On Monday afternoon Isaac Purdie, a well known resident of Pixie City, was killed by being struck with a falling pole he was using for top at a bee of hay. Walter and Arthur Brunswick were delivering a load of hay from the tithing office to Purdie's barn. Arthur went into the barn where Mr. and Mrs. Purdie and Byron Weatherstone were taking. Mr. Purdie entered for the house when Walter Brunswick called to the boys holding pole, striking Mr. Purdie on the right side of his head. Purdie only lived a few minutes, his skull being crushed to the brain. Drs. Allen and Hyde were telephoned to and dressed the wounds. The verdict of the coroner's jury was "accidental death," and exonerated Walter Brunswick. Deceased was aged 52 and leaves a wife and small child in Pixie City, a son in Idaho and daughter in Ogden. Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. today at the Pixie City meeting house.

Elias Harris died at the Tennie block Sunday evening. It is understood his death was caused by liquor poisoning. Harris was aged 21, and was brought from Portage, March 5, to a friend's house on Thirteenth street on Sunday evening. He appeared to be such a character that his care was needed in a serious manner. He had to be dragged down to prevent further injury to himself, and a few hours after being brought to the friend's house, he was removed to the Tennie block where he died an awful death.

On Monday morning Alf Ellingford, who was injured at the Paver Dam, died at the hospital. A rock which required four men to remove it fell upon him; one leg was broken in two places, his arm was broken and he sustained internal injuries. He was the most seriously injured man who was taken to the hospital. His mother was at his bedside. He was a single man, 23 years of age; his home was in Morgan to which place his remains were removed.

The long continued contest over city affairs came to an end Monday night by the city council confirming the mayor's appointments: Henry W. Williams, street superintendent; A. W. Helms, city engineer; W. McKay, sanitary inspector; Dr. C. E. Conklin, city physician; Dave Moore, poll tax assessor.

The county commissioners have passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That travel is hereby suspended on the Ogden canyon road between Wilson's mill and the mouth of Ogden canyon each day (Sundays excepted) between 12:10 and 12:40 p.m., and also between 6:10 and 6:40 p.m.

Twenty cars were run in yesterday by city officers. They were found at Mikkelsen's barn. As they had arrived in town but a short time previous Judge Hulaniski discharged them all except one, who had been run in before, and he was given fifteen days.

At Baker City, Or., on March 31st, Joseph Barton and Mrs. Hattie E. Griffith were married. Both were residents of Ogden. Mr. Barton recently took a position in the employ of the Oregon Lumber company.

Messrs. H. F. Emerson, David Evans and E. Stratford, members of the board of directors of the school for the deaf and dumb and blind were in Salt Lake yesterday attending a meeting of the board.

PROVO.

Provo, Utah, April 15, 1896.

City Council.

At the city council session on Monday night the joint committee, to whom was referred the petition to Wilson & Neilson for a license to sell liquor in the Dagnie building, reported adversely and recommended that a license be granted. This is a matter that has been before the council for several weeks on account of the petitions presented by citizens asking that no license be granted to sell liquor in said building. A minority report was presented by six members of the joint committee, George T. Fox, recommending that the license be not granted, on the ground that the citizens had petitioned the council not to grant a license for a liquor business in said building, and attending to nothing else, the building is located within 100 rods of a house of worship. The majority report was adopted by a vote of seven to three.

A resolution was presented by Councilor Beesley (Democrat) calling the mayor to appoint Jesse J. Knight city attorney, and attending to nothing else. The majority appointee is Mr. Whitemiller, who in the majority of the council has so far proven to be Democratic. Both gentlemen are Democrats, as the Democrats have proved to be first, last, and all the time, Republicans. This position provoked a great amount of discussion, and was adopted by a strict party vote.

Gold Galore.

F. W. C. Hadenbrook of this city has been interested in the mineral claims of the opening of the Uncompahgre reservation, for some time past. The reason for this is that he secured copies of the issues of Bishop Tebbs' publication, Mineral Resources. Under the conditions of the abandonment of the reservation, as is well known, white prospectors are not permitted to enter upon the reservation for mineral purposes, and Mr. Hadenbrook has more mineral folks of late to whom he has given information than any other one, as he has secured the services of well known Salt Lake capitalists who are now working the necessary capital to secure such privileges from the government as will give them the right to search for and mine the precious metals on that part of the reservation which will be opened to the mine from which Bishop Tebbs is said to have brought nuggets full of gold in the early days of Utah.

Chamber of Commerce.

A meeting of the chamber of commerce was held in the court house Monday evening for the purpose of taking steps to secure the benefits of the Denver, Western extension, proposed to be constructed from this valley to Park City, by Porto City. Several speeches were made and the following committee was appointed to confer with the railway officials: S. R. Jones, L. Holbrook, J. C. Graham, John Colaw and A. O. Smoot.

The Drowned Woman.

The verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of Mrs. Charles Johnson, who was found dead in the ditch near her home yesterday morning, was to the effect that she came to her death from accidental drowning. Before Mrs. Johnson's marriage to Mr. Johnson she was the widow of Sidney Duke of the First ward of this city, she having nine children.
