JUDGE KING IS HERE.

He and Judge Morris Exchange Courts for Today.

NOW A DAMAGE SUIT FOR $5,000.

Against the City Railroad Company—The Jury in the "Herald" Libel Case Discharged.

Chief Justice Merritt and Judge King exchanged places today. The former left for Provo this morning to hear the case in the legal arguments upon the issues in the Lawson vs the Hayes ejectment suit, and the latter arrived in Salt Lake and commenced hearing the cases of the Third district.

THE GRAND JURY WORK.

When Judge King went upon the bench at 10 o'clock he inquired whether the grand jury had completed its labors. Foreman Cullen replied that the jury had agreed upon the indictments in two cases, and they would be ready to report in a few minutes. The judge said he would wait.

The jury in the case of the People vs Hector Davis, robbery, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Hannah Dorsander, tried on an indictment charging embezzlement, was acquitted.

Decision in the Jordan Dam Case.

This morning the stockholders, numbering about 100, from both sides of the Salt Lake County canyons and other county people, in the controversy regarding the Jordan dam dispute, came to hear a decision on the question of whether the Salt Lake county people should have the water. The hearing was by L. W. Shurtliff and Amos D. Dunbar, referees that Judge Boreman appointed. Judge Dunbar presided. The decision will not be made public until April 1st. The point in dispute is whether the water users should be allowed to take water from the river during the month of April, or whether the dam should be built at once. The decision will be made public on April 1st.

THE WOMEN'S COUNCILS.

Mrs. Cannon's Work with Sisters from the East.

Her Work and that of Other Prominent Ladies in the Women's Meetings at Atlanta and Washington.

Mrs. E. S. Wells arrived home this morning from the East, after an absence of seven weeks. She was selected one of the delegates to represent Utah at the Women's Congress at Atlanta, Georgia, and to the National Council of Women at Washington, D. C. She left on the 27 January with Mrs. Martha Hughes Cannon, who was the representative from Utah at
