GENEALOGICAL.

To Latter-day Saints who are interested in Genealogical Matters:

By and with the consent of the proper authorities, I have consented to go to the Eastern States during the present winter, to obtain the genealogies of such Saints as come from those who might desire to employ me. During my present mission to these parts I acquainted myself with facilities that will obtain me to procure genealogies with a fair degree of correctness, and in securing those of a number of families of the same name at the same time, the expense will be but a very small portion of what it would be if each family separately. This is a rare opportunity for the Saints from New Hampshire, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania or Delaware, or Saints whose ancestors were natives of those States, to procure genealogies at a small cost. A circular stating terms, will be sent on application.

EVENING NEWS.

Last Night's Dispatches.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 18.—Merrimon, in speaking on the resolution of Matthews declaring the right of government to pay interest and principal of bonds in silver, said he would never consent to the slightest impairment of the honor of the country. He reviewed the financial legislation since 1862, to show that the bonds were lawfully payable in silver. Government by its legislation, has steadily appreciated the value of bonds at the expense of greenbacks, which had been withdrawn by government, not as business required, but as seemed best by the bondholders.

The Vice President presented a communication from the Secretary of War, with the report of Major Weitzel of the engineer corps, regarding the management of the Louisville and Portland canal; referred.

Also, a communication from the Attorney General, giving the number of civil prosecutions in the United States Courts in South Carolina for offences against civil rights. Referred.

Many petitions on remonetization, etc., were presented.

Maxey said the constitution itself recognized a double standard. As Secretary Sherman had said in the Senate that Congress had the right to restore the silver dollar whenever it thought proper, he (Maxey) thought the time had come.

Pending discussion, the Vice-President presented the message of the President, enclosing the answer of the Attorney General to Chaffee's resolution, asking what impediment existed to enforcing the laws on the Union Pacific Railroad and its branches. The Attorney General states that he has heard arguments by the parties interested and that the subject had been discussed in an amicable suit in the United States circuit court of Nebraska, and is now awaiting decision. He says: "I don't find any specific authority vested in the President which enables him, in his executive capacity, to oblige the Union Pacific Railroad Company to desist from an unlawful use of its road, if such exists. Nor is he empowered to ascertain whether the law is being violated. The railroad acts contemplate that these questions are for the courts to determine. Whether additional legislation should be had, so that remedies other than judicial, can be applied in such cases, is a question for Congress to determine. Should legal proceedings in behalf of the public seem necessary, in order to determine the question involved, it seems desirable that legislation be had which would preclude all questions as to the power of the Attorney General to proceed in the premises. Meanwhile, the civil suit referred to will be decided before any such proceedings could be put in motion. Until the rights of these companies are judicially ascertained, it is not advisable to have them defined through any criminal proceedings under the act of July 20, 1874." The communication and report were referred.

A message was also received from the President, enclosing an extract from the annual report of the general of the army, and communications from the commissary and quartermaster generals, in regard to the cause and cost of the war with the Nez Perces; referred.

After an executive session, the Senate adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 18.—Durham reported the military academy appropriation bill. The bill appropriates $272,135. Made the special order for Tuesday.

Singleton introduced a bill extending the jurisdiction of the southern claims commission. Referred.

Springer, from the election committee presented a majority report regarding the contested election case for the 4th district of California. The report declares the democratic contestant, Peter D. Wigginton, entitled to a seat. Hiscock, from the same, submitted a minority report declaring Pacheco entitled to a seat. Printed and recommitted.

Mills of Texas introduced a bill donating lands to the several States and Territories which may provide colleges for the education of females. Referred.

Freeman presented a remonstrance of the Union League of Philadelphia against the payment of United States bonds except in gold. Refered.

The private calendar was then taken up and many bills were referred.

The first bill on the calendar was for the relief of W. H. Newman, for property destroyed during the war at Alexandria, Virginia.

Jones, of Ohio, opposed all that class of claims and sent to the clerk's desk and had read a letter of Samuel J. Tilden's during the campaign, in which he declared his opposition to all such claims, and stated that if he should be elected he would deem it his duty to veto any bills for payment for losses incurred during the war. This was the first time a committee of the House had opened the door to that large class of claims.

Springer said Tilden referred to the claims arising from acts caused by war, while the case in question had nothing to do with the operations of war.

Without action on the bill, the committee rose, and Hanna called up the Senate resolution in regard to the death of Senator Morton, and eulogies on the life and public services of the late senator were delivered by Hanna, Brown, Hunton, Calkins, Wilton, Hardenberg, Garfield, Dunnell, Williams (Wis.) and Hazelton. They occupied three hours in delivery. The resolutions were adopted, and the House adjourned until Monday.

EASTERN.

Rumors of Another Telegraph Raise.

NEW YORK, 18.—Rumors were numerous on Wall Street, this afternoon, but none have been authenticated, that the Western Union and Atlantic & Pacific had raised their rates to-day, on a basis of from 60 cents to 75 cents to Chicago, Burlington and Davenport.

Texas Pacific—Bloomingdale's Repelled.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., 18.—The merchants and manufacturers, to-day, passed resolutions favoring the passage of the Texas Pacific bill.

Wayne county Iowa states that the marshal's posse repelled an attack of Moonshiners, twenty odd strong, killing one and wounding two, and destroying several stills.

Capture of Illicit Distillers.

NASHVILLE, 18.—Deputy United States Marshal Goodwin and fifty assistants have just returned from Huntsville, Morgan county, from a revenue raid. Three of Baleden's well-known desperadoes and defiant illicit distillers for two years, was captured and their apparatus destroyed. In Franklin county, adjoining, the officers destroyed a distillery owned by Green, Holland & Williams. Starfield Holland and five other distillers were captured. The same party destroyed three large distilleries in Lawrence county. They passed through Decatur yesterday en route to Huntsville, carrying 16 prisoners.

The New Orleans Collectorship.

WASHINGTON, 18. — Regarding the nomination for collector of New Orleans, there is one portion supporting Governor Packard and another General McMillan, so that the President went outside and selected a republican who will be acceptable to the majority of the party and to the business men of New Orleans, Geo. Williamson. Williamson has not sought the place. His name was suggested by citizens of Louisiana anxious to see the political scramble stopped.

Female Colleges.

The bill introduced by Representative Mills provides that there shall be granted to the several States, for colleges for the education of females, public lands equal to 30,000 acres for each Senator and Representative in Congress. The interest on the money derived from the sale of the lands shall be appropriated for the endowment, support and maintenance of at least one college for females, residents of said State.

Chinese Immigration Opponents.

The opponents of Chinese immigration argue that this so-called "posthumous report" of Senator Morton is likely to make the attainments of success in their efforts considerably more difficult, by reason of its giving forcible and highly authoritative expression to sentimental arguments, which, though already widely prevalent in the east, would otherwise have attracted less attention and excited small influence in Congress. They are, however, very hopeful of being able to show that the Indiana senator took very restricted and imperfect views of the most important element of the problem.

Favorable Views.

Senator Voorhees mentions, as proof, that his views on the silver question find favor in other parts of the country besides the west, that he, to-day, received 137 letters from points on the line of railroad communicating between Washington and Boston, congratulating him upon his recent speech, and asking for copies.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

No Cause for Alarm.

LONDON, 18.—The Times' leading editorial says: Nothing more satisfactory to the country, with respect to the immediate course of public affairs, could well have occurred than the declarations, yesterday, made in the Queen's speech as well as by the ministerial leaders in the two houses of Parliament. The alarms recently raised respecting the possibility of a warlike policy being adopted by the government may now be finally dismissed.

The Times commenting on the documents contained in the Blue Book, says: In Lord Derby's recent dispatches we cannot find a trace of apprehensions such as alone could have justified the late outbreak of war feeling in certain quarters. It is now abundantly clear that the feeling was confined to a small though noisy minority, but it will be a satisfaction and relief to the whole country to know that it found no echo in the official utterances of the government.

In the House of Commons this evening, an amendment to the address, that an examination be made into the Irish grievances, was rejected, 301 to 48. The address was then agreed to.

Skobeloff in Philippopolis.

A Russian official dispatch announces that General Skobeloff entered Philippopolis on the 16th and extinguished the flames in the Bulgarian dwellings fired by the retreating Turks.

RUSSIA.

The Budget.

ST. PETERSBURG, 18.—The budget of the Empire shows the exact balance between the revenue and expenditures, both amounting to 600,398,425 silver roubles.

TURKEY.

Items from the Turkish Capital.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 18. — Queen Victoria's speech has caused considerable disappointment here.

The Turkish peace delegates have arrived at Karabura.

It is reported that Grand Duke Nicholas is at Yeni Saghra.

At the Thursday sitting of the Chamber, a message from the Grand Vizier was read, asking the deputies to appoint five of their number to share in the deliberations of a committee of senators, ulemas and officers, which will direct military measures in the event of the failure of the armistice negotiations.

The British consul at Adrianople has asked permission to leave, but Minister Layard ordered him to remain at his post.

Mr. Layard has given assistance to 40,000 refugees within five days.

BRITISH AMERICA.

Arrest of an Absconder.

ST. JOHNS, N.B., 18.—The manager of Howard's Theatre, Boston, who absconded with the funds, was arrested in Frederickton.
