In Social Realms

An interesting event of next week will be the visit of Mrs. Adeline Frances Fitz, president-general of the national society, Daughters of the Revolution, who arrives on Thursday for a stay of three or four days. She will be the guest during her stay of Mrs. M. Y. Dougall on north State street, and will be guest of honor at a number of social affairs planned in her honor. On Thursday evening a large reception will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philo T. Farnsworth. On Friday morning there will be a visit to the studios, after which Mrs. Fitz speaks at the university chapel and a luncheon will follow at the University of Utah lunch room. In the afternoon there will be a trip to Saltair, followed by a dinner at the Lion House for members of the society. On Saturday an organ recital will be given at noon by Prof. J. J. McClellan at the tabernacle, after which Mrs. Fitz will be guest of honor at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. T. G. Webber, the guests to be chiefly the state officers, and later at a box party at the Salt Lake theater.

* * *

The Misses Edna and Lena Mickel entertained at a Hallowe'en party on Monday, the usual features being in evidence and the guests numbering Misses Lillian Hansen, Olga Huebler, Effie Hennefer, Emma Evenson, Hazel Rhodes, Clara Holmquist, Ermina Mickel, Mrs. Naomi Holmes and the Messrs. Nels Hansen, Martin Wiseman, Herbert Lang, Edmund Sperry, Thomas Cornel, Edwin Evenson, Edward Steadman, W. Pence and Frank Mickel.

* * *

Mrs. A. F. Wey and Mrs. Vaughn Paul were hostesses on Tuesday afternoon at a large bridge tea, about 16 tables being played and about 25 guests coming in later to tea. The rooms were decorated in pink and white chrysanthemums, and assisting were Mrs. E. A. Wall and Mrs. J. A. DeBouzek.

* * *

Mrs. W. A. Cavanaugh entertained the Post Bridge club this week, the prizes going to Mrs. Guy Bucker and Mrs. Clark Elliott.

* * *

Mrs. E. A. Wall will be hostess at a theater party this afternoon, given in honor of Mrs. William Owsley of Montana.

* * *

Miss Esther Allen entertained at an informal card party on Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sands, six tables being played and the hostess being assisted by Mrs. A. J. Graham.

* * *

Mrs. Clark Elliott entertained at a luncheon at the Wilson hotel on Monday in honor of Mrs. R. P. Rifenberick, Jr., the decorations being in pink and white carnations and covers laid for about a half dozen guests.

* * *

The American Music society held its first meeting for the season at the home of Mrs. Charles Plummer Wednesday night. The program was made up of selections from the late Dudley Buck's compositions, those participating in the program being Hugh Dougall, Mrs. Mont Ferry, Miss Pearl Rothschild, Miss Sybella Clayton, Miss Edna Cohn, Miss Loreen Leary, Miss Minette Baer and Mrs. S. O. Nelden.

* * *

The vaudeville performance to be given by prominent society people at Whitney hall on Nov. 19 for the free kindergarten will include many novel and interesting features, among them living pictures representing well known plays. About 45 will take part in the entertainment which promises some entirely original "stunts." The patronesses for the free kindergarten entertainment are: Mrs. G. Y. Wallace, Mrs. Karl Scheid, Mrs. Russell Coe Woodruff, Mrs. Russell Schulder, Mrs. Wm. Jennings, Mrs. Wm. Iglehart, Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mrs. D. C. Jackling, Mrs. Jonathan Royle, Mrs. C. R. Pearsall, Mrs. Sarah Boggs, Mrs. Edward S. Ferry, Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mrs. W. Mont Ferry, Mrs. Arthur Bird, Mrs. L. B. McCornick, Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. E. O. Howard, Mrs. John Weir, Mrs. E. A. Wall, Mrs. Jake Bamberger. The kindergarten board consists of Mrs. C. E. Richards, president; Mrs. J. M. Dart, Mrs. Elmer B. Jones, Mrs. E. V. Silver, Mrs. J. K. Hardy, Miss Fox, Mrs. H. P. Henderson, Mrs. E. A. Wedgewood, Mrs. Sol Siegle, Mrs. Simon Bamberger, Mrs. E. O. Lee, Miss Franke, Mrs. G. W. Moyer, Mrs. L. E. Hall, Mrs. M. L. Ritchie, Mrs. Charles W. Watson, assisted by Mrs. Martha Royle King.

* * *

Mrs. Olive Gaylord entertained the members of the Utopia club at a luncheon on Thursday, the table being decorated in yellow chrysanthemums and ferns, and covers laid for 18 guests. In the bridge games played after the luncheon the prizes were awarded to Mrs. J. C. Hatchett, Mrs. E. A. Wedgwood, Mrs. Mathew Cullen and Mrs. M. B. Stanley. Mrs. F. D. Woodruff will entertain the club at its next meeting, to be held Wednesday, Nov. 17.

* * *

Mrs. R. H. Peale entertained at a luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Glochner, the decorations being in yellow chrysanthemums and a bridge game following in which the prize went to Mrs. C. E. Fuller.

* * *

Mrs. C. A. Quigley entertained the Crystal club on Wednesday, the rooms being decorated with a profusion of carnations and ferns in crystal baskets, different colors being used on each table. Mrs. Quigley was assisted in serving by Miss Emma Quigley and Miss Elise Yates. The bridge prize was awarded to Mrs. M. J. Dailey. The guests present were Mrs. Frank Bird, Mrs. M. J. Dailey, Mrs. D. J. Gallivan, Miss Kate Halloran, Mrs. Ned Hewett, Mrs. R. C. Hil, Mrs. Thomas Kearns, Mrs. James Langton, Mrs. J. C. Lynch, Mrs. E. O. Mecklenburg, Mrs. W. W. Hives, Mrs. W. R. Snyder, Mrs. Ezra Thompson, Mrs. Bismarck Snyder, Miss Frances O'Meara, Mrs. Frank J. Westcott, Mrs. Vaughn Paul, Miss Marie Gibbons, Mrs. Claude Williams, Miss Charlotte Holmes and Mrs. W. D. Foster.

* * *

Mrs. Allen T. Sanford has been hostess this week at delightful wedding teas, the rooms being decorated in chrysanthemums and the bridge prizes were won by Mrs. C. H. McMahon, Mrs. B. A. McMillan, Mrs. J. A. Earls and Mrs. S. O. S. Nelden, Mrs. A. L. Hoppaugh, Mrs. J. A. Earls, Mrs. W. G. Tuttle, Mrs. O. K. Lewis.

* * *

Mrs. L. B. McCornick gave an Orpheum party on Tuesday night in honor of Miss Genevieve McCornick and Walker Salisbury, whose marriage takes place this month.

* * *

Mrs. David Crane entertained at a tea on Wednesday at her home, the time being spent with games and a sewing contest in which prizes were won by Mrs. C. C. Countryman.

* * *

A bridge tea will be given next Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. W. H. McIntyre and her daughter, Mrs. Fred Dern, at the McIntyre home in Seventh avenue.

* * *

Mrs. W. H. Weyher will entertain the members of the Thursday Luncheon club at its meeting Thursday, Nov. 11.

* * *

A dancing party will be given by Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Snow and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Daynes at Whitney hall Friday evening, Nov. 12. About 125 guests will be present.

* * *

Mrs. J. A. Reeves will be hostess at a series of bridge teas to be given Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 11, 12 and 13.

* * *

Mrs. James Ingebretsen entertained the Monday afternoon club this week, the table having a centerpiece of yellow and white chrysanthemums and the prize going to Mrs. W. H. Dee.

* * *

Miss Vera Stevenson was hostess at a Hallowe'en party on Monday evening, a color scheme of red, black and yellow being carried out with a lace spread over red satin, a lighted pumpkin-head for a centerpiece and streamers of black and yellow ribbons extending from it to the places. Covers were laid for the Misses Inez and Vergil Stevenson, Becky Almond, Helene Gleason, Bessie Ritley, Bessie Bailey, Margaret Winter, Clara Black, Ethel Dunbar, May O'Donnell, Anna Buller, Vera Davis, Della Stevenson, Gertrude Almond and Hazel Taveens, three of whom assisted, and L. Lawson, H. Warner, R. Pitt, E. Christensen, J. Arnold, E. Hardy and F. Gorman.

* * *

One of the Hallowe'en parties of last week was that at which Miss Lucille Hatch was hostess, given at her home in north First West street, by the T. O. N. O. club. The house was prettily decorated in Japanese effect, the parlor being carried out in yellow, and Japanese lanterns and autumn leaves attractively arranged. In the dining room the table piece was of Cluny lace over red satin, a large pumpkin basket filled with fruit forming the center piece with a Japanese parasol suspended from the chandelier with red crepe streamers to the various corners of the room. The living room was carried in yelolw and black. Supper was served in the basement, it being decorated in Hallowe'en style, with pumpkins, corn stalks and autumn leaves. Cider and peanuts were served in a moonlight corner of the basement. There were about 40 guests present, the costumes being in Japanese.

MISS GREHTA CARDON,

the well known lyric soprano who will appear as Yvone in "The Salt Lakers'" production of the comic opera success, "The Serenade," at the Salt Lake theater, Thanksgiving. Miss Cardon in looks is almost a counterpart of Alice Nielsen, who sang the role when the opera was given here by the "Bostonians."

Miss Pearl Bailey entertained the T. O. N. O club at her home in north State street Wednesday evening, the rooms being attractively decorated with club colors and various kinds of flowers. A dainty luncheon was served and the next meeting of the club will be at the home of Miss Gay Clawson, Thursday, the 18th.

* * *

Miss Louise Parry entertained the Undine club Thursday night, the decorations being carried out in Japanese effect with parasols and fans, with carnations and cosmos aiding in the pretty scheme. A musical program was a feature, and about 29 guests were entertained.

* * *

Mrs. George T. Badger and Mrs. Sophia Sharp were hostesses at a Kensington yesterday afternoon, the rooms being decorated with a profusion of chrysanthemums and a number of amusing contests being among the features.

* * *

Mrs. G. W. Lambourne entertained the Cup and Saucer club Thursday, the decorations being in white chrystanthemums and prizes awarded the winners in the card game.

* * *

Mrs. Elizabeth Bonnemort gave a theater party on Thursday night at the performance of "Ragged Robin."

* * *

Miss Veda Beebe was guest of honor Thursday at a matinee party at the Orpheum club followed by a luncheon at Franklin's, the table being decorated in pink roses and the place cards done in cupid designs with covers laid for Mrs. O. C. Beebe, Miss Nora Murdoch, Miss Veda Beebe, Miss Mignon Dennalter, Miss Alice Nibley, Miss Louise Clawson, Miss Norma Woodruff, Miss Beulah Woodruff, Miss Gwen Dunbar and Miss Alice Dunbar.

* * *

Mrs. T. J. Snarr entertained at a card party yesterday for about a dozen friends, the prize in the contest being won by Miss Carrie Snarr. Those present were Mesdames Busby, Buckle, Eldredge, Early, Irvine, Christenson, Henrold and Snarr; Misses C. and H. Snarr, Richardson, Pickering and Lundgren.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. George Winspear entertained at a card party last night, the amusement being "500." The rooms were prettily decorated in white the lavender chrysanthemums and about nine tables were played.

* * *

Mrs. F. J. McGanney will entertain at a theater party this afternoon followed by a luncheon at Franklin's.

* * *

Mrs. Retta Casady entertained at a dinner on Thursday night in honor of Frederick K. Logan, the table being effectively decorated and covers laid for about a dozen guests.

* * *

Miss Baumgarten was hostess at two pleasant afternoon affairs this week, the first on Tuesday and the other on Thursday, the decorations at each being in autumn flowers and both affairs being formal.

* * *

Among the social events of the week was a welcome home and birthday party tendered Miss Eva H. Jenson last Monday evening, at her home 154 north Second West street. About 50 of her friends gathered to bid her welcome and congratulate her on her natal day. She was the recipient of many beautiful sentiments from her friends both on this side and the other side of the ocean; she having lately returned in company with her mother, Mrs. Emma H. Jenson, from a very interesting trip through Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Germany, Holland, France and England. They also visited a number of mission fields in the east, as well as in the foreign countries. Among the most interesting was their visit in Washington, D. C., and to the monument in Vermont, also the kind reception given them at Durham House, Liverpool, by President Charles W. Penrose and wife, both on their arrival and home leaving. During the evening a number of vocal and instrument selections and games of different kinds were enjoyed while dainty refreshments were served

Coming and Going

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Coleman, who are in the Critchlow apartments, will soon have as their guest Mr. Coleman's mother, of Los Angeles, Cal., who will spend sevral weeks here.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. McMillen have returned from an eastern trip of several weeks.

* * *

Mrs. F. M. Marshall has returned from a trip to Seattle, Wash., and the coast.

* * *

Miss Edith burns has returned from a six weeks' visit in the east.

* * *

Mrs. Stone of Nevada, a former resident of Salt Lake, is visiting in the city as the guest of her sister, Mrs. John A. Marshall.

* * *

Mrs. Mark McChrystal will leave Monday for a visit to her former home in New York.

* * *

Mrs. William Owsley, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. Fred Wey for a few weeks, will leave for her home in Montana next Tuesday.

* * *

Mrs. Fred Hale has returned from a short visit in California.

* * *

Mrs. Lyla Read has returned from Seattle, Wash., and the Pacific northwest, and is at home with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. James.

* * *

Frank J. Forest, a grandson of Gen. Forest of the Confederate service, is here for a few days with old friends.

* * *

Mrs. Henry Winans left Monday for her home in Denver, Colo., after spending several weeks here with old friends.

* * *

Dr. and Mrs. Dowd of Sunnyside, who have been on a trip to Idaho, will be here today to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Sharp.

* * *

Mrs. Herbert Coffman, who has been here for several weeks, has now returned to her home in Riverside, Cal.

DRESSY BLOUSE TO MATCH A WOOL SUIT.

This year the white blouse is not considered correct with a colored wool skirt; the suit must be matched with a dainty blouse in the same shade, or a shade blending with the color of coat and skirt. This dainty blouse might be developed in any desired color, though in this case old blue messaline satin has been used in combination with braiding of the same color and steel buttons. A little yoke and undersleeves of dotted net add daintiness to the blouse, and yoke and collar are separated by a band of blue velvet with a steel clasp.

* * *

Miss Lorina Leary returned Monday from a visit of several weeks in the Pacific northwest.

* * *

Miss Myrtle Finch will leave this week for Denver, where she will be married to H. K. Aborn.

* * *

J. J. Stewart returned Sunday evening from a stay of several weeks in Portland, Or.

* * *

Miss Spaulding, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Spaulding, of Denver, Colo., arrived Saturday, and opened the home at 444 east First South street. Mrs. Spaulding will be here about a month.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wightman and Mrs. Eugene Barnes and son will leave today for southern California, where they will spend the winter. Mr. Barnes will spend the holidays with them. During their absence, their home at 1245 Second avenue will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Knickerbocker.

* * *

Mrs. H. D. Niles, Miss Niles and Frank Niles have moved into the Ivanhoe apartments.

* * *

Mrs. R. P. Rifenberick, Jr., left this week for the east and an extended trip abroad.

* * *

Mrs. D. L. Wallick of Provo, who has been the guest for a few days of her sister, Mrs. M. B. Whitney, returned home on Tuesday.

* * *

M. and Mrs. Mark M. Murtough of Twin Falls, Idaho, who spent the summer in New Jersey, have been the guests of friends in Salt Lake for a few days since their return from the east.

* * *

Miss Ione Atwood, who has been visiting in Ogden for the last two weeks as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Baker, has returned home.

* * *

Lieutenant and Mrs. Fauntley Miller returned Tuesday from a month's wedding trip to Los Angeles, and are now at home at Quarters No. 20 at Fort Douglas.

* * *

Miss Marion Jones returned Tuesday from a month's visit to Ocean Park and other southern California points.

* * *

Mrs. J. U. Eldredge, Sr., has returned from a visit of two months' with her two daughters, who are attending school in Denver.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. King and their daughter, Miss Virginia, have returned from a visit to Jacksonville and other Florida cities.

* * *

Miss Lottie Brain is spending a fortnight at Provo as the guest of Miss Clara E. Cluff.

* * *

W. A. Critzer of Oakland will arrive in Salt Lake Friday, Nov. 11, to join Mrs. Critzer, who has been visiting friends in the city for a few week. Mr. and Mrs. Critzer expect to leave the following Sunday for their home in Oakland.

* * *

Miss Margie McMahon has gone to Los Angeles and Pasadena to visit for a couple of weeks.

* * *

Mrs. A. H. DeCamp, who has been the guest for a few days of her sister, Mrs. Ledyard Bailey, left Monday for the coast. Mrs. De Camp will spend the winter in San Francisco as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Austin.

* * *

L. Eggertsen Cluff spent Sunday in Provo with relatives and friends.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Greene Richards will return this week from an extended European trip and will be at home some time with Mrs. Richards' mother, Mrs. C. A. Eldredge.

* * *

Mrs. Hanson and daughters, the Misses Gertrude and Irene Hanson, will spend the winter in Oakland, leaving here about the middle of November.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. George Ryan now have with them Mrs. Ryan's mother and brother, who have recently returned from Oregon, where they had spent the past year.

* * *

Mrs. Jake Israel has returned from an extended visit in the east. She was accompanied home by her cousin from Cincinnati, Ohio, who will spend the winter here.

* * *

Mrs. Porter Stover has returned to her home in Freeport, Ill., after spending the past two weeks here with Mr. and Mrs. George A. Steiner.

* * *

Mrs. Samuel Newhouse, who has spent the past six or eight months in Paris and London, sailed for New York Friday, November 5.

* * *

Mrs. G. G. Verbryck expects to leave soon for a trip to Idaho. In her absence her home at 427 M street will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Harrison and two sons.

* * *

Mrs. A. B. Witcher and daughter of Ely, Nev., will be here to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Witcher's mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitts.

* * *

Mrs. M. Leser, who has spent the past eight months here with her sister, Mrs. Cohn, left last week for her home in New York City.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Brinker of St. Louis, Mo., will be here today to visit Judge and Mrs. J. M. Bowman for a few weeks. They are on their way to their new home in Texas.

* * *

Major and Mrs. W. E. Purviance left Monday for San Francisco, Cal., where they sailed Friday, October, 5, for the Philippines.

* * *

Mrs. A. D. Ferron is in Hammanton, Cal., where she is visiting her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Dickerman.

* * *

Mrs. Fred Hornung will return Sunday from a three weeks' trip to San Francisco.

* * *

Miss Maude Miller, who has been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Miller, for a few days, will leave today to resume her work at Stanford university.

* * *

Miss Edith Burns returned Saturday from a three months' stay in Chicago.

* * *

Miss Mildred Lang, who has been visiting in Honolulu and California for the last six months, has returned to Salt Lake.

Wedding Bells

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Williamson announce the engagement of their daughter, Catherine S., to James Blakely of Reno, Nev., the wedding to take place Nov. 24.

* * *

Another wedding of the near future is that of Miss Ethel L. Webley and Richard G. Powis, late of Walsall, Eng.

* * *

Miss Zella E. Gurley and Carl N. Stevenson will be among the month's bridal couples.

* * *

Announcement which occasioned much interest during the week was that of the marriage of Mrs. Effie Dean Whitehead and Mr. Edward Sproat, the event having taken place in New York.

* * *

A pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Ellen Rasmussen and Mr. George Poulsen, which took place on Wednesday, the marriage being solemnized in the Salt Lake temple and a reception following at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Niels Rasmussen. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the event. Music was rendered and a delightful evening was spent. There were 75 guests present. Mr. and Mrs. Poulsen will be at home at 763 Ninth East street, Nov. 15.

Hand painted place cards furnished. Miss Given Dunbar, 378 H St., Bell 4141-z.

The Larger Outside Cities

OGDEN.

Mrs. J. T. Ritter of Riverdale, has gone to Mesa City, Ariz.? to visit her mother for a few weeks.

* * *

C. E. Kaiser of Elko, Nev., was an Ogden visitor during the week.

* * *

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. held a meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. A. Cook, 2462 Monroe avenue.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Mortensen have returned from a two week's visit to Los Angeles.

* * *

The choir at the Weber stake academy is now fully organized, there being about 100 members in the organization. The choir is lead by Prof. Joseph Ballantyne and sings every morning at devotional exercises.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. John Cort, Miss Cort, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Grant of Salt Lake were Ogden visitors during the week.

* * *

Ludvig Oscher and Elmer Johnson of Chicago, were the guests of Hagbert Anderson during the week.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wright announce the engagement of their daughter Pearl, to Mr. Clyde C. Thatcher.

* * *

Lacst Thursday, the ladies of the Second ward Relief society, after a short meeting at the Second ward meetinghouse, took a trolley ride up Ogden canyon. It was a beautiful day and the canyon seemed more beautiful than ever before. The ride was made to the Hermitage and then back to the Peery cottages where they were entertained by Mrs. D. H. Peery. Mrs. Peery was assisted in receiving by her daughters, Mrs. C. C. Richards, also Mrs. Horace Peery. The decorations of the pretty cottage and the inviting fire place reminded the ladies of younger days at Hallow'en time. During the afternoon Mrs. Ann Browning favored the ladies with a number of her fine recitations. A delicious luncheon was served and each lady was presented with a bouquet of flowers. The time for leaving came too soon. All were profuse in their thanks to Mrs. Peery for the pleasant time spent at her pretty canyon home.

* * *

Mrs. Freiday and Mrs. S. H. Hendershot entertained a large number of the ladies of the First Presbyterian church on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Freiday, 907 twenty-fifth street. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent and delicious refreshments were served.

* * *

Mrs. E. G. Coursey is visiting with friends and relatives in Colorado and Nebraska.

* * *

One of the prettiest social affairs of the week was the marriage of Mary Josephine West to Reuben T. Evans on Thursday. The ceremony was performed at the Salt Lake temple, Apostle David O. McKay officiating. Upon the arrival of the couple in Ogden, a large reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. West, 312 Twenty-eighth street, from 2 to 6 p. m. Fully 150 guests were received, being the intimate relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The home was beautifully decorated with smilax, ferns, asters and carnation and a delightful luncheon was served. Miss May Bowcroft acted as bridesmaid and assisted in receiving the guests. Mr. Richard B. West was best man. Many beautiful presents of cut glass and silverware were received. In the evening at 7:30 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Evans left for New York where they will sail for Germany. Mr. Evans is taking up a course in forestry with the Biltmore Forest school of Biltmore, N. C., and the studies of the first six months are taken at Darmstadt, Germany, the home of forest conservation. Mr. and Mrs. Evans will return to America at the end of six months and will go to North Carolina where Mr. Evans will persue his studies.

* * *

The Ogden Caledonian society held a reunion at Union Labor hall on Friday night. The attendance was very large and a general good time was enjoyed by all.

* * *

A dancing party given by the telephone operators last Friday night was a huge success. Nothing was left undone to assure those present a good time and everyone there voted them the most royal entertainers in the world.

* * *

Dr. and Mrs. R. S. Joyce, residing at 614 Twenty-fourth street, Ogden, announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances Pauline, to Mr. Henry Charles Hibbard, of Seattle, Wash. The marriage will take place the early part of this month.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Halley Butcher of Evanson, Wyo., are visiting with friends in Ogden this week.

* * *

The Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church was very pleasantly entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. B. E. Newton, 222 Washington avenue. The program on "Spanish Speaking People in the United States" was very interesting and instructive.

* * *

Misses Inez Thomas and Hazel Dixon left on Monday for Garland, Utah, where they expect to make their home in the future.

PROVO.

Mr. and Mrs. John DeGray Dixon royally entertained the officers and teachers of the Third ward Sunday school in honor of Mrs. Virga B. Dixon and Misses Etna Holdaway and Sena Johnson at their home Wednesday evening. The three guests of honor have been earnest workers in the Sunday school and have now resigned, the social being given in evidence of appreciation of their efficient work. Sweet music, readings and the partaking of an elaborate lunch was enjoyed by about 60 guests.

* * *

The Young Ladies' M. I. association of the Third ward delightfully surprised Miss Sadie Johnson at her home Thursday evening and showered her with useful and dainty gifts. Games, music and a merry time were enjoyed by all.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Jensen entertained Monday evening, Dr. and Mrs. Kerr at a theater party at the Rex, followed by dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jensen on Academy avenue.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Jones entertained about 20 guests at dinner Wednesday evening in honor of Ben Meldrum, who will leave the first part of next week for a mission in Germany. An elaborate dinner was served and a very enjoyable evening passed.

* * *

Misses Myrtle and Matty Jones were the hostesses at a very enjoyable Hallowe'en party at their home Saturday evening. The guests were attired in costly costumes and the decorations throughout the house were in keeping with the occasion. A witch corner was arranged where each fair guest was able to learn her future. A dainty lunch was served.

* * *

Miss Romola King has returned to her home in Salt Lake, after a couple of weeks passed in this city as the guest of Miss Zula Houtz, who has returned to Salt Lake with Miss King and will be her guest the coming week.

* * *

The Social Sixty gave its opening party at the First ward social hall Wednesday evening. The hall was gaily decorated with festoons of autumn leaves. Punch was served and a delightful evening passed. The members of the club are among the Provo leading society people. Following is the list: Postmaster Clove, Messrs. Walter Adams, H. G. Blumenthal, R. K. Bellook, Josiah Beck, J. C. Deal, Jacob Evans, D. D. Houtz, Walter Cluff, J. T. Farrer, David Openshaw, Roy Beers, J. W. Farrer, W. W. Kroanbrack, W. F. Giles, G. H. Heindselman, S. J. Jones, Vivian Hinckley, E. G. Hughes, C. M. Humphries, Andrew Anderson, Frank Alhander, Alex Hedquist, C. M. Humphries, A. N. Holdaway, J. F. Harris, Ed T. Jones, Milton Jones, A. C. Johnson, J. L. Lytel, C. E. Loose, A. S. Jones, A. B. Morgan, Brig Madsen, W. M. Roylance, John Roundy, E. A. Michel, Davis Johnson, Alma Susset, W. F. Russell, Clara Reid, F. E. Roylance, D. D. Sutton, W. B. Ward, Scott P. Stewart, D. H. Thomas, Carl Sauer, J. S. Smith, H. G. Wood, A. E. Part, Alma Nelson, T. E. Pierpont, J. T. Taylor, N. H. Nelson, J. D. Larsen, Joseph Ward and H. G. Wood.

* * *

Mrs. William Strong has returned

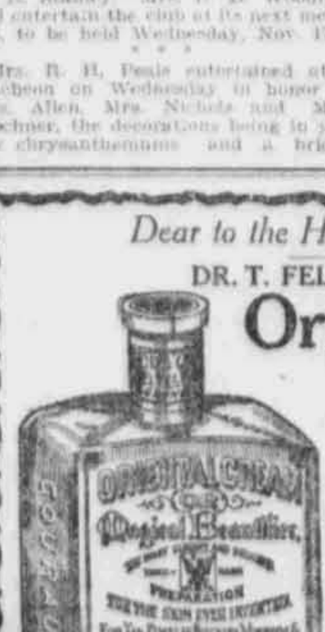
Dear to the Hearts of the Women.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S

Oriental Cream

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

An Indispensable and Necessary Article for Particular Women who Desire to Retain a Youthful Appearance.



Every woman owes it to herself and loved ones to retain the charm of youth nature has bestowed upon her. For over half a century this article has been used by actresses, singers and women of fashion. It renders the skin like the softness of velvet leaving it clear and pearly white and is highly desirable when preparing for daily or evening attire. As it is a liquid and non-greasy preparation, it remains unnoticed. When attending dances, balls or other entertainments, it prevents a greasy appearance of the complexion caused by the skin becoming heated.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures skin diseases and relieves Sunburn. Removes Tan, Pimples, Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Redness, Yellow and Muddy skin, giving a delicately clear and refined complexion which every woman desires.

No. 10 For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Prop., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.

McDonald Offers All Lovers

of Quality Chocolates, Another Marvel of Perfection, His Newest and Daintiest Creation:

Meadow Chocolates

Buy a Box—the first piece you take out will make you exclaim: "IT'S DIFFERENT," Taste it, and you'll find a rare combination of Blends and Flavor which make "Mouth Water" and make you wonder what will come next. Yes, you'll find the box full of the most exquisite Chocolates, having a variety of delightful flavors; rich centers of cream, nuts, cherries, figs and dates—All hidden with a coat of Meadow Milk Chocolate. You'll Find Meadow Chocolates as good as McDonald's Celebrated Cocoa.