NEWS OF THE WEST.

Attempted Assassination of a Wealthy Resident of Albuquerque, N. M.

DEATH FROM A BROKEN HEART.

The Weather and the Fruit Crops—Entanglement of Lovers.—Sheep Industry, Etc.

Machinery has been put in the Fort Lyon, Colo., cemetery for the manufacture of stones.

The Panguitch Gazette says last week's weather was about as bad on Aldous river as—cheesy, with high, cold winds.

A mineral spring recently discovered about two miles from Palmer Lake, Colo., is attracting a good deal of attention from citizens of that place.

The mayor and aldermen of Fort Collins, Colo., have refused all very salaries, including their own, and allowed a saving in the payroll of $900 per annum.

The squirrel pest is so destructive in the northern part of Mesa county, Ut., that farmers are paying a bounty on their scalps, in addition to the 5 cents bounty given by the county.

George B. Mulligan of Hazelburg, Colo., has died in Oak Flat and a broken heart. Mulligan took competition too to open his safe and robbed him of $2,500 in county funds.

There is an Indian in the Idaho penitentiary who refuses to leave, although his sentence has expired. He is wedded to a month's retention in his term for wealth, but he will not accept.

Everything is said to be promising in western Texas. The country around Fort Worth has had the biggest rain in four years. The people are greatly encouraged, and agricultural operations of all kinds will be pushed.

Two practical creamery men have offered to erect a creamery at Julesburg, Colo., the plant to cost $5,000, for a bonus of $500. A canvass of the surrounding country has been made and it is found that at least 1,000 cows are tributary to the town.

The Dulce Lobster states that A. C. Bailey, of Rogers's Mesa, has a fine young orchard in Dillon cover, consisting of 250 apple, 400 peach, 50 apricot, 40 cherry, 40 plum, 25 quince and 10 quince trees besides a large quantity of small fruit.

Hay not taken from the Saratoga valley of Wyoming are fringing good prices in Omaha. The cars have that nearly a thousand of hay feet of cows been shipped from this valley since January 1, 1894, and there are a large number being cut that will be shipped between now and May 1st.

Active preparations for farming are going on in eastern Boot county, Colo. Among other others farmers are preparing to use their alfalfa fields into a summer pasture for sheep. The raising of hogs is also attracting attention, and next summer the farmers will have something to sell.

F. V. Drake died at his ranch on the Cockatoo of Halsey of a complication of diseases, says the Halley (Idaho) Times. Mr. Drake was a pioneer of Fremont county, having come to California over forty years ago. He place [illegible] on the Feather river, removed and [illegible] to Honey Lake Valley, and resided in Nevada, before coming to Idaho.

The Alamosa Independent Journal notes the demand among San Luis valley farmers for peas for seed, which shows that they are beginning to realize the full value for feeding purposes, whether for hogs, cattle or dairy cows. Even as home feed mixed with oats or barley they are excellent. They are a hardy crop, yield well and enrich the soil.

The Hydraulic power plant at Eddy, N. M., is nearly completed. It includes with four turbine wheels of 60-horse power each, and each capable of operating duplex pumps; the plant will operate also an electric light plant, the manufactory, waterworks pumps and monumental establishment; the reservoir holds by the dam holds 50,000,000 cubic feet of water.

Says the Austin, Nevada, Reveille: There is more inquiry for sheep by buyers who are in or who contemplate going into that business, than there has been for several years. It is the only industry that the contraction of the currency has not stripped in this state. Although the price of wool has been falling for years, the wool-growers are about the only ones engaged in our varied industries who have withstood the financial depression.

The apples and pears grown in Pilatch, Pahsimeroi, Craig Mountain and Camas Prairie districts have qualities that make them very desirable, remarks the Lewiston (Idaho) Tribune. They are firm, high colored and richly flavored, and their keeping qualities have surprised all judges who have examined them. Under proper conditions such apples could be marketed either in California or in the East with a nice profit to the grower.

The Ladies Co-operative Aid society, an outgrowth from an auxiliary of the People's party in Oakland, Cal., has undertaken a practical plan of providing for the homeless who are compelled to sleep out and take the chance of being vagged or apply to the city prison for lodgings. The association has undertaken to raise $200 with which to furnish a home, and has secured a lease of a house centrally located, which will be fitted up for the purpose of a temporary shelter.

A Wyoming sheep herder has reported having seen a bull buffalo, accompanied by three cows, near Mud lake, northwest of the big bend of the Sweetwater. They looked very lean and were scrubby and undersized. There is a large herd on the Red Desert, usually not known to exist outside of private herds and the Yellowstone National park, but the Rawlins Journal says the report throws no new length of men, even a sheepherder's camp.

On Tuesday morning an attempted assassination upon the life of Vicente Padilla was made at his home, south of Albuquerque, N. M. Some party or parties called at the front window of his residence while he and his wife were asleep and fired two shots at him, one bullet striking the bed and the other tearing itself in the wall. Mr. Padilla jumped out of bed and, with pistol in hand, started for the door, when the assassin fled through the door, the ball passing through the left side of the gentleman, who is the night watchman, escaped. Mr. Padilla is said to have kept enemies to money and to [illegible] grievous.

The snow is going very slowly, says the Laramie Wyoming Boomerang. The ranges will be well filled with water, and it is believed that feeding to all parts of the state will be exceptionally low during the coming season. The stock losses were heavy not in the northern part of the state, but they expect a large number of cattle will be driven into the southern during the coming season on account of good grazing. About a foot now lies during the report cattle in the northern part of North Park, but only a few inches lay in the south part. The season is the part at the present time is five weeks in advance of last year.

Edwin Bailey, a Denver boy, aged 27 has been arrested "on a very serious offense," jocularly observed the Denver Post. A maiden named Jessie O'Neil, whose age is not stated, says that before week in January he, but so he says his hair is the middle, she refuses to have anything to do with him. The since Jessie felt sad and he mysteriously found explosion. He threw a rock through his sweetheart's window. This capped the climax, for Jessie saw not a warrant charging him with malicious mischief. As an effect Barlow proposes to charge the parents Jessie with having broken his heart.

BACK VOLUMES
—OF THE—
DESERET WEEKLY.

The sixth volume of the DESERET WEEKLY in the present form is now bound. A limited number of copies of these six volumes can be obtained at the DESERET NEWS office, Salt Lake City, in bound form at $5.00 per volume. It is the best history of current events to be obtained, and by far the cheapest, and the time is not far distant when they will be eagerly sought after by students of history, anxious to be informed of the stirring events which have transpired within the past three years—the most important period of the history of the Latter-day Saints. Every person who can afford it should secure these volumes while they are to be had for future reference, and especially should they be obtained for every Sunday School, Improvement Association and Ward library. Apply early to make sure of getting them.

Highest Award
FOR
Supreme Excellence,
TO THE PUTNAM
HOT FORGED AND HAMMER POINTED DOUBLE NAILS.
At the World's Columbian Exposition of Chicago. A medal and diploma awarded "Supreme excellence in material, method in manufacture, and quality of finished product; elasticity and smoothness combined with holding power in clinch. It allows the use of very small nails."
There is nothing lighted against excellence but it does nothing compared to a horse and except the material from which it is made, "the method of manufacture" and "quality of finished product" remain. Nails, if they [illegible] are going to be repaired and [illegible] the [illegible] "manufacture" do not [illegible] "holding power in the clinch" nailers have to hold the shoe in the correct position and stay there.
By the time of their entry large nails are worn and nearly gone to the hoofs.
There is not the same [illegible] in the Putnam. Experience proves it and [illegible] the "Putnam" outwears most nails.
