EASTERN.

The Evangelical Alliance.

NEW YORK, 5.—At the afternoon session of the Evangelical Alliance, Bishop Bedell, of Ohio, delivered a eulogy on the late Bishop McIlvain. He also spoke on the subject of Protestant unity, combatting the idea often advanced against Protestantism, that its division into sects destroys its unity, and arguing that sectarian divisions were not essential, while at the same time there were sects in the Catholic church, contending more fiercely than the Protestants ever did. Rev Dr. Cook, of Paris, spoke in support of Bishop Bedell's views, and praised the result of the Evangelical Alliance in France. Rev. Conrad, of Philadelphia, spoke in favor of the interchange of pulpits, by Evangelical ministers. The conference will terminate to-morrow week. Two meetings will be held to-morrow, one in the Academy of Music, one in Steinway Hall. On Monday the conference divided into two sections, theological and philosophical. The exercises at Association Hall on Monday evening will be conducted in the French language, and on Wednesday there will be services in the Welsh language. On Tuesday afternoon there will be service in Madison Square Church, for the faculty and students of the different denominations attending the conference. On Wednesday next, Brooklyn will formally receive the delegates and, in the evening, a dinner will be given them in the Academy of Music. The Alliance have accepted an invitation to visit Washington on the 14th instant, and will hold public meetings at the Metropolitan church on the 14th and 15th, to which President Grant and the members of the cabinet have been invited to attend. Early to-day the announcement was made that some aldermen had refused to sign a call for a special meeting on Monday to vote the hospitalities of the city to the Evangelical Alliance, but the requisite number of signatures was obtained by three o'clock.

Views of the Reverend.

There was an immense audience in the Academy of music this evening at the meeting of the Evangelical Alliance, many were unable to obtain admittance. Felix R. Brunot presided. The Dean of Canterbury conducted the devotional services, and made a prayer for the removal of the differences that have made the Protestant name a by word, for the breaking down of every wall of seperation that has kept these apart who belong to one church. Mr. Brunot said the grand assemblage of Christians of every clime present was prompted by a still grander millennial idea, and he expected when they departed they would carry away a stronger resolution to fight as soldiers of Christ. Rev. Robert Kuox, of Belfast, Ireland, was the first speaker. He struck the key note by an eloquent appeal to abide in Christ. Rev. Nanayan Schechedral of Bombay gave the account of a project for founding a Christian colony in Bombay, the president of an Evangelical conference to be held at Allahabad, of ministers from all parts of the world, and of the founding of native Christian alliances in India. Rev. Dr. Conlin, of Geneva, delivered an address in French, on the relation of Christianity and modern progress. Rev. W. S. Stephenson, of Dublin, said he represented the least of lands, yet one destined, it seemed, to play an important part. After adverting to the streams of emigrants which that land is sending forth to raise, it might be a perplexing problem in other lands, he said, "In your great land, identified for good or ill, with my own, the truest way to help yourself and us, and to seek the solution of these problems in our land, is to send out streams for the healing of the nations instead of for their strife. You will remember us in our lonely struggle, in which we never yield, though we sometimes falter, and in which we will succeed in God's name. We ask a place in your hearts and in your prayers to Jesus Christ. I give you greeting from the Christians of Ireland." Rev. P. Larroaux, of Paris, spoke of the diffusion of evangelical principles in France. Rev. Dr. Bigg, of London, spoke of the meeting of this evening as the most wonderful Evangelical Alliance gathering ever known, and yet it was but a feeble index of the concentrated attention bent upon this spot by millions on both continents.

Father O'Keaffe.

The Dublin Evening Post, Sept. 20, has the following:

"Father O'Keaffe, on Saturday last, went freely to Kilkenny, and sought an interview with his bishop, and fully and unreservedly tendered his submission to the episcopal jurisdiction."

Indicted.

The grand jury of Brooklyn to-day indicted Coreland Sprague, ex city treasurer, and M. F. Rodman, his deputy, for embezzlement. The jury stated after a careful examination that only about five were concerned in the frauds.

Kate Stoddard was indicted for the murder of Goodrich.

Lie in State.

BOSTON, 5.—The remains of the Rt. Rev. Geo. M. Randall, bishop of California, arrived to-day, and will lie in state in St. Paul's church till the funeral on Tuesday.

Injured by Fire.

DETROIT, 5.—The tobacco factory of Barker & Co. was injured fifteen thousand by fire to-day.

A Fire.

NEW YORK, 5.—Epley's oil cloth factory, Newark, was burned last night, loss 60,000.

More About Half's Death.

The Herald has a letter from Dundee, Scotland, stating that an important statement relative to the death of Captain Hall of the Polaris has been made by the second mate Morton, and given to the U. S. Consul there, and forwarded to the American government. Morton was Hall's attendant in his last illness, and he gives statements, so says the Herald correspondent, implicating Dr. Russell in the death of Hall. He also intimates that Buddington connives with Morton's statement.

French Republic Tottering.

A special to the World, dated London, 5, says—"Thiers has given consent to the proposed alliance between the Republicans and Impartialists, as the only means of preventing the project for the restoration of monarchy with the Count de Chambord as Henry V. preventing new accessions to its ranks, overthrowing the chances I so far am in favor of the Monarchists, who have a majority in the Assembly. The entire army has abundance of money with which they have been bribing; weak and ambitious politicians have also been bribed. Mr. Rouher has been promised a baronetcy immediately after the restoration, which may now be considered sure to come about soon after the Assembly convenes. That Thiers should have consented at last to the alliance with the Impartialists is regarded as evidence of the rapid strides which the monarchial cause has been making, and the urgent necessity for imperial measures to preserve the now tottering Republic."

Deliberate Murder.

LEXINGTON, K., 5.—The preliminary trial of Montgomery Parker, the farmer, who murdered the boy Mills, Sept. 27, in this county, was commenced yesterday; twelve or fifteen witnesses were examined, and it was clearly proved that the case was one of deliberate murder.

Goes Into Liquidation.

NEW ORLEANS, 5.—The New Orleans National Banking Association, C. Cavaroc president, in accordance with a resolution of the board of directors held last evening, goes into liquidation, and will be placed in the hands of a receiver.

Affairs of Jay Cooke & Co.

PHILADELPHIA, 5.—Jay Cooke & Co., have completed their detailed statement of assets and liabilities, and in connection therewith have prepared a form of agreement for settlement, to be presented to their creditors for consideration. The main features of the agreement are as follows—The members of the firm surrender all their partnership and individual property to a trustee. E. A. Rollins, late U. S. commissioner of internal revenue, will have the management of the estate, thus saving cost and expenses. Dividends will be made whenever the trustee has the cash in hand sufficient to be divided, commencing soon after the agreement is approved by the creditors. The settlement may be made under a restriction which will guard perfectly the interests of the general body of the creditors. The creditors surrender no rights they now possess, but merely accept the advantages of the trust created for their benefit, and debtors can gain nothing except the surplus which they have to secure by an economical and judicious winding up of their estate. Full powers are given to the trustee, but he is to act under the control of the committee representing the creditors, consisting of M. Felton, late president of the Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore railroad; Wm. C. Houston, and Delle Neblet, Jr., president of the Corn Exchange, Bank of Philadelphia. Negotiable certificates of interest of any creditor in trust will be given by the trustee after all the debts are paid in full. It is understood that the firm do not propose to call a general meeting of their creditors, as they have been doing business in three different cities, and their creditors are so scattered as to render such a meeting impracticable, they have, however, addressed a letter to each creditor, so far as known, submitting their proposition. Any creditor failing to receive such a notification can examine the papers at the office of the firm in Philadelphia, New York or Washington.

CANADA.

Joseph Arch.

TORONTO, 4.—Joseph Arch is visiting the Muskoka District. On his return here he will go the United States.

Change of Guage.

The change of guage on the Grand Trunk was completed to-day over the entire line. The International bridge at Buffalo will be completed on the 28th.

Fired on by the Carlists.

SAINT ANDRE, 5.—The yacht Esther, with the owner Mr. Ashbury on board, has arrived here. Ashbury reports that while in Port Bilboa the Carlists fired on his vessel, which narrowly escaped destruction.
