Monster Benefit in Behalf of Ethel Brandon, the Actress.

A MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

Ranch Destroyed By Fire—Miscellaneous Paragraphs From Exchanges.

Pueblo, Colo., is becoming a real shooting center and her wheelmen are building a fine track.

Colorado Springs expects to have a mission relay for the big conventions by August.

One thousand head of sheep were purchased at Hugo, Colo., last week and ship 4 to Clackson, Neb.

Wyoming is expecting an immigration of school people along the line of the Burlington extension during this month.

Ground has been broken for the new hotel to use not electric light plant at the deaf and blind institute at Colorado Springs.

The Columbine school at Orchard Mesa, near Grand Junction, Colo., has been equipped with a new school library of 75 volumes.

Alfalfa was never so far advanced at this date in Bear county, Colo., as it is this season. It will be in full bloom by May 20. Wheat is also looking remarkably fine, while fruit prospects are also reported excellent.

The house on the ranch known as the Bear Roots ranch near Laramie, Wyo., was destroyed by fire on Saturday night. It was occupied by Horace Greet. No one has been living there for some time.

Hon. Tom Rooney, says the Rock Springs (Wyo.) Miner, hurried back from Salt Lake City to Newcastle to put on the market 14,000 head of sheep which he has been feeding there. At present prices he will realize $14,000 more than he would a month ago had he marketed them then.

It is estimated by competent parties that Colorado is annually sending over $10,000 to eastern states, principally Illinois, for condensed milk and evaporated cream. Steps are now being taken to raise the necessary capital to establish a condensed milk factory in Colorado.

Sheep shearers, says the Weiser (Idaho) Signal, are beginning to make their appearance, preparatory to harvesting another season's raw material for the railroads to haul East, for the manufacturer to make into cloth for the railroads to haul back again for us to buy with the money received for the original raw material.

Although eighty bodies have been incinerated in the crematory of the San Francisco Cremation society at Cypress Lawn cemetery, San Mateo, the dedatory exercises of the crematory were held until Sunday afternoon. A mock incineration showing how bodies are treated was given for the instruction of those who were present.

The Boise (Idaho) Statesman says: Lieutenant-Governor Frank R. Wills arrived yesterday from Challis. He estimates the damage by the recent fire at Challis at $40,000. He figures the loss of his hotel and contents at $25,000. There was $16,000 insurance on the building. The Incendiary fire other says the Wheeler building was the only other building insured. The loss on it was about $1,600; insurance, $1,000.

The story of Mrs. L. H. Blackwell's and condition has excited much sympathy for the afflicted actress, says the San Francisco Chronicle. The friends of Ethel Brandon, as the sick woman is known in theatrical circles, remembering the many charitable acts performed by her, intend serving in a quiet—that manner that her efforts were not appreciated. Plans for a monster benefit have been drafted that bid fair promise to yield a golden harvest.

A good deal of excitement prevails in Livingston, Montana, over the mysterious disappearance of W. S. Gardner, a line rivetter employed on the Northern Pacific railroad. About ten days ago Gardner secured a few days lay-off, saying he was going over to Butte on a visit. He wired his wife, who was then visiting in Tacoma, that he would meet her in Helena and return to Livingston. He failed to keep his appointment, and nothing has been heard of him since. It is now believed that he has met with foul play.

Work on the Sagauche reservoir site, says the Colorado Oracmod, is being pushed rapidly forward. Nineteen teams with scrapers are continually at work. The trench in which the discharge pipes are to be laid are better than this trench will be filled with concrete, which will cost us the heavy iron outlet pipe. The stones for the masonry work are being dressed for the walls. The rock used strongly resembles granite and is taken from the mountain side at the southwestern end of the dam.

The issue of $71,000 city bonds has not been sold yet, remarks the Boise (Idaho) Statesman. Several bids have been received, but they were unacceptable. At Los Angeles and a New York firm bid a little above par, but they asked excessive commissions. A Philadelphia broker bid 99½ cents, but the law prohibits the selling of bonds below par. The city is now negotiating with a New York broker who offers par and only wants a nominal sum for handling them. The bonds are deposited in banks here, and will be sent to the New York broker as soon as he deposits $71,000 payable to this city.
