THE EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, - - - - - May 20, 1869.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—To-night Mr. Charles Wheatleigh will make his first appearance at the Theatre, in the comedy of "Sam." He will be supported by Miss Lockhart, Miss Adams, Messrs. Lindsay, Margetts, Graham, Hardie and others.

MISSIONARIES LEFT.—Several of the missionaries, residing in this city, started for the terminus this morning, en route to their fields of labor in the States and Europe. We wish them God speed.

OMAHA ITEMS.—The Omaha Daily Herald of the 15th inst. says:

"An agent of the Cuban Insurgents is reported as on his way to Omaha for the purpose of opening a recruiting office for the enlistment of those who are thrown out of employment by the completion of the Union Pacific."

The same paper says that:

"The notorious Jack Brisbin, lately from Promontory Point, in the vicinity of which, according to his own statement, he lately shot four men, was arrested, yesterday, on the charge of carrying concealed weapons."

INFORMATION WANTED. — The parents and relatives of Joseph Yarnold are concerned about his whereabouts and safety. For four months previous to its completion he had been working on the Railroad contract of West & Farr, and when last heard of, was night cook in one of the camps at the Promontory. Three weeks ago yesterday, it is believed that he was paid off and started for his home in this city, but nothing whatever has been learned concerning him. If any person, knowing anything about him, will communicate their knowledge to John C. Grahaun, of this city, they may relieve the anxiety of his almost disconsolate parents.

Daily Telegraph please copy.

POLICE.—A half breed, named Enoch Abel, was brought before Justice Clinton, at one o'clock to-day, charged with belaboring an Indian over the head and otherwise maltreating him. Enoch pleaded, in extenuation, that the Indian had sold him a pistol, representing it to be in good order, but when he came to fire it off all six barrels went off at once, and the whole thing bursted. The Doctor, not appreciating Enoch's mode of administering chastisement without authority, fined him $10.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A. U. Crosby, of Knoxville, Iowa, wishes to know the whereabouts of Thomas Auten. When last heard from he was at Sweet Water Mines. Any information concerning him will be thankfully received by Mr. Crosby.

CO-OPERATION IN THE FIFTEENTH WARD.—We are pleased to announce that the Co-operative Store in the 15th Ward is in operation, and doing a very fair business. The Ward is in a flourishing condition.

CALLED.—Elder Joseph D. Smith, of Fillmore, called this morning. He reports all well in that region, good feelings and good health prevail among the people. There are no signs of grasshoppers at present, crops look fine. The prospects for an abundant harvest never were better in any season than now. A late frost somewhat injured the peaches, but the apple crop, judging from present appearances, will be an average one.

NEVADA ITEMS.—The Territorial Enterprise, Virginia City, Nevada, of the 15th instant, says many persons are returning from White Pine; many more would do so, but they are ashamed of backing down, while others would be glad to leave if they had the means to get away with. Even the gamblers are leaving, which is considered an infallible sign of failing prosperity. The price of lots is falling tremendously, some for which $5,000 were refused a month ago, will not now fetch $250.

The same paper, referring to what it calls the "camel nuisance," says the camels have made their re-appearance on the Carson River, more numerous than ever, endangering the lives and limbs of travellers along that route by causing their teams to take fright. The Grand Jury of the district in which these animals are at large is called upon to adopt measures to abate the nuisance.

DOINGS AT JUNCTION CITY.—The Omaha Herald of the 14th instant, contains a statement made by a Mr. Henry Wolfe, respecting treatment he received while passing near Corinne, or Junction City, enroute from California to the East, which speaks volumes about the manners and morals which prevail in that delightful burgh. Mr. Wolfe says that on alighting from Wells, Fargo's coach at the end of the U. P. track, about half a mile from Junction City, on the 5th instant, he was seized and thrown into a wagon by J. T. Fyfer, Patsey Marley and Wells Riley. The ruffians drove back to the city and conducted him into a small room, when, producing a rope, which they placed around his neck, they threatened to hang him unless he gave them every thing valuable he possessed. Under these unpleasant circumstances he gave them $65 in gold, 7 in greenbacks, his valise, which with its contents he valued at $200, an overcoat worth $70 and a U.P.R.R. ticket from Junction City to Omaha. When Mr. Wolfe reached Brigham City he obtained a warrant, and was directed to the U.S. Marshal in Corrinne; he found the deputy Marshal, but he refused to serve the warrant unless he and his aid were paid $100 in cash. Having being robbed of all his means he was unable to pay the money, and was compelled to go east without obtaining any assistance or redress, carrying his warrant along with him.

Died:

In the 14th Ward, in this city, on the 16th inst., Mary Rosetta, daughter of Henry J. and Elsie A. Farst. She was born Nov. 21st 1868.
