UTAH TRADE.

JAMES LINFORTH,

COMMISSION MERCHANT

No. 3. Front Street, near Market,

SAN FRANCISCO, California.

MERCHANDISE and MACHINERY of all descriptions purchased or imported for UTAH TRADERS on the most favorable terms and at lowest current prices.

The proximity of San Francisco to the principal business points in Utah, both north and south, affords an opportunity to merchants to quickly and frequently replenish their Stocks at any season of the year, either by the way of Austin or San Pedro.

Many articles of general consumption both of Foreign production and California manufacture, can be obtained at less cost from San Francisco than elsewhere.

California and Oregon-made Woolen Goods, Blankets, Cassimeres and Clothing, such as underwear and Hosiery, are superior to anything imported and intrinsically cheaper, making

SAN FRANCISCO

UNQUESTIONABLY

THE MARKET FOR UTAH.

And ahead of all others in the advantages offered.

Actual market quotations and all necessary information furnished to Merchants on application.

Shipments in not less than ten tons can be sent directly to Salt Lake by way of Austin, and small lots can be sent to that point at any time when freighting is practicable on that route.

Goods consigned from other markets for re-shipment, promptly and carefully forwarded.

Thanking the commercial community of Utah for their generous patronage and confidence during the past six years, a continuance of the same is respectfully solicited.

JAMES LINFORTH,
d35:tf No. 3, Front St., San Francisco.

DR. W. H. TATT,

SURGEON AND PHYSICIAN.

Office at Badman & Co's Drug Store. Can be consulted daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

TO THE MUSICALLY INCLINED,

And to those desirous of Learning Music!

Mrs. WHITE, of Rochester,

TEACHES Robbins' American Method for the Pianoforte, which is so far superior to the old method of teaching the Pianoforte, Melodeon or Organ that its full importance can scarcely be estimated. It is a century ahead of all other methods for the Piano—Pupils acquiring a knowledge of Music in an almost incredibly short time.

References to and letters of recommendations from the most eminent Professors of Music in the East.

Mrs. WHITE is stopping at the TOWNSEND HOUSE for a limited time, where she can be found, and full particulars learned. Private tuition given. d35-tf

LOST,

LAST evening, between the Theatre and President Young's doorway, a DARK VICTORINE. The finder will confer a favor upon the lady who lost it, by leaving it at President Young's Office.

A CARD.

To the Inhabitants and purchasing Community of this Territory:—

Owing to the great decline in the prices of goods in the Eastern Markets (being determined to keep IN RATIO with them,) I have made a further reduction in the prices of goods, which upon examination will speak for themselves I have also on hand a great many articles that have laid over for one and two years—which I will sell, REGARDLESS OF COST, even lower than the present rates in the Eastern Markets will permit of; viz: Table and Pocket Cutlery, Spades, Shovels, Scythes and Snaths, Bake Skillets, Locks and Latches, Tea and Table Spoons, Carriage Bolts, Cast, Blister and Plough Steel, Soap, Lye, Tobacco, and an immense variety of other goods, which are necessities for every day use. Farmers and Country Merchants would do well to call and examine the stock and prices, and as Greenbacks are scarce in the country, I will take for pay, Cattle, Wheat, Flour Barley, Oats, Pork, &c., for which I will give a price that will guarantee satisfaction.

BREVITIES.

At San Antonia, Texas, gas is made from oil found in the neighborhood.

The Sitkans are rapidly learning to swear in English.

The Memphis bar has admitted a colored lawyer.

Mush and milk sociables are popular in Michigan.

The Illinois State Fair Committee have decided that horse racing is not agricultural.

The Nashville (Tennessee) Union says the coming year is the most gloomy upon which the South has ever entered.

Four thousand London bankers' clerks ask that banks be opened at ten o'clock instead of nine.

Paris has a new thing in earrings, being little globes of rock-crystal filled with water and miniature sea fishes and molluscs.

Candidates for the Vice-Presidency on the Grant ticket multiply in all parts of the country.

John B. Gough has announced that at the close of this season he would retire from the lecture field.

Real estate in Atlanta, Georgia, that cost before the war $40,000 in gold, sold the other day at United States Marshal's sale, for $7,000 in currency.

Madam Demorest, gave a paper dress masquerade, lately in New York, at which the costumes comprehended the most curious freaks of fashion for the last 300 years.

The Countess of Portarlington and Lords Louth and Granard, of the Irish aristocracy, have professed the Roman Catholic faith within the past few weeks.

The Bulletin International says, two of the most skilful detectives in London were sent to Paris several weeks ago with orders not to lose sight of "Head Centre" Stephens day or night.

A Nashville paper states that President Johnson has purchased a fine farm of several hundred acres, containing a superior mill site in Greene county, Tennessee, to which he intends retiring at the close of his term.

Mr. John Jones, a coal digger at St. Louis, during a dispute with Mr. John Roberts, likewise a coal digger, of St. Louis, ate off the nose of Mr. Roberts, to convince him.

The Italian newspapers complain of the great increase of brigandage in that country, the brigands frequently putting their captives to death when ransoms are not forthcoming.

While there are eighty-one more schools in Ireland than last year, the number of scholars has decreased by eleven thousand, owing to emigration and the prejudices excited by religious differences.

It is hinted that M. Rouher draws his inspiration from Eugenie rather than Napoleon, and that he looks to becoming the Richelieu of the regency when Louis fills the tomb of the third Napoleon.

Thad. Stevens, on introducing a bill not many days since in the House, said he had no hesitation in acknowledging that "they were acting outside the Constitution in many respects. It had become too old-fashioned for the requirements of this progressive age."

There are living only two persons, the survivors of the Convention which formed the American Bible Society in the year 1816. These are the Rev. Dr. Spring, of New York city, and the Rev. Dr. Sayers, of Jamaica, Long Island. They beheld the fiftieth anniversary.

A dukedom will be conferred on Count Bismark shortly after New Year. There has been a remarkable change in the feelings of William I, toward his distinguished prime minister. In 1860, when Bismark, at Baden Baden, tried to persuade his august master to adopt the very policy which was carrid into execution in 1866, Willian I got quite angry with Bismark, and he told Count Schwerin "that Baron von Bismark" was a very impertinent fellow, indeed.
