EASTERN DISPATCHES.

Alexis—Connolly and Tweed—Hurricane at Cape Breton—Navy and Postal Reports—Mace-Coburn Fight—Monetary.

NEW YORK, 1.—The Prince Alexis, after inspecting the West Point Academy, returned here this afternoon.

Connolly is beginning to despair of securing bail. The sheriff thinks there is no possibility of such an event.

Three of Tweed's bondsmen have signified their intention of withdrawing and if the names of others are not secured he will share the fate of Connolly.

Mayor Hall is not yet arrested.

The Tribune states that Connolly yesterday prepared a full confession of all the transactions of the ring, and that three of Tweed's bondsmen, including Hugh Hastings, of the Commercial Advertiser, have signified their intention to withdraw.

BOSTON, 1.—A special to the Traveler from Halifax says, that a hurricane visited the northern side of the island of Cape Breton on the night of the 25th ult., doing immense damage to houses, farms, trees and shipping. The tide was four feet higher than ever known before. A number of vessels anchored at Port Malgrove, dragged their anchors, and passed out of the strait to the sea. The Bermudean brig Jasper, from Charlottetown, was wrecked on Fox Island; one man saved only. Ten schooners were wrecked in the strait. It is feared there has been considerable loss of life.

WASHINGTON, 1.—The report that the secretary of the navy will recommend more liberal appropriations by Congress than those of last year, they being insufficient for the effective force, not more than thirty or forty vessels being now afloat, out of one hundred on the list, exclusive of fifty iron-clads, nearly all of which are laid up and out of service.

The postmaster has commenced sending to distant points copies of his annual report and enclosed a note to publishers depending on their honor not to print the report in advance of its delivery to Congress. He will again recommend the abolition of the franking privilege, and ask for legislation to relieve the department of the delay and embarrassment in re-advertising proposals for carrying mails in cases where there have been deceptions and failures by straw bids, and to make provision for giving contracts to the lowest responsible bidders.

NEW ORLEANS, 30.—The Mace-Coburn excursion train left the Mobile railroad depot, at the foot of Canal St., at 7:30 a.m. The train consisted of ten coaches with 500 sporting men, the majority of the better class, including lawyers, physicians, bankers, merchants, etc. Among the prize ring notables were Tom Allen, Sherman, Thurston, Ned O'Baldwin, Tom Kelly, Jim Cusack, Jim Coburn and Pooley Mace. The train reached Montgomery station, Mississippi, forty miles from New Orleans, at 10:25, and the ring was immediately pitched on high ground in the pine woods, about fifty yards from the track, Jim Coburn superintending its construction. Coburn and Mace arrived on the ground from St. Louis, both in excellent condition, Coburn weighing a hundred and sixty-four, Mace a hundred and sixty-eight.

At 10:30 Coburn entered the ring amid great cheering: a moment later Mace stepped in. Tom Calpine and Larry Powers were his seconds, and Coburn had Cusack and Tom Allen. Coldfeet Hunt, of New Orleans, was elected referee; umpire, Al. Smith for Mace, and Jim Coburn for Coburn. After the usual preliminaries time was called and fighting commenced at once.

First Round—Lasted thirty-two minutes, at the end of which Coburn threw Mace.

Second—Nothing decisive; Mace again thrown.

Third—Sharp fighting; both were down.

Fourth—Long sparring, no fighting. The referee said the people had come to see a fight and not fooling. The men then advanced and Coburn got a blow on Mace's neck. Mack got in heavily on Coburn's left eye. First blood allowed for Mace.

Fifth—Severe fighting; Mace clinched and Coburn threw him over the ropes.

Sixth—The men clinched and Coburn threw Mace, falling heavily upon him.

Seventh—Hard fighting; Coburn forced Mace to the ropes and threw him.

Eighth—No fighting; Coburn threw Mace at the ropes.

Ninth—Some hard fighting; Mace forced Coburn to the ropes; both down.

Tenth and Eleventh Rounds—The men manifested a decided indisposition to fight, and after much sparring and feigning the referee ordered them to their corners and declared the fight a draw. Time four hours and ten minutes.

Monetary and Stocks.

NEW YORK, 1.—Gold heavy and weak; sterling 9. W. U., 67 5-8; Quicksilver, 25; W. F. 56¾; Pacific Mail, 46¾.

LONDON, 1.—Consols, 92¼. Tallow 48s. 6d.

LIVERPOOL, 1.—California wheat 12s. 6d.

PARIS, 1.—Rentes, 36 francs, 65 centimes.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

Mining—L. California Company—Affray between Judge Lake and Charles de Young.

SAN FRANCISCO, 1.—The sales at the stock board during the past week foot up to $1,792,000.

A body of ore has been struck by the Golden Chariot mining company, which is reported two and a-half feet wide, and of a high grade.

There was received from the Meadow Valley mine to-day, $119,000 on the November account.

The Yule gravel company has declared a dividend of fifty cents a share, and the Nevada transportation company has levied an assessment of $5 a share.

In the Hawes' will case, the counsel for the executors have been introducing witnesses to-day, to show the sanity of the testator. The case was closed this evening by the reading of the will itself. The arguments will probably commence to-morrow.

The Mexican authorities have annulled the lease and contract, and declared the port of Mazatlan, Lower California, closed. Some months since, troops from La Paz went there, drove out Drake De Kay and the half dozen others connected with the Lower California Company, and took possession of the American schooner Greenwood of New York, loading at Archilla. The authorities also took possession of the American sloop Allen of New York, sent by DeKay from Mazatlan to La Paz, on the ground that they had no papers coming from that place, which is not a port of entry, and DeKay's party have arrived at San Diego.

This afternoon about half past three there was an intense excitement for several minutes over a report that Judge Lake of the municipal court had shot and killed Charles DeYoung of the Chronicle on Montgomery Street, and that Judge E. D. Wheeler, who passed, had been mortally wounded. There are numerous versions of the affair, but the most prevalent is that the two met on the sidewalk and had high words on account of articles attacking the judge recently published in the Chronicle, when Lake struck De Young with a pistol on the side of his head, inflicting a somewhat severe flesh wound, one chamber of the pistol being discharged and a bullet passing through the thigh of Judge Wheeler, inflicting a somewhat severe but not dangerous wound. Lake claimed that DeYoung attempted to draw his pistol when he drew his and struck him as stated. He was instantly arrested by officers who were near at the moment, and taken to Judge Penny's office, where he gave bail to appear and answer a charge of assault with attempt to murder. DeYoung's friends claim that his wound came from a bullet and not a blow with the butt of the pistol, as stated. Some of the bystanders thought they heard two shots, but the pistol had only one chamber discharged.

EUROPEAN DISPATCHES.

U. S. Funded Loan—Earl of Chesterfield Dead—Cholera in Delhi—German Execution.

LONDON, 1.—The final settlement of the U. S. funded loan was made to-day without disturbing the money markets, the bonds closing higher than ever before, advancing to 90¼ gold. At the opening of the boards to-day there was $20,000,000 taken; and of this the taking of nearly $15,000,000 was arranged in London, leaving less than $6,000,000 undisposed of, with the continent to hear from; and there is no doubt that the whole loan in the European markets will be taken.

The death of earl Chesterfield intensifies the anxiety for the Prince of Wales. The public uneasiness is so great as to have a perceptible effect on the markets, which are generally dull and flat to-day. The Queen has returned to Winsor from Sandringham, where she has been watching the bedside of the Prince.

Bombay, 1.—Cholera in the worst form is raging with great violence in the City of Delhi.

Berlin, 1—The German parliament closed its session to-day. The German military authorities at Epernay executed two Frenchmen who killed a German sentinel.

THE MORMONS.

Much is said and written at the present time in reference to the Mormons, their system of morals and religion. The government interference in some respects is well enough, but the men who are enforcing the laws in that Territory are not of much credit to this Government. If the system of polygamy is unlawful and cannot be sustained by the word of God, then let it go under, but in putting it under let it be done in accordance with the principles of justice. * *

That the Mormons are greatly misrepresented, and in many instances persecuted, are facts well known to unprejudiced persons who are well acquainted with the state of affairs in that Territory. Even ministers of the gospel have lately written of the Mormons as "being universally not only as polygamous, but as murderers, as the old fighting patriarchs—as so many Ishmaels and outlaws, vicious, depraved, disorderly, sensual, devilish."

Grace Greenwood in a late correspondence from Salt Lake City, says:

"Now, from all I have been able to observe, and from all I hear from intelligent Gentiles, long residents here, I am convinced that the Mormon people generally are remarkably quiet, orderly, sober and industrious—strongly and especially addicted to minding their own business. However much the leaders may be given to proselyting, the common people never intrude their peculiar tenets and ideas upon you; but if you inquire concerning them, they will plainly and seriously answer your questions, and in most cases, while struck by the absurdity or revolted by the moral obliquity of those ideas, you are convinced of the absolute sincerity of the simple hearted expounders."—West Jersey Pioneer.
