EVENING NEWS.

Friday, September 26, 1884.

PAROWAN STAKE CONFERENCE.

Was held in Parowan, Sept. 20th and 21st, 1884. Present on the stand: President Thomas J. Jones and Counselors Edward Dalton and Morgan Richards, jr., members of the High Council. Bishops of Wards, Patriarch Henry Lunt and Elder John Berry of Kanarra. The statistical and Bishops' reports of the various wards and associations in the Stake indicated that the people were in a prosperous condition, and had an earnest desire to serve the Lord and keep his commandments.

Some timely and most interesting instructions were given by President T. J. Jones and Counselors Dalton and Richards, Bishops of the Wards, also High Councilors Thomas Durham, George Holman, John Kyte and John P. Jones, Bishop Willis of Kanarra not being able to attend conference having met with an accident while after wood. Elder John Berry partially reported that ward. The leading subjects treated upon were the value of dreams and visions; the necessity of having the Spirit of the Lord to be our constant guide; learning to choose the good and refuse the evil, and love each other; force of example; honoring and obeying the laws of God; word of wisdom; tithes and offerings and many other principles were spoken upon and portrayed in such a manner as to encourage the Saints to be valiant for the cause of truth. The general and local authorities were presented and unanimously sustained, as also home missionaries for the stake. The singing during conference by the Parowan choir, under the leadership of Brother Thomas Durham, was most excellent and added greatly to the enjoyment of those present.

WILLIAM H. HOLYOAK, Stake Clerk.

Parowan, Utah, Sept. 22, 1884.

Y. L. M. I. QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

The Quarterly Conference of the Y. L. M. I. A. of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion was held in the Assembly Hall September 20th, President Mary A. Freeze Presiding.

Choir sang "Joy to the world." Prayer by Sister Hannah T. King. Second hymn, "We're not ashamed to own our Lord."

After the reading of the minutes of the preceding conference, which were accepted, the reports from the various wards numbering fifteen were read. The attendance was the largest we have ever had as a Young Ladies' Conference, the Assembly Hall being well filled in the lower part, and a few in the gallery from choice. This was very encouraging, and was due in a great measure no doubt, to the interest manifested by President Mary A. Freeze visiting in person previously, every association and by her own personal counsel and zeal awakening a kindred spirit in some who have heretofore been indifferent.

The resignation of Councilor Louie Felt was presented and accepted, not without a feeling of deep regret.

President Freeze said she felt unprepared to choose one to fill the vacancy and would wait until the Spirit of the Lord should direct in the matter. Recommended that teachers be appointed to visit the houses of the Saints and invite new comers to meet with their Associations. She had done so and realized that strangers appreciated such attentions and introduction among strangers.

Sister Hannah L. King was called upon to address the congregation and gave much good advice, especially referring to deportment and genuine courtesy of manner and spirit. In conclusion said, if you will live the principles of the Gospel, leaving out the other schools of manners, that will educate you completely. Let us contemplate entering the presence of holy beings and reflect what will be necessary for us to learn.

Dr. Maggie B. Shipp took up the same subject, and added the counsel that we maintain our best deportment among those nearest and dearest to us at home. Counseled the sisters against ever quiting fault with the brethren, to have patience and faith for the seeming errors of others.

Sister Emily Richards, late of Ogden, being invited to speak did so with much gentle wisdom, referring to her meeting with the Saints in this same place before, while she presided over the Young Ladies in Ogden. In concluding her remarks said she had always kept in mind the thought that grumbling was the first step toward apostacy, because she had noticed that grumblers always apostatized.

Nellie Colebrook spoke with great eloquence and pathos, that reached every heart, upon her own experience in relation to the influence the Gospel had upon herself. Said that God had blessed them in the Association of the Fourteenth Ward; that their first prayer was for union of heart, and it had been richly answered. Exhorted the young to be faithful and humble.

Dr. Ellis R. Shipp next addressed the meeting, and wondered how those who had so much leisure time could neglect these assemblages, and that if these instructions and influences are necessary to the unmarried, they are more so to the married sisters. Had enjoyed and endorsed all that had been said, and desired all to put from their hearts whatever would prevent their having a heaven here upon earth.

President Mary A. Freeze made further reflections upon the good work already effected by these organizations, and had observed that the young women who had been most willing to fulfil all the laws of our Father were those who had been faithful members of the Y. L. M. I. A. Said these meetings had checked the stream of opposite influences to a great extent. Told the young sisters that Joseph F. Smith had said if any felt doubtful of possessing a knowledge of this work, but believed it to be true, to rise and testify to that belief and God would fill the believer with knowledge. Related some trying experiences of Elder Edwin Woolley. Thought it wisdom for the Association to hold annual meetings and invite matrons. Said she held her spiritual duties above all the every-day affairs of life, and felt sure the Lord approved.

Sister Watmough introduced a book for young ladies, referred to the subjects treated on, and also to the evil of fictitious literature, which would mislead and pervert the mind; also spoke upon refinement of manner, etc.

Meeting was adjourned for three months.

Choir sang Doxology.

Benediction by Dr. Maggie B. Shipp.

The Central Telegraph Office, London, employs 60 women. Their wages range from £70 to £250 a year, with tea provided for the whole staff and breakfast and tea for the early comers. No food is allowed to leave the office during working hours, but dinner is served on the premises.

Mr. Nicholas Anceregna, who died two months since at Buenos Ayres, was probably the richest farmer in the world. His executors report his rural estates as follows: Land, 1,710 square miles; cows, 153,000; sheep, 410,000. He also owned much house property in Buenos Ayres, and his assets have been valued at £3,000,000 sterling. He inherited £300,000 from his father thirty years ago.

Mrs. Garfield, the mother of the late President, can be seen almost any day walking about the grounds on Mentor farm, her hair on Sundays being dressed as of Mondays. On Sunday, Sept. 7, she walked to church without assistance, and sat in an slight iron, the family carriage with little assistance. She has passed her 83rd birthday, and seems to be in the prime of her mental and physical vigor.
