OGDEN NEWS.

OGDEN, APRIL 11, 1900.

FLED FROM HYMEN'S ALTAR

Episode Results in an Interesting Breach of Promise Case.

Wedding of Two Happy Junction City Couples—Boy Thrown from a Horse and Badly Bruised.

In yesterday's Salt Lake papers there was an account of the sudden and very unexpected departure of Edward Rose from that city. Rose was to have been married to Rose Engilman of Salt Lake City on Sunday, and all arrangements were made for the wedding, but the bridegroom did not appear. A search was made for him but with no avail, so the lady to whom he was to be wedded, immediately employed an attorney and filed suit against Rose for $25,000 damages for breach of promise. A summons was placed in the hands of a constable of Salt Lake to serve on Rose if he could be found. The officers of the law found out that the man they wanted to answer to the charge had come to Ogden, so the constable was immediately sent here for Rose. He saw him on the train ready to leave Ogden for Butte, Montana, his old home, so the constable got Officer Cooney of Ogden to place the man under arrest, instead of serving the summons on him to cite him into court. Mr. Cooney asked the Salt Lake officer if he had a warrant, to which he replied: "Yes, we want him arrested;" so Rose was placed under arrest and taken to the police station, but when Clerk Terries saw the papers he immediately released Rose, but he was too late for his northern train, so was compelled to wait over here in Ogden until yesterday. During his stay here he retained Col. A. B. Hayes, of Ogden, and Attorney Dey of Salt Lake to represent him in the damage suit brought by his old lover, Miss Engilman; also to look up the matter of filing a suit for false imprisonment and arrest. This will be quite an interesting breach of promise case. Mr. Rose's attorneys refuse to make any statement about the matter at the present time.

Marriage license were issued to Alex Leatham, 28, and Miss Ellen Hendry, 17; also to Chas. A. Meyers, 30, and Miss Maud McChesney, 20, all of Ogden.

WILLARD.

Apprehension for the Fruit Crop—Goes to the Hospital for Treatment.

Special Correspondence.

Willard, Boxelder County, April 10.—Returning from conference we found the ground covered with the "beautiful snow" to the depth of two or three inches and the thermometer showing the mercury about four degrees below freezing point. While the storm is doing much good in soaking the earth and supplying moisture to thirsty vegetation, the possibility of the fruit crop being killed by frost creates some uneasiness.

The beautiful weather of last month brought forward the fruit blossoms so that the orchards present lovely pictures of apricot, peach and plum trees in full bloom. Here, where orchards vary in size from one to forty acres and constitute almost the sole dependence of many of the owners, the loss of the fruit crop means a sad diminuition of the annual income. We still hope, however, much may be saved.

One of our respective townsmen, A. A. Carlson, after suffering months with a diseased leg, has at last been sent to the hospital, amputation of the diseased limb being necessary.

Measles has visited nearly every family in our locality during the present year but it has been in a mild form.

Dr. Cassaday was born in Clinton, Ia., 33 years ago. He was one of the leading physicians of Sanpete county, where he has resided for several years, part of the time in Ephraim and the balance here. He leaves a wife and two children, a daughter about 4 years old and son less than a year old. His folks, who reside in Salina, Kan., have been telegraphed for and the funeral will not take place until their arrival.

All friends and relatives as well as former members are cordially invited to attend.

July 14, 1875 is the date upon which the people of Orderville were baptized into the United Order, but they had been working at this principle in an organized form ever sixteen months prior to that date.

Arrangements will be made to take care of all who may come. A royal good time is anticipated. Maria Porter is the secretary of committee on arrangements.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

DRIGGS, IDAHO.

Teton Valley—A Thriving and Prosperous Locality.

Special Correspondence.

Driggs, (Teton Valley,) Idaho, April 8.—Spring came one month earlier than usual in the Tetons and the farmers got down to business with better spirits, as everything promises an abundant harvest this fall. The health of the people has been very good, with nothing to interfere with our meetings, schools, or socials.

This valley was first settled eleven years ago by a company of Salt Lake and Utah people comprised mostly of "Mormons." There were ten wagons in the company. At that time the land was not surveyed but ranches were taken up by most of the company and a year or so afterwards the whole country was surveyed, and the valley has been settling up very rapidly since. We are located about three hundred miles north and a little east of Salt Lake City, and are forty-five miles from Rexburg, our nearest railroad station. Many improvements in the last few years go to prove that the people are prospering. Much of the land is now under cultivation and a net work of fencing covers the valley.

Several new buildings have just been completed this spring, among the most prominent ones are the Young Men's hall, which is just finished, and will be used for meetings, socials, etc. A new dancing pavillion is just completed and is a credit to our county. It is an octagon, 56 feet each way with four side rooms. One is used as lunch stand, two as dressing rooms, and one for the orchestra, Messrs. Beesley and Blattner are the owners of the pavillion, and also members of the orchestra here.

The town of Driggs is located in the center of the valley, and is a thriving little business center, with implement houses, one general store, drug store, school and meeting houses, and has the appearance of a prosperous village, with good future before it.

A good many rigs will be sent to Rexburg to meet the special excursion that will arrive there on the eleventh from Utah. Teton valley expects her share of the Utah visitors.

Mr. Geo. Gee and a company of Provo people were looking up the land question here last week with a view of locating about ten families.

We had six inches of snow last night, but it was very acceptable as it was getting too dry for farm work.

A petition was circulated around this section of Fremont county last week for signers to call an election for the county seat fight between Rexburg and Anthony this fall. The petition had many signers and every one seems in favor of Rexburg.

PARKER, IDAHO.

Appearance of Winter — Bright Agricultural Prospects.

Special Correspondence.

Parker, Fremont Co., Ida., April 9.—It is to say, it is quite comfortable to see a blazing fire, in a snug room, and snow is three or four inches deep and still snowing. This has put a stay check on farming operations which were much further advanced than ever before at this season of the year.

The northern part of this district of country has already made its appearance by bestowing to the water having reached the St. Anthony canal most of which there is small prospects of flowing in that locality.

The spirit of the people is good except of the Flint family of Brother Wm. L. Flint, who has one or two cases of what has the appearance of diphtheretic sore throat. The patients are quarantined and the patient is progressing favorably.

On the whole winter there has been a still the open winter there has been feed on hand, and farmers have had a fine condition.

We are spreading the soakage to much earlier than usual, because of the entire neighborhood is in a good condition of the water in all the canals is brighter season, and this means farmers are preparing for the timely manure.

We are looking forward to a considerable future population in the farmers are in many of the settlements equalizing will be the means of Mr. Alvin labor, etc.

Mangum, son and Miss Effie Miss Eugene E. Davenport and way temporarily have wended their way intention off the avowed intention of matrimony on the sea of matrimony in this neighborhood are many other say, "Go ye whom we would likewise."
