THE GOLDEN SIDE.

BY R. M. MIDGLEY.

There is a many a rest in the road of life,
If we only would stop to take it,
And many a tone from the better land,
If the querulous heart would make it.
To the sunny soul that is full of hope,
And whose beautiful trust ne'er faileth,
The grass is green and flowers are bright,
Tho' the wintry storm prevaileth.

Better to hope, though the clouds hang low,
And to keep the eye still lifted,
For the sweet blue sky will soon peep through
When the ominous clouds are rifted.
There was never a day without a night,
Or an evening without a morning,
And the darkest hour, as the proverb goes,
Is the hour before the dawning.

There is many a gem in the path of life,
Which we pass in our idle pleasure,
That is richer far than the jeweled crown,
Or the miser's hoarded treasure;
It may be the love of a little child,
Or a mother's prayer in heaven,
Or only a beggar's thanks,
For a cup of water given.

Better to weave in the web of life,
A bright and golden woof,
And to do God's will with a ready heart,
And hands that are swift and willing,
Than to snap the minute, delicate threads
Of our curious life asunder,
And then blame heaven for the tangled ends,
And sit, and grieve, and wonder.

DISCOURSE

DELIVERED BY

PREST. BRIGHAM YOUNG,

On Sunday Afternoon, April 22, 1877, at Richfield, Sevier County, Utah.

REPORTED BY GEORGE F. GIBBS.

I am very much gratified in the opportunity of appearing in this house again. I am disposed to say a few words to you. I have not time to instruct you in all things, nor to say all I wish to say. Do just as well as you know how in all things, never permitting yourself to commit an act unless the Spirit of God within you justifies you in doing it. And if you live every day of your lives according to the best light and understanding you possess, glorifying God, our Heavenly Father, just as far as your knowledge extends, I will promise you eternal life in the kingdom of God. This is saying a great deal, it is a very important discourse embodied in a few words. The grand difficulty with the people is they do not do quite as well as they know how; it is that which hinders us from accomplishing the work given us to do.

Now let me say to you, my brethren and sisters, if you live according to the light within you, you will be of one heart and one mind; your interests and labors will be one, and you will take hold with all the power God has given you to consummate this great and glorious work committed to our charge. When we become one we shall have a heaven here upon the earth. Do you think that in the family of heaven dwelling in the presence of God there is any jarring, bickerings, contentions, fault-finding, or distrust in the priesthood? No. It is true we are in a world of darkness, and we have a great many weaknesses, temptations and annoyances all tending to lead us astray. But if we do as well as we know how, we shall accomplish the work.

I have been spending the winter in St. George. Our Temple there is finished, which is the first completed Temple built to the name of the Most High, in which the ordinances for the living and the dead can be performed, since the one built by Solomon in the land of Jerusalem, that we have any knowledge of. The Nephites may have built Temples, and in all probability they did, but we have no account of them. We enjoy privileges that no other people enjoy, or have enjoyed. In the days of Solomon, in the Temple that he built in the land of Jerusalem, there was confusion and bickering and strife, even to murder, and the very man that they looked to to give them the keys of life and salvation, they killed because he refused to administer the ordinances to them when they requested it; and whether they got any of them or not, this history does not say anything about.

We enjoy the privilege of entering into a Temple, built to the name of God, and receiving the ordinances of his House, with all the keys and blessings preparatory of entering into the "lives;" we also enjoy the privilege of administering for our fathers and mothers, our grandfathers and grandmothers, for those who have slept without the gospel.

You can understand why it is that the press of our nation is so ready to cry out against the "Mormons?" Why it is that these poor Latter-day Saints are not considered fit to live, why they ought not to enjoy the common blessings of citizenship, and why the wicked would, if they could, deprive this whole people of the rights and privileges, and destroy their leaders from off the earth. It is evidence to all Latter-day Saints, if they have hearts to understand, that God is with this people, and that the Evil One is using the same means now, as he always has done, to oppose Him. We ought to be thankful that we are worthy to receive these persecutions. And I can promise you, that if we exercise patience and faith, and attend faithfully and diligently to the work given us to do of the Father, that they will work out for us a more excellent degree of glory and exaltation. Consequently it becomes us to be patient, trusting in God and the promises he has made unto us.

I was about to say to you, that our labors during the time I have spent in St. George, are perfectly satisfactory to me; and I believe we have all the evidence we can ask for, that the Lord is satisfied. And now that we have succeeded so well in building one Temple, we feel encouraged to continue our labors in the same direction until we shall have built and finished others. We want to commence another one in your region of country, at Manti; and we intend to lay out the ground when we reach there on our way to the city. We have traveling with us, in our company, Elder Parry, the man who had charge of the rock-work of the St. George Temple; he is on his way to Manti, to work on the Temple to be built at that place. We expect to say to the Latter-day Saints, Rear these walls forth with, and complete this building, that you may enjoy the blessings therein promised.

Brethren and sisters, live your holy religion that the spirit of truth, of virtue and of holiness may burn within you, that your only desire may be to do the will of the Father in the literal building up of this his kingdom on the earth. Say your prayers, and increase your faith in the Lord and in his promises made to the faithful. Bring up your children in the love and fear of the Lord; study their dispositions and their temperaments, and deal with them accordingly, never allowing yourself to correct them in the heat of passion; teach them to love you rather than to fear you, and let it be your constant care that the children that God has so kindly given you are taught in their early youth the importance of the oracles of God, and the beauty of the principles of our holy religion, that when they grow to the years of man and womanhood they may always cherish a tender regard for them and never forsake the truth. I do not wish you to lay the stress and importance upon outward ceremonies that many do. There are those belonging to what is called the Mother Church who say give them the care and training of children at from three to seven years old, and they could so ground them in their faith, that they for ever afterwards, would remain good Catholics. The secret of their great success is no doubt in their strict observance of outward ordinances and ceremonies. But while they go to one extreme in the observance of ceremony, making bigots of their children, (for one of the earliest recollections of the child, who is reared in Catholicism, is the use of the sign of the cross) many of the Latter-day Saints go to the other, falling entirely to impress the minds of their children with that degree of reverence and sacredness that belongs to the ordinances of our church. Parents, teach your children by precept and example, the importance of addressing the throne of grace; teach them how to live, how to draw from the elements the necessaries of life, and teach them the laws of life that they may know how to preserve themselves in health and be able to minister to others. And when instructing them in the principles of the Gospel, teach them that they are true, truth sent down from heaven for our salvation, and that the gospel incorporates every truth whether in heaven, in earth, or in hell; and teach them too that we hold the keys of eternal life, and that they must obey and observe the ordinances and laws pertaining to this holy priesthood, which God has revealed and restored for the exaltation of the children of men.

If I were to ask the High Priests of this district, Do you pray in your families before going to work, or before you sit around the breakfast table? do you kneel down in humility and meekness, with the faith that the Father requires at your hands, to ask him in the name of Jesus, to bless and preserve and give you grace according to your day; and do you do this before retiring to bed? Seventies, do you call upon the Lord morning and evening? The Lord says, I will be sought unto by my people for the blessings that they need. And instead of our classing prayer among the duties devolving upon us as Latter-day Saints, we should live so as to deem it one of the greatest privileges accorded to us; for were it not for the efficacy of prayer what would have become of us both as a people and as individuals?

I do not feel disposed to preach a lengthy sermon to you, but we feel in our hearts to say, God bless you, peace be to you. I do not expect to come to see you as often as I have done, my health will not permit of it. My voice is good, I feel as though I could make myself heard a mile off, but my system is almost worn out; yet I expect to work right in the harness until I am called for to go hence. I am so thankful we have completed our Temple, it is the greatest blessing that could be bestowed upon us, I know of nothing that could equal it. But we are not satisfied with this one, we must hurry the building of another one, and thus another one and so on, and perform the great work therein that is required at our hands. Let us live so that we may be worthy to be owned of the Lord, and to be received into the fulness with him. Amen.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 28.—Bailey questioned whether these railroads would accept the railroad committee's bill, which it was necessary for them to do. It relinquished to the companies $45,000,000. The judiciary committee bill did not impair obligation of contract and the acts of Congress of 1862 and 1864 do not prohibit Congress compelling these companies to create a sinking fund.

The Senate then went into executive session.

Upon reopening the doors, Lamar submitted a resolution looking to the preservation of the water fronts at Vicksburg. Agreed to.

Teller, from the railroad committee, reported amendments to the Senate bill to authorize a narrow gauge from Bismarck to the Black Hills. Placed on the calendar. Adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 28. — Dean was then sworn in.

The House refused, 123 to 107, to adopt Harrison's motion to consider the report of the civil service committee on doorkeeper Polk. The republicans generally voting aye.

Foster reported back the appropriation bill for the miscellaneous expenses of the House and Senate. The Senate amendments thereto were concurred in.

A bill was introduced by Rice to establish a board of Pacific Railroad commissioners.

Willis offered a resolution directing the judiciary committee to ascertain all the facts relating to the contracts made by the Union Pacific and Kansas Pacific on the 23d and 24d of April 1875, and whether they were legal. Referred.

The District of Columbia bill was discussed. Some opposition was manifested by Townsend to the section which compels government to pay half of the city's debt, and then it was laid aside. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, 29. — Singleton, from the committee on appropriations, reported the bill appropriating $30,000 for deficiencies in the miscellaneous fund of the House. Referred.

Eden, chairman of the committee on war claims, reported back the bill appropriating $420,000 for the payment of the claims reported allowed by the commissioners of claims. Passed.

Stephens, by request, introduced a bill to promote the general metric system. Referred.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the private calendar. The first bill on the calendar was the one appropriating $1,500 to pay the Bartholomew county, Indiana, Agricultural Society, for the use and occupation of the fair grounds for military purposes from September, 1863, to June, 1865, which gave rise to a political discussion between Conger, Luttrell and Townsend of New York. Finally the committee struck out the enacting clause of bill.

The committee rose and the action was ratified by the House. Adjourned till Monday.

EASTERN.

Advertisements of Mail Letters.

WASHINGTON, 28.—The House bill to regulate advertisements of mail letters, as amended by the Senate committee on post offices, to-day, provides that before making a contract for inland mail transportation other than by railroads and steamboats, and, except for temporary service, the postmaster shall cause to be published in not more than ten newspapers in the State or Territory in which the service is to be performed, a notice in displayed type, not exceeding six inches of space, that proposals will be received and detailed information furnished by the department within specified dates, and no other advertisement shall be required. No contracts for mail service can be sublet without the consent, in writing, of the Postmaster-General, and in case any contractor sublets his contract without this consent his contract will be terminated.

Debt Statement.

WASHINGTON, 29.—The indications are that the currency balance, as it will be shown in the public debt statement to be issued on Monday next, will be less than $1,000,000. The coin balance, including coin certificates, will probably appear somewhere between $125,000,000 and $140,000,000. The amount of additional circulation issued to national banks for March is $961,640; legal tender notes destroyed, 80 per cent. of the same, $769,312.

Confirmations and Rejections.

The Senate confirmed Glennie W. Scofield of Pennsylvania register of the treasury; Geo. W. Roosevelt, of Pennsylvania, as United States Consul to Auckland; John W. Douglass, of New York, Indian agent at Yankton agency, Dakota, and Edward Hopkins, collector of customs at St. Johns, Florida.

The Senate rejected the nomination of Robert M. Reynolds of Alabama, to be first auditor of the Treasury, vice David W. Mahen, resigned, and that of Jos. W. Huston, of Boise City, Idaho, to be United States attorney for Idaho.

Counterfeit New Silver Dollars.

Astonishingly accurate counterfeits of the new silver dollar have been received at the Treasury. They are made of a composite base metal that gives a clear ring, and presents the appearance of silver. Dr. Linderman said, to-day, that they are better than the government coin. Nobody but an expert can detect them.

Disastrous Fire.

CRYSTAL SPRINGS, Miss., 29.—A fire broke out here, last night, in the heart of the town, by which a whole block of buildings was consumed. A number of firms lose heavily.

$50,000 Fire.

HARTFORD, Conn., 29. — The planing mill of C. T. Marston & Co., the best equipped in the State, was burned, to-night; loss $50,000; insurance $25,000.

Conspiracy to Keep Anderson in Prison.

CHICAGO, 29.—The Inter-Ocean's New Orleans special says: The ultra democrats, including Judge Whittaker, have formed a conspiracy, which it is generally supposed is a secret matter, to defeat justice and keep Anderson in prison. When the supreme court overrules Whittaker's decision again, as it will, and orders Anderson's release, Whittaker will refuse to write the order for the release. The supreme court will then direct the sheriff to release him, but the sheriff having left town purposely to avoid the mandate, Gov. Nicholls will then be called on to release Anderson, but the militia, which is under the orders of a rampant, irreconcilable democrat, will refuse, and Nicholls will have to yield, or to take the ultra step of calling for United States troops, which it is believed he will not dare to do. The scheme is well formed and has been kept for several days, but has just leaked out.

A Fatal Pistol Fight.

CRISFIELD, Md., 29.— At Eastville, Northampton Co., Va., yesterday, Sidney Pitts and A. P. Thomas fought with pistols to settle a dispute. Two rounds were fired by each, and as they stood only six feet apart, Pitts was killed, and Thomas received a ball in the head from which he will probably die.

WESTERN.

The "Pelican" Fitting up for Trading.

SAN FRANCISCO, 29. — Further inquiry shows that the steamer Pelican is being fitted up for trading between Costarican and Columbian ports, an agent of the Costarican government having negotiated for her purchase. She will be so fitted out that she can be utilized as a war vessel whenever necessary. The Washington authorities have simply ordered a watch to be kept upon her in case any unlawful measures should be taken in connection with her.

HIGHEST HONORS

AT THE

UNITED STATES

Centennial

World Exhibition,

1876.

MASON & HAMLIN

CABINET ORGANS

Unanimously assigned the

"FIRST RANK

IN THE

"SEVERAL REQUISITES"

of such Instruments!

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture have been unanimously assigned "the FIRST RANK in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of Instruments of the class" by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest competition by the best makers, before one of the most competent Juries ever assembled.

They have also received MEDAL, but, as is well known, medals of equal merit have been awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition; so thus it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The difference in competing articles and their comparative excellence, are recognized in the Reports of the Judges from which the following is an extract:

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.'S exhibit of Reed Organs and Harmoniums shows examples of the FIRST RANK IN THE SEVERAL REQUISITES OF INSTRUMENTS OF THE CLASS, viz: Smoothness and equal quality of tone, range of expression, promptness and equal quality, freedom and quickness in action of keys and bellows with durability of work, manship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Signed by all the Judges.)

The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and, they are the Only ones assigned this rank. This triumph was not unexpected, for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have uniformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions. They were awarded highest honors and

FIRST MEDALS

PARIS, 1867; VIENNA 1873; SANTIAGO, 1875; PHILADELPHIA, 1876;

and have thus been awarded highest honors at

at which they have been exhibited, being the Only American Organs which have ever obtained ANY Award at any competition with best European makers, or in any Industrial World's Exposition.

NEW STYLES, with improvements, exhibited at the CENTENNIAL, elegant cases in great variety. Prices now lowest, consistent with best material and workmanship. Organs sold for cash or instalments, or rented until paid, when they Organs warranted to give entire satisfaction to every purchaser, or THE MONEY REFUNDED. ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUES sent free.
