WEATHER ITEM. — The highest point reached by the thermometer to-day was 90.

A GRAND COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT.—Those highly accomplished vocalists, the Hyers Sisters, have, we understand, been tendered a complimentary benefit by a number of the leading citizens as a mark of appreciation of their abilities. Thursday night is the time set for the affair to come off, and it promises to be of the most attractive character, and will no doubt draw a full house. In addition to a very choice vocal programme, the celebrated banjoist, Dick Brown, will perform several of his inimitable solos; and in addition to all this the dramatic company will perform the play of "Robert Macaire, or the Two Murderers," in which Mr. Coggeshall will personate the audacious "Robert," and Mr. C. L. Graves, the well known California Manager, has kindly volunteered to appear on this occasion as "Jaques Strop." Such a combination of talent and attractions is seldom to be met with in one night's entertainment, and nothing short of a crowded house can show appreciation commensurate with the excellence of the bill of fare provided.

ON THE MARCH.—Our city authorities seem fully imbued with the spirit of public improvement. This morning, one of the most elegant gas-burning chandeliers we have ever seen was put up in the avenue of City Hall. This unique piece of mechanism consists of three lights on a common plane, ornamented with ground glass globes, below and in the centre of which a brilliant "meteor," mellowed with porcelain shade, casts its effulgent light to the floor. The effect of the centre drop-light is to throw the light downwards. The rays are thus brilliantly dispersed in every direction. It is a recent patent, the first of the kind brought west of the Mississippi, and was imported and put up by Messrs. Taylor & Co., Portable Gas dealers.

FORT HAMBLIN.—Jacob M. Truman, writing from Fort Hamblin, says: "This is the driest summer we have ever had and there has been more sickness here this season than in any previous one. The "hoppers" have taken more than half our crops."

WILLIAM DAVIDSON, formerly of Lanarkshire, Scotland, and lately residing at Heber City, Wasatch County, Utah, N. America, having an interest in the succession of his brother, the late John Davidson, Coalmaster, Baljaffray, East Kilpatrick, Lanarkshire, is requested to communicate without delay with Robert M'Cowan, accountant, 87 Saint Vincent Street, Glasgow.

The above notice was published recently in the Glasgow (Scotland) Weekly Mail, and thinking that the information it imparts may not have reached the party for whom it was intended, we publish it, for his benefit, in the News.

AN OLDER SETTLER GONE.—The following telegram was received by Deseret Telegraph line, this morning:

Editor Evening News:—Died at 20 minutes past eight, last evening, of chronic dyspepsia, Elder Edward Ockey, aged 55 years. He was one of the first settlers of Utah, and a much respected citizen of Nephi. His funeral takes place at 3 p.m. today. S. P.

MORONI.—Brother John Kirkman, of Moroni, Sanpete county, called yesterday. He reports that the crops there are so heavy that great difficulty is being felt in harvesting them, the amount of hired help to be obtained being quite insufficient. The people, however, are far from being disposed to grumble at this inconvenience, a surplus of the earth's bounties being so much more desirable than a surplus of labor.

The co-operative store is doing a better business now than for some time previous. A dividend of ten per cent., for six months, was lately declared.

It is a general time of prosperity throughout the entire County of Sanpete.

The members of the Female Relief Society of Moroni employ their spare time in manufacturing cloth, wearing apparel, &c.

Nothing can prevent a community from living, increasing and prospering whose members, of both sexes, are industrious and preserving, not only for the individual benefits arising from that course, but also for the general good of the whole, and where there are but few if any of the really poor and those few are carefully looked after. This is not only the case at Moroni, but, we believe, with every settlement in the Territory.

Election Returns.

MANTI, 14.

Sanpete County returns.—Commissioners to Locate University Lands, Lewis S. Hills, received 1769 votes; John Van Cott, 1768; John Rowberry, 1767.

HARPER'S MONTHLY," for September, is for sale at Dwyer's News Depot, East Temple St.; and those who wish to purchase it had better apply early.

CLOVER VALLEY, NEVADA,
August 7th, 1870.

Editor Deseret News:—Dear Brother:—Thinking that perhaps you would like to hear from this place, I take pleasure in penning you a few lines.

This is a small settlement, consisting of some twelve or fifteen families, mostly Saints. We are somewhat isolated, being remote from other settlements and not having the advantage of direct telegraph and mail communication. We have of late, however, had a weekly mail, which brings us your welcome papers, NEWS and JUVENILE INSTRUCTOR.

Our grain crops are a failure on account of the ravages of the grasshoppers, and our hay crop will also be small. Notwithstanding this we are in a thriving condition, and improvements are going ahead spiritedly.

We have a Sabbath school, which is well attended by our juveniles, and a day school which is also well patronized.

The health of the settlement is generally good at present. We have had some sickness during the hot weather, but all is fair at present.

Yours respectfully,
HENRY A. CHAPPIN.

SHARP AFTER "LOTTA."—"Lotta," the actress, whose engagement at the Salt Lake Theatre, will be remembered by many of our citizens, commenced an engagement, last night at Booth's Theatre, New York, her opening piece being "Little Nell." That sterling art and dramatic critic, the New York Sensen, in an article headed "Lotta," speaks of her engagement and style of performance, in the following truthful, but not very complimentary style:

"This lively female banjoist in a white face will appear at Booth's Theater on Monday, August 14, as Little Nell, in a dramatization of Dickens' creation, the "Marchioness." To say that the poor little thing has not the faintest idea of what either character means, is but to repeat what every reader of Dickens who has seen her knows. The Marchioness playing a banjo and dancing a clog dance, or having any clogs at at all, is sufficient to show how little notion poor Lotta has of the true spirit of Dickens' humor. Her performance of Little Nell I would have given much from little never to have seen. Between my mind's eye and that angel-child—softest and most heavenly creation of Dicken's imagination, in its most blessed mood—stands that little banjoist, throwing her hard, vulgar shadows over the patient eyes, and darkening the glories of the aureola that played around Nell's glorious head. Do what I may, the girl with the clogs on her feet, and the clogs in her voice, will not be driven away. Is there nothing in literature whose beauty is sufficiently holy to preserve it from such sacrilege?"

NEW REFORM.—The introduction of Soda Water and Sarsaparilla, by Day & Co., has done more in the way of a Temperance Reform than all the lectures that have been delivered in the country. The natural condition of man is a thirsty one, and it has long been an established fact that water will not quench thirst. The question then arises, can we find a substitute as harmless in its effects, and more delicious in taste than anything yet discovered? We find it in Day & Co.'s Soda and Sarsparilla. If every one would sign the Pledge and drink nothing but this Celebrated Beverage, much degradation, misery, shame and crime would be prevented in the world. If any one doubts the truth of our remarks let them step into the first place they come to and try it. It will vouch for itself. en(170)tf
