THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

This Evening's Service—At this evening's service of the Congregation Montefiore the rabbi will speak on "Except the Lord build a house, they labor in vain who build it."

Files on Power Water—A. W. Gallacher has filed application for six cubic feet of water from Middle canyon creek, Tooele county, for power and lighting purposes, 250 horse power being desired.

Death of Louise Naylor—Miss Louise C. Naylor, aged 47, died suddenly Wednesday evening of acute nephritis. The funeral will be held Sunday at 1 p. m. from the residence, 1175 east Eleventh South street.

Dr. Burdette to Lecture—Dr. Charles A. Burdette, president of the American Institute of Applied Psychology at Cleveland, Ohio, is to lecture next Sunday evening in Unity hall on "Mind, Brain and Body."

Lectures to Bank Clerks—Attorney E. C. Ashton lectured on building contracts before the Salt Lake bank clerks Thursday evening at the Y. M. C. A., special attention being paid to "offers and acceptances," "sealed instruments," "considerations," and the like.

Regents Ratify Sale—The regents of the Orphans' Home and Day Nursery ratified Thursday afternoon the sale of the old building on State road to the county for $10,000. The report of the soliciting committee showed that the financial aid sought for is coming up to expectations.

Check Finally Returned—A check for about $2,600 in favor of R. J. Martin of Long Beach, Cal., which was found about a month ago in a mail box in Ogden, has been sent to Long Beach, where Mr. Martin was found by the postoffice inspector. Upon proper identification Mr. Martin will receive the check.

Hansen Stirs Things Up—State Dairy and Food Commissioner Willard Hansen returned Thursday evening from Cache county, where he gave the slaughter house question careful examination. He also looked after the restaurants in Logan, several being ordered to clean up under penalty of the law. Mr. Hansen found people disposed to comply with the law.

Trustees Meet Next Week—The trustees of the Utah Agricultural college will decide at their regular meeting next week whether they will erect a power plant at the college or purchase power from the Telluride Power company. Inasmuch as the legislature appropriated money for the specific purpose of erecting a college power plant, a legal objection has been raised against buying the power from the company.

Articles on Utah—A series of letters by William E. Curtis, the well known correspondent, is appearing daily in the Chicago Record-Herald on Utah and the Mormons. The articles are given lead position on the front page and are over two columns in length. Last Saturday the correspondent dealt with the free daily recitals at the tabernacle and the way the Church calls missionaries to go abroad and preach the gospel. The article is a refreshing change to the average "first impression." In addition to the story it carries biographies of Organist J. J. McClellan and Tracy Y. Cannon and Edward P. Kimball, his assistants.

COUNCILMEN WERE TOO BUSY TO ACT

Committee Sessions of Last Night Farcical—Everything Put Aside.

NO ACTION ON MORAN BILL

Matter Again Goes Over and May Finally Land in Court for Settlement.

Because the city council committees were too busy talking politics to give their time in discussing and acting upon matters concerning the people's interests, several important matters were passed up Thursday night. Patrick J. Moran's bill of $20,458.76 for repairing the wooden stave pipe line is still left in the air. The committees neglected to make the necessary changes which must be made in the meat inspection ordinance. The Fernstrom resolution against slot machines was ignored.

It is probable that the special committee will recommend to the city council next Monday night that Moran's bill is excessive and that it be denied, although a majority report is not ready, because T. R. Black and L. D. Martin refused to sign. If the council adopt the committee report, the contractor will have to appeal to the courts in order to collect the bill. The report was signed by Councilmen J. D. Murdoch, G. H. Raybould and L. E. Hall.

On the ground that nothing could be done in these matters because there is no money left in the city treasury by the "American" party politicians, the committee slapped the residents of several districts in the face by referring important questions to the financial committee, so that they will be held over until next year. The petition for sidewalks on all streets and avenues between Sixth and Ninth South streets, from Ninth to Eleventh East street, was turned down and will be buried for another year. A quietus was put on the petition to pave Thirteenth East street from South Temple to Fifth South; Second South from Thirteenth East to the University of Utah grounds, and Fifth South street from Thirteenth East to the entrance of Mt. Olivet cemetery. The matter was held up indefinitely, awaiting the report of the city engineer on how much of the asphalt paving bill for the jobs the city should pay.

Because there are few "American" party voters living in the vicinity of Sixteenth West and Fourth North streets, the petition by property owners for an arclight at the bridge across the Jordan river was turned down, in spite of the urgent necessity for an arc light in that place.

THE BEST PLASTER.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Liniment and bound on to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. This liniment also relives rheumatic pains and is certain to please anyone suffering from that disease. Sold by all druggists.

LABORER HEIR TO FORTUNE.

Battista Penna, Ignorant of His Luck, Sought by Officials.

Battista Penna, an Italian laborer, who is working in the vicinity of Salt Lake City, is wanted by his family in Italy, where he has fallen heir to a fortune. He has not been heard from by his relatives for about seven years, and recently a search for him has been instituted by the Italian consul at Denver, as he was known to have gone direct to Colorado from Italy. It is said that he is now in or near Salt Lake City, and entirely ignorant of his good fortune. Only a few days ago Al Scarcelli, who runs the cafe at 143 west Second South, says he was in his place, and he expects to locate him in a short time.

BLIND HOLD RECEPTION.

Governor Spry Praises Endeavor of Those Who Seek to Give Aid.

A well attended and highly interesting housewarming was given Thursday evening in the new workshops for the adult blind in the rear of the Lion house, where not only blind people were present from Salt Lake, but from Ogden and other places. The apartments had been tastefully decorated for the occasion, there was a profusion of flowers, and the evening was so much enjoyed that the distressing affliction resting upon so many of those attending the function was for the time practically lost sight of.

Prominent among those present at the reception were Gov. William Spry, ex-officio chairman of the blind commission; Mrs. Anna K. Hardy, one of the four members of the commission recently appointed by the governor, Dr. J. E. Talmage, Miss Maud May Babcock, Mrs. Herman Baer, Miss Minette Baer, one of the readers for the blind at the public library; Mrs. Lena C. Olmsted, Mrs. J. J. Snider, Mrs. R. B. Thompson, reader for the blind at the public library.

The program was well prepared. It opened with a hymn followed by a prayer from Nels S. Larsen, and "Home, Sweet Home" from an orchestra composed of Messrs. Standing, Fowler, Freeman and Timpson, all blind, but capable musicians. Mrs. E. E. Riches, an English woman, spoke on "Our Workshop," with special reference to the excellent work being done in Salt Lake. She was formerly an instructor in the school for the blind at Birmingham. There was a vocal duet from the Fowler sisters, followed by an address from the governor. He expressed his satisfaction with the good beginning made in this special line of work, hoping that a larger appropriation would be made by the next legislature. He said the blind had the sympathy of the people of the state. Gov. Spry did not think this would interfere at all with the blind asylum at Ogden, as this field of effort operated on an entirely different basis. He referred to the excellent work done by Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Snider, Mr. Jenkinson, Prof. and Mrs. Talmage, and others. Mr. Jenkinson stated there were 197 blind people in Utah, 109 of them in Salt Lake City. Other numbers on the program were: Comic song, Harold Ansell; recitation, Miss Maud May Babcock; song, Mrs. E. E. Riches; address, President S. W. Jenkinson; violin solo, Albert Freeman; duet, Larsen sisters; several selections by the blind orchestra.

GOVERNOR TO WORK HERE.

Will Give His Attention to Irrigation Matters Concerning Utah.

Gov. Spry considers the irrigation interests of Utah of more importance than his attendance at the Inland Waterways convention in New Orleans, which will be made the occasion for one of the greatest fetes in honor of President Taft, governors of the states of the Union, senators and congressmen. Utah's chief executive has decided to give up his trip to the south, and will remain here with Senator Sutherland in order to receive and welcome a number of United States senators who are making a tour of the west and schooling themselves in irrigation matters.

Gov. Spry will visit St. George in November, with A. C. Nelson, state superintendent of public instruction.
