renting each little cell to a separate person or family, that an ordinary humble down building in Chinatown commands a pretty steep rent."

Already Chinatown is agitated over the proposed invasion, and the high priests of the joss houses are in terror lest their idols be overthrown and their lucrative positions become no longer a sinecure. For several weeks Major Kyle has been preparing for this aggressive move, and as soon as one or two more celestial converts are made the Salvation Army will lay siege to pagan Chinatown.

Danger in a Tin Pan.

Mr. John Steely bought a half pound of powder, a pair of shoes and a new tin pan in Moulton this week. He put the powder and shoes in the pan on his wagon and started home, but before he had gone two blocks from where he made the purchase the powder exploded, bursting him terribly. His hat was blown ten feet high, his clothes burned almost entirely from his body, and his face and arms burned so black as a negro's. There were only two persons on the wagon, neither of whom smoked or had a match about his person. The conclusion is that the powder was ignited from the rays of the sun, concentrated in a focus by the tin pan. The sun was shining very boldly, and being thrown against the paper containing the powder by the bright inner skin of the new tin, must have set the paper on fire.—Moulton Register.

A Sugar Kist in Midsummer.

They had great times the other day in the quiet little village of Savoy, up in the Berkshire hills. Last spring Farmer Deming covered an immense snowdrift with hundreds bonghs and sawdust, and a few days ago it was uncovered and utilized in a monster maple sugar "cast." The show was as clean and white as when it fell, and generous quantities of the finest bit—we mean maple sugar—were served to every one at the low price of twenty-five cents. Fun reigned supreme, and every one who has ever been present at a genuine New England sugar "cast" will regret that he was not one of Farmer Deming's guests his elder day.—New York Tribune.

Nearing Seventy Years Age.

Captain Nathaniel Richards, who has been a whaler all his life, until old age forced him to give up the sea, was the guest of the officers of the United States frigate Constellation on Sunday evening at dinner. Captain Richards is in his ninety-fourth year, and what makes his visit remarkable is that it was the Constellation which rescued him from the Chilians seventy years ago. In 1821 Captain Richards sailed from Stonington on a sealing voyage. He got around to the coast of Chili, was captured with others while ashore, was taken to the interior and put to work in the mines.

For six or seven months he toiled for his masters, totally denied and half starved. At last an opportunity offered for escape. He made for the coast, hotly pursued, but he reached there, and sailing a boat he made a long and perilous voyage until the Constellation came into view. He was taken on board and ate his first hearty meal since leaving his own home. He remained on board until the frigate returned home.

This incident came to the knowledge of the officers of the vessel now in the harbor, and they sent a courteously written invitation to the aged seaman requesting the pleasure of his company at dinner. Captain Richards accepted and the Constellation's launch took him from the shore to the frigate, where he was received with due honors. He was seated at the foot of honor, and the officers made much of him. As the old gentleman's mind is clear and his memory retentive, he did his share in making the event an interesting one for his entertainers. This is the first time he has seen the sea land since it brought him home in 1821.—New London Cor. New York Sun.

A Big Rock Slide.

Monday a loud noise and slight shaking of the earth caused no little wonderment among the residents near the hill. Investigation proved the cause to be an ice slide. A small and innocent spring issues from the side of one of the mountains, its waters spreading and flowing over a steep incline of rock. During the winter months ice formed against this wall of stone, increasing in size, until one vast block, fully 30 feet in thickness and 1,000 feet in length, projecting into the valley below.

From the warmth of the sun and its own weight it released its hold and thundered down the mountain side, carrying everything before it, even those three feet in diameter. Those who have visited the place say that the foot of the cliff presents a mass of broken ice, trees, limbs and earth fifty feet in height. This is a repetition of occasional occurrences in previous years, but on a grander scale.—Seattle (Wash.) Telegraph.

Electric Light Fishing.

The sleep Lou has gone on a novel fishing expedition to last from one to three months. An electric plant is on board, and the fishing is to be done by the aid of incandescent lights and a net. Experiments in the bay proved that everything alive under the water is attracted by the glare of the light, and thousands of fish of every description can be taken in a short time and with little trouble.

Four men were on board and the boat moored for the night near San Clemente island. The practical result of the first voyage will be watched with much interest in this city, and if it is as successful in deep water as the experiments in the bay have been the projectors of the enterprise are confident they will have solved the problem of supplying all southern California with clam fish.

I have been a great sufferer from dry catarrh for many years, and I have tried many remedies, but none did me so much benefit as Ely's Cream Balm. It completely cured me.—M. J. Reilly, 39 Woodward Ave., Roxbury Highlands, Mass.

I think Ely's Cream Balm is the best remedy for catarrh I ever saw. I never took anything that relieved me so quickly, and I have not felt so well for a long time. I used to be troubled with severe headaches two or three times a week.—J. A. Alcorn, Agt. U. P. R. R. Co., Eaton, Colo.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS

OH, MY BACK!

STOP IT NOW, SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have used many different remedies and spent much money without relief. About two years ago I was suffering from a very severe attack that seemed paralyzed me so each a moment that I was not able to move. When I had down it was almost impossible for me to get up again, or to get into bed alone. While I was recovering I met Dr. Hoxsey, with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, in my hotel. I immediately began taking the tea. It had an immediate effect, and in the announcement of an for patients at the hotel, as a cure dropped in my room every day, that I was a new man. I feel as strong as a lion and I owe all this to the use of the tea in all sincerity as I have here.

WHAT IS A GUARANTEE?

Many merchants and salesmen are in the habit of indiscriminately "guaranteeing" their wares with no thought of being called upon to make the "guarantee" good. It is a pernicious and foolish custom more respected in the breach than in the observance.

A guarantee, to have any value, should be made with knowledge of the meaning of the word and a set purpose to carry out the terms of the guarantee. On the rare occasions when the makers instruct us to warrant, and we replace any tool found imperfect in use.

We have used our best judgment, acquired by a considerable experience, in selecting the following items for our stock and sell them to our customers with an absolute guarantee that if they do not prove to be all that we represent them, we will refund the purchase money in full.

"Jewel" Steel Ranges. A finished article, perfectly proportioned, made of the best material. Don't fail to see it. It will pay you.

"Quick Meal" No Generator, Evaporating. Light it as you do your gas burner. No smoke. No danger. No complication. Every objection to the use of a Gasoline Stove done away with. Think of the discomfort caused in Summer by avoiding the heat of a big Kitchen Range.

"Superior" Cooks and Ranges. Superior as bakers. Superior in economy of fuel. Superior in design. Superior in construction. Superior in everything that goes to make a perfect cooking apparatus.

The "Peale Refrigerator." An ice saver. A Health promoter. Cellular stone lined. What is that? Investigate it. It will more than repay you.

Our stock of Builders' Hardware, House Furnishings, Garden Hose, Lawn Sprinklers, Lawn Mowers, etc., is complete in every detail.
