

GEO. LYON SUES MARSHAL MAUSS.

Seeks to Recover $6,500 From Murray Peace Officer and Charles Brown.

FOR FALSE IMPRISONMENT.

Claims the Two Defendants Conspired
To Compel Him to Pay a
Fifty Dollar Note.

George E. Lyon today filed suit in the district court against Michael Mauss, city marshal, of Murray, and Charles Brown to recover a total of $6,500 damages to his character and reputation by an alleged false and unlawful imprisonment in the Murray jail on Dec. 1, 1903, and from March 11 to 18, 1904. It is alleged that plaintiff and defendants were indebted to the State Bank of Murray in the sum of $50 on a promissory note and that in order to compel plaintiff to pay the note the defendants conspired together and had him arrested and imprisoned. In March, 1904, they took him from his home in Ephraim and brought him to Murray, where he was in jail for about a week. The first time he was in jail only one day. He asks $3,000 damages for the first imprisonment and $3,500 for the second.

SHE DESERTED HIM.

Usual Order of Divorce Complaint is Somewhat Reversed.

Suit for divorce was filed in the district court today by Nels Rasmussen against Della Rasmussen on the grounds of cruelty and desertion. They were married at Riverton in November, 1896, and it is alleged that defendant has treated her husband cruelly in that she repeatedly told him that she did not love him, and desired to get rid of him, and finally she packed up her clothes and left him and the two children and went to her own family. Plaintiff asks for the custody of the children.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES.

Morton Accuses His Wife of Attempted Murder and Arson.

Some decidedly sensational charges are made by Daniel H. Morton against his wife, Mary E. Morton, in his answer to her complaint in divorce which he filed in the district court today. Among other things he charges that his wife attempted to poison him and that she set fire to some property on his farm and destroyed a barn, some hay, horses, harness, etc., of the total value of $1,035. She is also charged with having falsely and maliciously sworn to a complaint before the county clerk, charging her husband with insanity and with having testified falsely when he was examined as to his sanity.

In his cross-complaint it is alleged that Mrs. Morton willfully deserted her husband on three occasions and each time she remained away from him from seven to 11 months. On July 23, 1904, she is alleged to have sworn falsely to a complaint charging him with insanity and at the hearing she testified falsely but the defendant was discharged. On July 28, she put some strychnine in a glass of milk, intending to kill him. He drank it and became very ill, but it did not prove fatal.

It is alleged that on Aug. 1, 1904, she set fire to his barn and destroyed the building, some hay, horses, harness, buggy and a lot of farm implements of the total value given above. She was arrested on the following day and confessed to the officers that she set fire to the property. Mr. Morton asks that his wife's complaint for divorce be dismissed and that he be granted a divorce.

SUGAR CO. SELLS LAND.

A Japanese Corporation Buys for Bee
Culture—A Coming Jay Marriage.

A big land deal which has just been closed between the Utah Sugar Company and the Japanese-American Industrial Corporation of San Francisco, indicates the value of farming lands in the Bear River valley. The tract of land in question amounts to 177 acres and has been known as the Central farm. Beets were grown on it this year by a company of Japanese laborers, and they were so well pleased with the results they obtained for their entire crop of beets, which was immediately turned into cash at the Garland factory, that they began negotiations for the purchase outright of the land, which they had been cultivating. The value placed on it, including some improvements, was $80 per acre, a total transaction of over $14,000. The three Japanese at the head of the company who closed the deal with Manager Cutler, are Messrs. Akimoto, Abiko, and Ito. They are men of some means and far-seeing as they would desire to meet. All are enthusiastic over the soil, water, climate, and general conditions in the Bear River valley. They pay 25 per cent of the purchase price down in cash, and next year will put the whole 177 acres into beets, attending to it from this time the seed is planted till the crop is gathered, with their own labor.

One of the three gentlemen concerned, Mr. Terah, was in a pleasant state of excitement yesterday over the coming of his fiancée, a young Japanese lady who is daily expected, but whom he has never yet set eyes on. When asked about how he felt at the prospect of marrying a lady whom he had never yet seen, he replied: "Oh, that's all right. My mother selected her and she knows the kind of wife that will suit me."

THE NEWSBOYS' FEAST.

The Four City Papers Will Give Them a Thanksgiving Spread.

The annual newsboys' Thanksgiving feast will be furnished this year by the four papers of the city, the Herald, Tribune, Telegram and "News." An elaborate menu has been provided at Bond's restaurant and 100 of the boys will sit down to the feast. Afterward the youngsters will form in parade and visit the Sanitarium, where they will be given—not their usual bath—but a big swim that will last as long as they desire to have it prolonged.

TABERNACLE CHOIR NOTICE.

There will be no rehearsal Thursday night (Thanksgiving), but the choir will remain after meeting Sunday to rehearse for Monday night's concert. All should be present Sunday.

people admit, it is so nearly what it should be, that it ought not to be disturbed.

WE TOLD YOU SO.

Frank J. Cannon Now Editor of the Salt Lake Tribune.

Ex-Senator Frank J. Cannon is now editor-in-chief of the Salt Lake Tribune, and will hereafter direct the editorial policy of that paper. It is announced in connection with his appointment to the position that no change will occur in the staff or policy of the paper as the result of his assuming charge.

Frank J. Cannon is a newspaper man of experience in Utah and elsewhere. He recently served as editor of the Ogden Star Journal, and left that paper to enter the campaign of the American party. As his politics in national matters have been Democratic for the past few years, his position now as editor of what claims to be a Republican organ in national affairs, is conceded by the senator's friends to mean a step in the direction of the Republican party which he left when the silver fight was at its height.

POLLING PLACES.

List of District Stations for Board of Education Voters.

It has now been settled where the citizens of Salt Lake are to vote on Dec. 7 for the choice of six members of the board of education.

ATTIAS CASE TODAY.

Greek Labor Agent to Be Tried at West
Jordan This Afternoon.

"Dr." P. G. P. Attias, the Greek labor agitator, will be tried at West Jordan this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock on the charge of practicing medicine without first securing a certificate from the state board of medical examiners. The hearing will be before Justice of the Peace J. J. Williams and the state will be represented by Asst. County Atty. Dana T. Smith.

UNIVERSITY FLAG.

Presented to Football Team by "Preps"
At Assembly Today.

Headed by O. J. Dix the preparatory students of the University of Utah marched into the midst of a chapel exercise this morning, intruding upon the sacred premises from which they were excluded by faculty order a month ago. The purpose of their visit was to present to the members of the football team a big University flag, done in crimson and silver silk. Their entry into the room was greeted with enthusiastic cheering and the presentation was made amid the greatest applause. In a neat presentation speech the flag bearer, Mr. Dix, explained that the preps wished to make the presentation in token of their appreciation of the fine work done by the University team against its opponents this year. The flag measures 18x5 feet. On the crimson streamer is a white "U" and on the white streamer a crimson "U," the whole effect being one of rare beauty.

The gift will do much toward alleviating the hard feeling growing up between the prep and college students over campus privileges.

Outside of the presentation of the big flag, the feature of the assembly was a speech by Professor Young on the relation ship of college athletics to college patriotism, and a speech by Manager Kitter, in which he stated that if Utah wins tomorrow, she will be the champion of four states—Colorado, Montana, Wyoming and Utah.

It was announced that a reception will be given tomorrow evening in honor of the visiting team, and that the game will begin at 2:30 instead of 3:30, as is usually the custom.

A subscription was started to raise funds for organizing a band. Squire Coop started the donations with a gift of $5, and it is expected others will follow soon, so as to enable a band to organize before the spring track season.

GRANITE SINGERS ATTENTION.

Choir members and last season's singing class members are requested to meet at the stake Tabernacle Saturday night at 7:45, to rehearse music to sing at the conference next Sunday morning. Also all members of the youth and juvenile classes are requested to meet at the same place Saturday, 12:30, with the children's class, and furnish singing for conference Saturday afternoon.

Stake Chorister.

COMMITTEE IS HARD AT WORK.

Members of Commercial Club
Holding Daily Meetings on Water Supply Question.

WILL GET TOGETHER TONIGHT.

Real Estate Association Also Will Take Up the Proposition at Next Luncheon.

The special committee appointed by the board of governors of the Commercial club to consider the mayor's plan for extension of the city's water supply, is holding daily meetings, and will meet this evening, at the club, to consider the matter further. There appears to be an agreement in the belief that the longer the matter is postponed the more difficult will it be to push it through. As an illustration of this, is cited the fact that two years ago property in the Cottonwood canyons that was offered the city for $12,000, now commands $25,000. The Real Estate association will handle the question at its next Commercial club luncheon, and try to cast some light on this darkened question.

Colonel E. F. Holmes, in his report to the club some two years ago, gave the following data in connection with the scheme as outlined by his committee, as follows:

Water main improvements.....	$ 50,000
Artesian wells in Liberty park.....	3,000
Pumps in Liberty park.....	50,000
Artesian wells along the Jordan river and Salt Lake canal.....	5,000
Development of streams in City creek.....	5,000
Little Valley reservoir.....	40,000
Emberland canyon, under ground flow.....	5,000
Reservoir in Parley's canyon.....	150,000
Pipe line in Parley's canyon.....	10,000
Big Cottonwood water and new canal.....	450,000
Big Cottonwood conduit.....	275,000
Reservoir site and improvements in Cottonwoods.....	50,000
Brick and cement conduit.....	50,000
Total.....	$1,145,000

The report also recommended that $450,000 be expended for a pipe line and conduit from Utah lake on the upper grade line starting through the East Jordan canal to the mouth of the Big Cottonwood canyon, and for the acquisition by exchange or purchase of the water of the Big Cottonwood.

Also, that the sum of $275,000 be expended in the building of a conduit from the Big Cottonwood creek to Salt Lake City for the purpose of conveying into the city such water as may be secured by purchase, exchange or otherwise.

The proposition came to naught for the time being because of the refusal of the Legislature to give control of the matter to a commission appointed by the governor instead of to the city council. The specifications of the plan submitted to the Commercial club include:

Purchase of Spring creek.....	$ 135,000
Spring creek pumping plant and pipe line.....	80,000
Bonuses for exchange and canal repairs.....	50,000
Big Cottonwood conduit.....	350,000
Parley's canyon power plant.....	40,000
Addition to city water mains.....	100,000
Miscellaneous expenses.....	95,000
Main sewer for lower district.....	150,000
Total.....	$1,000,000

Manager Harris of the Commercial club remarked today, that the special committee would continue to meet daily until it could arrive at some conclusion satisfactory to the entire body.

MYSTERIOUS BLAZE.

Residence of G. Scott Visited By Early Morning Fire.

Shortly after 5 o'clock this morning, there was a mysterious blaze at the residence of G. Scott, 1081 south Fifth West street, and before the firemen were on the scene the roof and contents of the building were damaged to the extent of about $500. How the fire started is unknown, and there was some mix up in getting the alarm to the central station. However, when the apparatus arrived, where quick work was done and the blaze was soon extinguished.

ELECTION RETURNS.

Board Completes Canvas of Vote for County Superintendent.

The board of canvassers of the election returns has completed the canvass of the votes cast for county superintendent of schools. The final result shows that John Smith, the Republican candidate, received 4,074 votes, James E. Moss, the Democratic candidate, 3,472, and Mr. Burt, the Socialist candidate, 704.

LATE LOCALS.

On Saturday the officers of the board of education and the janitors of the city schools will receive their pay for the month of November. The total amount of the payrolls is $2,680.

County Treasurer Carbis announces that the tax books will be closed on Saturday afternoon, and all those who desire to pay up and save advertising costs must do so before the close of the office on Saturday.

The Thanksgiving exercises of the Parents' and Teachers' association of the Training school at the University, will be given in the museum building at 7:30 this evening, with an interesting program, that will include an address (illustrated by stereopticon) by Prof. William M. Stewart.

The Utah Women's Press club will meet at the Women's Exponent office Saturday evening, March 26. The following program has been arranged: Thanksgiving sentiments, members; Current Events, Miss Stella Neff; Reminiscences of Former Members, Mrs. Ruth M. Fox, and a paper by Mrs. Candland.

been causing Dog Tax Collector Hugo Hofer considerable trouble of late by collecting dog taxes from the people. Mr. Hofer wishes it understood that no one excepting himself is entitled to collect the tax and the public should look out for the impostor.

City Engineer George W. Snow will leave for the east on a business trip, next Friday morning. He expects to be absent about three weeks, and while away will visit with Chief Engineer Erickson of Chicago, with whom he is well acquainted, and inquire specially into the manner of handling the water supply of a modern municipality.

The Salt Lake Produce Exchange is to meet this afternoon when it is promised that some radical action will be taken relative to the telephone situation. The second committee appointed by the last business men's meeting is beginning work today, expecting to report to a third meeting to be held at the Commercial club next Monday evening.

While there is a low barometric area jutting in from the northwest, the local weather office does not consider it of any moment, as it is but a slight variation from a high area, and does not appear to be of any force. So the present indefinite duration situation continues, and threatens to last longer than the Cadet Whittaker trial at West Point.

Mrs. and Mr. Joseph W. McMurrin take umbrage at the statement that Frank Kenneth Brown was the first baby born to missionary parents laboring in the London conference. In the person of their son, Everard Leasing McMurrin, they claim to have added the family who was born under similar conditions 14 years before the Brown infant. "Even then," claimed Elder McMurrin this morning, "We do not undertake to say that our boy was the first in the London conference."

WEATHER REPORT.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The "low" noted on yesterday's chart as central about Calgary has moved rapidly eastward, and now overlies Lake Superior. The low pressure over the Southeastern states is passing off the South Atlantic states. A moderate low area has developed over eastern Washington. A ridge of high pressure overlies the entire Rocky mountain region extending from Colorado on the north to El Paso on the south.

Rains are again reported from the Pacific northwest and from the South Atlantic states, with rain still falling this morning at Portland, Oregon, and Charleston, South Carolina, accompanied at the last named city by a thunderstorm. Light scattered
