THE TAYLOR CASE.

Rev. J. H. Young Returns from Denver. The Whole Affair is Still Shrouded in Mystery.

The Rev. J. H. Young of Plain City, who volunteered to go east to try and ascertain the whereabouts of J. Henry Taylor, returned last evening, unaccompanied by the object of his search. A number of people were at the depot to meet the train, among whom were members of the Taylor family. The reverend gentleman on stepping from the train was questioned on all sides regarding Taylor. His answers were well guarded and calculated to still further mystify things. He had not seen Taylor, he said, in person, but knew he was in Denver, Taylor, he claims, had broken down and confessed everything to a detective. Mr. Young succeeded in getting into the detective's confidence and obtained, according to his own words, "all the facts in the case," none of which, he said, were intended for publication. It was also learned that Taylor fired the shots heard in the canyon on the night of his disappearance. Family and financial troubles were given as the reasons why he went away. Taylor is stated to be in Wyoming miles out of Denver. Mr. Young wrote him and received a reply in the man's own handwriting. Asked regarding the rumor of a woman supposed to be mixed up in the matter, the Rev. gentleman said he did not believe a word of it. The fact remains, however, that a letter was received by a certain lady from Taylor on the 19th inst. The same night one left for the East, stating that she was leaving on a visit to friends in the East.

JUDGE MINER'S DAY.

His Honor's Order in Reference to the New Term of Court.

In the Fourth district court yesterday the street railway case came up and was practically disposed of. The motion for a restraining order was withdrawn, but the damage suit for $10,000 was allowed to stand and a further continuance taken. The hearing of the case of M. C. Mentesch et al vs the Southern Pacific company was taken up. The matter involves part of the township of Box Elder county, Box Elder county, on an order to show cause why a restraining order should not be issued preventing defendant from taking possession of the land in dispute under the verdict rendered in the case of the Southern Pacific company vs Andrew Godfrey et al, which was recently decided in the railroad company's favor. After testimony had been heard the court took the matter under advisement. In the afternoon Judge Miner issued the following order:

The governor of this Territory having ordered and appointed a term of court to be held at Logan city, Cache county, in the Fourth judicial district of this Territory, on the first Monday of September, 1893.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of such order and proclamation, it is ordered that a term of this court will be held at Logan city, Utah, on the first Monday of September, 1893, and it appearing to the court that no suitable court room, jury rooms, judge's chambers and clerk's office for holding district court at Logan city, have been provided,

It is therefore ordered that the sheriff of Cache county, Utah Territory, provide suitable rooms, for a court room, jury room, clerk's office, also furniture, fuel, lights and stationery sufficient for the transaction of business at such courtat the expense of the Territory of Utah, under section 3093 of the Compiled Laws of 1888, and in accordance with the law in such case provided.

JAMES A. MINER, Judge.

Police Court Items.

The case of Henry Allen, charged with having forged the name of George Coleson, and thus obtaining possession of $25, came up in Justice Cannon's court yesterday. At the request of defendant the trial of the case was referred to Commissioner Bishop, who refuses to try it, stating that it came under the jurisdiction of the police court. A jury will be tried before the police judge today.

Leo Brosklinski was arrested this morning on the charge of drunkenness, and was assessed $5.

Notes and Personals.

The city council held a special meeting last evening. All the members were present. The meeting was devoted to the discussion of financial matters. The majority of the members were decidedly in favor of decreasing rather than increasing the taxes for this year. Another meeting will be held on Friday night.

President Patton of the chamber of commerce appointed the following gentlemen to visit Reno, Nevada, on the Fourth of July: A. H. Heywood, R. W. Knapp, O. H. Leonard and J. H. McMillan.

In the probate court yesterday the matter of the estate of Tyrne W. Hurd, deceased, a hearing was given on final account of administrator and a decree of distribution entered.

Councilman A. J. Warner, who has for the past month been in the East, returned yesterday and was in attendance at last night's council meeting.

A Chicago glove manufacturer has made a proposition to the secretary of the chamber of Commerce to remove his factory to Ogden and will invest $25,000 in the enterprise.

The machinery for the new sash factory located on First street has arrived, and various brands of sash will be turned out within the next few days.

Elder F. M. Lyman came up this morning to meet his son and daughter, Richard R. and Lucy S., who today returned from the East. Mr. Lyman comes up on a vacation from Ann Arbor. He has been quite successful in his studies, having been honored with the position of president of the sophomore class. He has also just completed a second course as civil engineer. Miss Lyman has been sent for the treatment of her eyesight.

PROVO, UTAH, - JUNE 29, 1893.

COURT MATTERS.

The New Foundry Receiver Has Been Authorized to Commence Suit.

R. Brereton, receiver of the Sun Foundry & Machine Co., filed his report in the First district court yesterday. The company was incorporated, he reported, in 1890, with a capital stock of $250,000, divided into 25,000 shares at $10 each. Shares monitoring 1,665 were issued and no cash received, and 1,329 shares were sold and 50 per cent realized, making 22,290 worth of stock issued for which the cash was not forthcoming.

The receiver was authorized to commence suit against all delinquent stockholders. These and the numbers of shares of stock owned by them, are as follows:

Mandrake Pills have a value as a household remedy far beyond the power of language to describe. The family can hardly be true to itself that does not keep them on hand for use in emergencies.

MANDRAKE

is the only vegetable substitute for that dangerous mineral, Mercury, as, unlike its action as a cathartic is fully equal, it possesses none of its perilous effects.

In Constipation, Mandrake acts upon the bowels without disposing them to subsequent costiveness.

No remedy acts so directly on the liver, nothing so speedily cures Sick Headache, Jaundice, Sick Stomach and Biliousness as these
