SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH

INSTANTLY RELIEVES.

6,000 FEET ABOVE THE SEA.

The following testimonials are from Messrs. J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Col., large and influential druggists. They report unprecedentedly large sales and universal satisfaction. No complaint is so alarmingly prevalent in that region. They speak of the following gentlemen as among their best citizens:

SORELY AFFLICTED.

J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Col.: Gentlemen.—Permit me to inform you that those afflicted with Catarrh, I wish to add my testimony in behalf of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. I have suffered from this most loathsome and painful disease for four years, and have tried every known remedy without avail, until I bought a bottle of your SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, which gave me immediate relief. It is being a constitutional as well as a local remedy, I believe it to be all that is claimed for it, and I cheerfully recommend it to all.

Very truly yours, WM. ARMITIGE.
Denver, Sept. 28, 1878. with Jones, Bliss & Co.

GREATLY AFFLICTED.

Messrs. J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Gentlemen,—I take pleasure in recommending SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH to all who are afflicted with this disease. I was greatly benefited with it for a long time, and cured it with two bottles of the above CURE. About a year afterwards I had a relapse which came very severely, and immediately sent for another bottle, which fixed me all right, giving me entire relief. I can recommend this as a remedy will do all that is claimed for it, and more too. Wishing you success in its introduction, I am very truly yours,

J. W. SMITH, of Smith & Bell.
Denver, Oct. 1, 1878.

TRIED EVERYTHING.

Messrs. J. O. Bosworth & Co., Denver, Col.: Gentlemen,—I have used SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, and it has given perfect satisfaction. I have tried everything else without avail, it is the only thing that has given me relief. I therefore take pleasure in recommending it to all afflicted with Catarrh. Yours truly and obliged,

W. S. DECKER

GROUSE CREEK, Box Elder Co.

Editors Deseret News:

There have been many rumors current about the hostile Indians being troublesome in the vicinity of this valley, but I am happy to say that none of us have lost our scalps as yet. All it has amounted to has been excitement and the cause of a log fort four rods square being built, but all is quiet now, and the settlers are following their daily avocations as usual. There are a few friendly Indians, who have small farms here, who are almost constantly on the look-out. The people here don't anticipate any trouble unless the "hostiles" are hard pressed by the soldiers north of us, and if necessity requires there are about 25 men who can defend themselves and property.

Most of the land in this valley, that there is water for, has been located and from fifteen to twenty miles of water ditches made. Any one wishing to locate here would necessarily have to purchase claims as it has cost considerable labor and expense to make ditches and other improvements. Our grain and other crops look well; we are having an excellent season. No grasshoppers, no frost, and I think it will take something more than a "scare" to drive the people from their homes here.

PHILLIP PASKETT.

A Prudent Reason.

A friend of mine went a few days back, to have a tooth stopped. The dentist advised him that he had better have the tooth taken out, and assured him that he would feel no pain if he took laughing gas.

"But what is the effect of the gas?" asked my friend.

"It simply makes you totally insensible," remarked the dentist; "you don't know anything that takes place."

My friend submitted; but just previous to the gas being administered he put his hand in his pocket and pulled out his money.

"Oh, don't trouble about that now," said the dentist, thinking he was going to be paid his fee. "Not at all," remarked the patient; "I was simply going to see how much I had before the gas took effect."—London Truth.

—ADVICE TO THOSE WHO OWE.—Make a full estimate of all you owe, and of all that is owing to you. Reduce the same to note. As fast as you collect pay over to those you owe. If you cannot, renew your note every year, and get the best security you can. Go to business diligently and be industrious; waste no idle moments; be very economical in all things; discard all pride; be faithful in your duty to God by fervent and hearty prayer morning and night; attend church and prayer meeting regularly every Sunday, and do unto all men as you would they should do unto you. If you are too needy in circumstances to give to the poor, do whatever else is in your power cheerfully, but if you can, help the poor and unfortunate. Pursue this course diligently and sincerely for seven years, and if you are not happy, comfortable and independent in your circumstances come to me and I will pay your debts.—Ben Franklin.
