WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for FAMILY RECORDS of an approved form.

Each book is divided into four forms.

The first form is that of a "FAMILY RECORD," with ruled and printed spaces for births, marriages, and deaths, in each family, also for names, dates, and places, one page accommodating one family.

The second form is a "CHURCH RECORD," with spaces for blessings, baptisms, confirmations, ordinations, endowments, and patriarchal blessings and various particulars of the same.

The third form is a "SEALING RECORD," with spaces for name of person sealed, birth, death, name, place, etc.

The fourth form is a "BAPTISM FOR THE DEAD RECORD," with spaces for names, dates, birth, death, baptism, confirmation, etc.

Each book is furnished with a title page, on which the person owning the record can enter his or her name. An explanation of the forms, or instructions how to keep the record is also printed in each book, and its pages are numbered.

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday - - May 2, 1878.

Correspondence.

The New U. N. Terminus.

DUNNVILLE, Idaho, April 30th, 1878.

Editors Deseret News:

This temporary settlement is a creation of the Utah and Northern Railroad extension. It is located twenty miles north of Franklin, and is a busy, bustling pitched-tented town, and is the present terminus of the road on the open prairie. A number of business men from Corinne and other places have their canvass stores erected and are doing quite a business here. Kiesel & Co., from Corinne, have their forwarding house there, and are doing an immense business in the freight line and other operations. Several wagon dealers have established themselves here and are doing heavy trading, which is a natural sequence of this place being the present outfitting point for the Montana freight, which is daily increasing. There are a great number of stores and saloons in the town, and people from all parts are flocking here—among the rest is the unevitable and everlasting "John, Yeh Wah" wash house.

Mr. W. C. Lewis has removed from Franklin and has established his popular hotel at the terminus, as usual, he spreads a most excellent and inviting table.

Wells, Fargo & Co's and Gilmer & Salisbury's offices are located here, and are presided over by Tim Henderson. Tim is deservedly the most popular man in this northern country. He is accommodating and is ever ready to oblige. He can pile up more trunks, boxes, mail bags, etc., with security, on the mountain stage, than any other man around these "diggings."

The extension altogether is a piece of excellent road; has a down grade for about 12 miles out of Franklin, and runs through a beautiful prairie, dotted with new farms and many farm buildings in course of erection on either side of the road. Hundreds of acres of new land have been plowed and sown, and the grain is up and looking very promising. Thousands of acres more will ere long be brought under cultivation, and the land is destined soon to be thickly settled with the hardy, industrious sons of toil, who will leave the crowded cities and make for themselves and posterity comfortable homes.

On reaching Bear River on the left of the line out, you see the celebrated battle ground of General Connor and Pocotello. From this point for several miles there is a tough up grade, hard pull. The scenery is rugged and wild—we pass through many deep cuts.

The U. P. R. R. Co. have an office here. Messrs. Hulauske and Spooner, from the Ogden office, are here—the former as freight agent and the latter as clerk. The traffic over the line is increasing rapidly both ways. A great deal of bullion is shipped from this point for the east. This morning's train took out four box cars loaded with this precious metal.

The construction still goes on under the superintendence of Mr. Washington Dunn. He informs me the company will continue to build the road to Watson, in Idaho, about 25 miles from here. When that is accomplished the people here will "pull up stakes" and again "move on."

Last evening I saw Mr. David Wright and Mr. W. W. Sterrett. They had specimens of what they consider pure brimstone, from an inexhaustible mine, about eight miles from Soda Springs.

Peace, quiet and good order prevails in this settlement—a characteristic not to be found in every new railroad creation. All are busy, fully employed, endeavoring to turn an honest penny.
