The "Great Rock Island" is magnificently equipped. Its road bed is simply perfect, and its track is laid with steel rails.

What will please you most will be the pleasure of enjoying your meals, while passing over the beautiful prairies of Illinois and Iowa, in one of our magnificent Dining Cars that accompany all Through Express Trains. You get an entire meal, as good as is served in any first-class hotel, for seventy-five cents.

Appreciating the fact that a majority of the people prefer separate apartments for different purposes (some the immense passenger business of this line warranting it), we are pleased to announce that this Company runs Pullman Palace Sleepers exclusively for sleeping purposes, and Palace Dining Cars exclusively for eating purposes.

PULLMAN PALACE CARS are run through to PEORIA, DES MOINES, COUNCIL BLUFFS, KANSAS CITY, ATCHISON, and LEAVENWORTH.

TABERNACLE SERVICES.

The usual Sabbath services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints were held in the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon. The choir sang the hymn on page 100:

Lord, we come before the now,
At thy feet we humbly bow.

Prayer by Elder Edward Stevenson.

The choir sang:

We here approach thy table, Lord

Elder John Nicholson, in addressing the congregation, unexpectedly to him, desired that he might have the assistance of the Holy Spirit, on which he was dependent for such thoughts as he might be able to present. The plan of salvation is so plain that there is no need for mystification or misunderstanding about it. The Lord had declared through his ancient prophets that in the latter days he would perform a marvellous work in the earth. It appeared to the speaker marvellous that this work in which the Saints are engaged should be misunderstood and rejected by the world. It was so simple and scriptural. The speaker proceeded to expound its first principles, showing the necessity of faith in God and Christ; showing that faith in Jesus was needful that we might attain to the glorious salvation which he had wrought out. A living, not a dead faith was necessary; mere belief was not enough. Faith without works was dead. In order to enter the fold of Christ remission of sins must be obtained. To secure this, faith is necessary, also repentence. These prepare the individual for the blessing which is conferred through baptism in water. This must be administered in the Lord's way, not according to the option of the person. The candidate must be buried with Christ in baptism; true baptism symbolizes Christ's death, burial and resurrection. This must be followed by the baptism of the Holy Ghost, administered by the laying on of hands. The authority to attend to these sacred ordinances had been restored in this day of the world through the instrumentality of the Prophet Joseph Smith, through whose ministry also the Church of Christ had been restored, with all its officers, gifts, powers and blessings. As evidence of the prophetic power of Joseph Smith, he read the revelation given December 25th, 1832, foretelling the great civil war which commenced nearly thirty years after, and which was published extensively long before the war, in many parts of the world. This prediction which pointed out the very spot where it should commence was treated with scorn and derision up to the time when its fulfillment commenced. The details of the prophecy were fulfilled. The Confederacy called upon Great Britain for assistance, as foretold in this revelation. Hundreds of other prophecies of this man of God had been fulfilled, or were in process, of fulfillment. The secret combinations now working rain among the nations were foretold by the Prophet Joseph. The speaker referred to the discoveries of recent years which corroborated the history of the ancient inhabitants of this country contained in the Book of Mormon, which Joseph Smith translated by the power of God. He read from that book predictions concerning the present age which were coming to pass and closed with a strong testimony to the truth of this work and its principles.

President Wilford Woodruff: The leaders of this Church had always maintained the right to worship God according to the dictates of their consciences. This was according to the Constitution of the land and according to the will of God who gives to all men their agency, but holds them responsible for their acts. We claim the same privilege that we accord to others. On this principle we have embraced the fulness of the gospel of Jesus Christ which God has revealed through the Prophet Joseph Smith. In reading the publications of the day the speaker found that many men breathed forth a bitter and murderous spirit against the Latter-day Saints. He wished to say that the principles of the gospel could not be destroyed. They were beyond the reach of men. There was one principle he wanted to impress with power upon the mind of every Saint of God who dwells on the earth; he wanted to impress it upon the rulers of our nation, and upon all the inhabitants of this land, and of all other nations, priest and people, namely: that the love of God, faith, hope and charity, and the gospel of Jesus Christ, with all the ordinances thereof, with the Priesthood—which holds power both in the heavens and on the earth—and the principles instituted for the salvation and exaltation of the children of men—these principles could not be annihilated. They are principles no combinations of men could destroy; they are principles that could never die. Prisons could not confine them; fire could not burn them; the sea could not drown them; no storm could wreck them, no gulf could confine them; no grave could entomb them, because they are eternal, and everlasting principles and would exist for ever. They are beyond the reach of man to handle or to destroy. Men might be put in prison who possessed them; men might be burned at the stake who advocated them, but it was not in the power of the whole world put together to destroy them. They are as firm and independent—so far as the power and agency of men are concerned—as the pillars of heaven. And the speaker wanted the inhabitants of the earth to hear these things and to remember them. The inhabitants of the earth had tried for generations to destroy these principles, but it mattered not what might take place on the earth—republics might be destroyed, empires broken up, thrones cast down, the sun turned to darkness, the moon to blood, the stars fall from heaven, and heaven and earth itself pass away—those eternal principles could never be destroyed. He would to God that the world understood these things. No power could turn aside the decrees of the God of Israel.

When Jesus came to Judea among his own people all that he did was imputed to an evil source. He was the most unpopular man in the land. The Jews thought if they could put him to death His work would be destroyed. But Jesus when put to death held the same keys as when in the body, preached to the spirits in prison, returned and took up His body and ascended to heaven. Not one of his preachers was destroyed. His Apostles were persecuted and slain but the principles they taught and the keys they held were not destroyed. It costs something to shed the blood of apostles and prophets. The Jews had been trampled under foot of nations for eighteen centuries because the blood of the Lord's anointed was upon them and their children. They had not got over it yet. He bore testimony that God had commenced to set up His Kingdom, as predicted by the Prophets. The Territory, once a desert now filled with towns and villages and the fruits of labor, shows a fulfillment of the words of Isaiah and it was the work of God. But the same spirit that was among the Jews in the time of Jesus and the Apostles was in the "Christian" world, and thirsted for the blood of this people because they differed from the world in their religion. But every weapon formed against Zion will be broken, and every nation that rises up against her will be swept away. All things are in the hands of the Almighty, and no power can hinder or delay the work of God. The principles of our Government will live though wickedness may prevail to destroy the nation; they cannot be destroyed, because they are true and of God. He bore testimony to the truth of this gospel and Priesthood, and that they will continue and prevail forever.

Choir sang the anthem:

"Glory to God in the highest."

Benediction by Counselor D. H. Wells.
