To Latter-day Saints who are interested in Genealogical Matters:

By and with the consent of the proper authorities, I have consented to go to the Eastern States during the present winter, to obtain the genealogies of such Latter-day Saints, there, who may make application to me prior to that time. Further, my object, aiming to do this, I am prepared to supply with facilities that will enable me to prosecute genealogical research, while in the Eastern States, and in consequence of the number of families at the same time, the expense will be but a very small portion of what it would be if each family prosecuted it for himself. Persons desiring my services, will please address, Brooklyn, New York, Care Joseph Fielding, or Delaware, Ohio, stating whether they are native of Great Britain, to prevent misunderstanding at a small cost. A strange, shining terror, will be sent on applicants.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, 20.—The House committee on naval affairs are very much perplexed by the quandary in which they find themselves concerning the investigation which they were authorized to make by the so called dragnet resolution recently adopted by the House of Representatives. The trouble is that the committee on expenditures in the Navy Department, headed by Willis, of New York, have already occupied the ground, and are actually at work day by day, occupying a room in the department building, which, at Congressman Page's suggestion, was placed at their disposal by Secretary Thompson in order to facilitate the examination of the original books and papers. Chairman Whithorne, therefore, sees a small chance of acquiring additional distinction as an investigator and exposer of official iniquities, and in common with other prominent democrats on this committee is greatly chagrined in consequence, but will probably follow in the footsteps of Willis' committee, in the hope of gleaning whatever the latter may possibly overlook. Willis' committee is now engaged in laying the groundwork to show that Secretary Robeson, during a few days subsequent to the 4th of March, and before the confirmation of Hayes' cabinet, involved the Government in enormous unnecessary contracts.

The Sunday Herald, to day, impressively announces, upon the authority of an intimate friend of President Hayes, that he (has, within the past week, declared his intention to send in new names for the New York custom house offices in a short time. This friend is also quoted as saying that the President has distinct ideas on the question of official responsibility, and intends, under the law, to select his own agents to carry out his views of civil service reform. Notwithstanding this announcement, and the continued earnest democratic invitations to the President, it is not believed by any considerable number of well-informed people in Washington that he will adopt this course, which would re-open and aggravate a conflict with a republican majority of the Senate, evidently undesirable if not manifestly useless.

The Herald and Gazette, to-day, both denounce the Washington Post's recent attack on Speaker Randall, and attribute it to disappointed aspirations for patronage or private malice. The republicans vastly enjoy the spectacle of this heated controversy between the rival democratic organs, and consider it a very petty quarrel as it stands.

Third Asst. Postmaster General Hazen has prepared for consideration by Congress a bill proposing an important change in the law regulating the compensation of fourth-class postmasters or all whose annual compensation is less than $1,000. It provides that the basis of their compensation shall be the face value of the stamps cancelled in their respective offices instead of the value of the stamps sold by them. It also imposes severe penalties for making false returns and for trafficing in stamps. The present mode of adjusting the salaries of presidential postmasters will be left substantially unchanged. The bill embodies the recommendations of Postmaster General Key in his last annual report, and will by him be transmitted to Congress at an early day.

Three Cheers for Hayes.

BOSTON, 20.—The report of the Bristow dinner here, as sent west, accidentally omitted to state that, when the company was called to order, the chairman proposed a sentiment in honor of the President of the United States. Instantly every man was on his feet, and while the band played the "Star Spangled Banner," three hearty cheers were given for President Hayes.

$45,000 Fire.

NEW YORK, 20.—The three-story wooden block, at Western Avenue, owned by Ann E. Ayer, and occupied by a number of industries, was burned, last night; loss $45,000, insurance $15,000, mainly on the building.

Another Failure.

John W. Stout, a large dealer in canned goods, has filed a petition bankruptcy; liabilities about $50,000.

Italian Mass Meeting in respect to the Late King.

CHICAGO, 20.—A mass meeting of Italian residents of Chicago was held in this city, this afternoon, Consul Sig. Agostino Sciuti, presiding. Resolutions expressing profound grief at the death of Victor Emanuel, were adopted and transmitted to King Humbert through the Consul general of New York. It was resolved to celebrate solemn mass at the cathedral here for repose of the late King's soul. The speakers were the Consul, Signors Giovanno, Griecchio, Bernard, Borretti, and N. C. Harding. The latter spoke of the influence gained for Italy in the councils of Europe through the achievements of the late King. A vote of thanks to the American press for the manner in which it had commented on the late King and the country over which he ruled, was proposed and unanimously carried.

Arrest of Counterfeiters.

PHILADELPHIA, 20.—An establishment for the manufacture of counterfeit trade dollars, at 1234 Callow Hill Street, has been seized by secret service officers, and the Cooper Wilts, a notorious counterfeiter, and Sarah Page, were arrested.

Indians Raid.

ST. LOUIS, 20.—Advices from Texas say the Indians raided into Mason county a few days ago, killed two men, and ran off a large number of cattle and horses. The United States troops and Texas rangers are in pursuit.

Banquet to Silver Bill Bland.

LEBANON, Mo., 20.—Citizens of of Lebanon, irrespective of party, gave a grand banquet, last night, to Representative Bland, the author of the silver bill. The entire community turned out to do him honor.

Arrested For Murder.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., 20.—Jno. Kane and Michael Berger have been arrested for the murder of Patrick Burns, at Tuscarora, Schuylkill County, on April 15, 1870. Kane, who was inside boss, killed Burns' brother in 1867, was convicted of murder in the second degree, but pardoned by Governor Geary. Subsequently Patrick Burns, clerk for the coal operators, reported misdemeanors on the part of Kane, and soon afterwards Burns was killed.

Fatal Accident.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., 20.—Jas. Hennessy, aged 12, intending to frighten some little girls, took a loaded gun, when it went off, killing Rose Farrel, aged six, and wounding two others.

WESTERN.

Another Workingman's Meeting for Permanent Organization, etc.

SAN FRANCISCO, 20.—No disturbance has occurred through the day, although the authorities have maintained every precaution against the event of any arising. No attempt was made to hold the usual Sunday meeting at the new City Hall lots, although several hundred people collected in the vicinity during the afternoon, lounging and talking over matters in a quiet way. Several hundred of Kearney's party went over to Oakland and participated in a meeting there, at which about 2,000 were present. Everything passed off quietly, and the tenor of the speeches was moderate. The orators, while supporting Kearney's movement, deprecated the extreme violence of his expressions as unwise. A State convention of the Kearney wing of workingmen is announced to assemble in this city, to-morrow. The object is stated to be the adoption of a permanent platform, the election of officers, and a general organization of the party. Delegates are expected to be present from each county of the State, from each ward club of this city, and from such anti-cooley organizations as choose to participate. Mayor Bryant announces that he will not allow the convention to be held. In accordance with the policy now in operation of breaking up all assemblages in the interest of incendiary agitation, the leaders of the movement state that if the convention cannot be held here it will assemble in Oakland.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Cleopatra Obelisk.

LONDON, 20.—Cleopatra's obelisk passed Margate, this afternoon, and is expected in the Thames at midnight.

Insurrection Spreading.

A telegram from Athens reports the insurrection in Thessaly spreading. The insurgants, who fight under the Greek flag, and who have been joined by many Thessalians residing in Greece, have been enthusiastically received in several districts. Insurrection has also broken out in Macedonia.

RUSSIA.

Nothing Known of the Suspension of Hostilities.

ST. PETERSBURG, 20.—The Agence Russe and Journal De St. Petersbourg state that nothing is known at St. Petersburg of the appearance of the Russian parlementaires at Sourna-Foudiar announcing the suspension of hostilities in Bulgaria as published in the British Blue Book.

TURKEY.

Constantinople Army, etc.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 20.—Mukhtar Paaha has been appointed to command the army to be formed along the line of defence before Constantinople. The exodus of refugees from Roumelia is assuming colossal proportions. Before leaving Adrianople the Turks burned their provisions and blew up their ammunition.

The British consul at Adrianople telegraphed this Sunday morning that a deputation of the inhabitants had gone to meet the Russians. No news of the Russian entry has, however, yet been received. Layard denies that he has asked authorization for the British fleet to enter the Bosphorus.]

Increasing the Army.

BELGRADE, 20.—The Servian Government is summoning every warlike man to the army for the purpose of occupying Prischina and Novi Bazar. The Servians are converging on Novi Bazar.

FRANCE.

The Budget, etc.

PARIS, 20.—The Francais says Gambetta agrees with the ministry that the voting of the entire budget is desirable. It is said he desires a vote to be taken in April, and then to have the chambers adjourned throughout the summer so as to insure political quiet during the international exhibition.
