SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. It possesses the soothing and healing properties of balm, herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every fibrous contamination, and in this respect differs from every other known remedy. Its success during the past year has led to its sale from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. Testimonials have been waited upon by numbers of national reputation who have been cured by this agent, and who have, at considerable expense, published their testimony, proclaiming the good news to their fellow-sufferers. Hundreds of physicians, clergymen, lawyers, and others, are willingly and frequently say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure." Not one case in a hundred that it is applied fails to cure, and we believe that it is the most speedy, sure, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me fortunate.
HENRY WELLS, of Wells, Fargo & Co.

IT has cured me after twelve years of uninterrupted suffering.
GEO. W. HOCHSTETTER, Waltham, Mass.

I FOLLOW the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
D. W. GRAY, M. D., Muscatine, Iowa.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have expressed to me their high estimate of its value and good effects with them.
WM. BOWEN, 125 First St., St. Louis.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself permanently cured. I have since recommended over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. A. WHITTIER, 138 Hanover Ave., Boston.

WE have sold Sanford's Radical Cure for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
A. B. BALDWIN & CO., Wasseyton, Ind.

THE cure effected in my case by Sanford's Radical Cure was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had suffered without relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be true, therefore made it difficult to it. I am, Seth J. Thomas, Chemist, of the Chem. Bostonian.
GEORGE F. DINSMORE, Druggist, Boston.

Each package of Sanford's Radical Cure contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

Stoppage of Spinning Mills.

LONDON, 5.—The Preston Operatives Association has issued a notice pointing out that 164 pairs of spinning mills are stopped in the town, that it is feared that an infinitely worse condition of things is imminent, and urging that short time be generally adopted in Lancashire. The First Step.

The pontifical choir will sing the music at the consecration of the church at Canosciero, leaving Rome for the first time. The Pope will be represented by Cardinal Monaco la Valleta. The Fatal Steamboat Collision—Log of the "Bywell Castle"—Seven Hundred Reported Drowned.

The following is the log of the steamer Bywell Castle, which ran down the steamer Princess Alice, on the Thames, on Tuesday evening. The master and pilot were on the upper bridge, and the lookout on the top gallant forecastle. A light air prevailed. The weather was a little hazy.

At 7.45 p.m. proceeded at half speed down Gallion's Reach. When about the centre of the Reach, observed the excursion steamer coming up Barking Reach, showing her red and masthead lights. We ported our helm to keep over towards Tripcock Point. As vessels neared we observed that the other steamer had ported her helm. Immediately afterwards saw that she had starboarded her helm and was trying to cross our bows, showing her green light close under our port bow. Seeing that a collision was inevitable we stopped our engines and reversed them at full speed. The two vessels came in collision, the bow of the Bywell Castle cutting into the steamer with a dreadful crash.

We took immediate measures for saving life by the hauling up over our bows several passengers, throwing overboard rope ends, life buoys, a head ladder, and several planks, and getting out three boats, at the same time keeping the whistle blowing loudly for assistance, which was rendered by several boats from the shore, and a boat from another steamer.

The excursion steamer, which turned out to be the Princess Alice, turned over and sank under our bows. We succeeded in rescuing a great many passengers, and anchored for the night.

No log of the Princess Alice has been made up, nor has the captain survived to give an account of her course. The collision will be the subject of a board of trade inquiry immediately. The Bywell Castle received no damage whatever.

Later estimates number the persons drowned by the collision at between 600 and 700, the majority of the estimates favoring the latter number. A diver says he felt corpses packed four and five deep in the cabin of the Princess Alice.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SHADY GROVE, Hickman Co., Tenn. August 29, 1878.

Editors Deseret News:

Dear Sir:—Finding but little opening in the St. Louis district for public preaching, I took steamer on May 18th, 200 miles down the Mississippi to Cairo, at which point I changed steamers and sailed up the beautiful Ohio, 50 miles, to Paducah, Kentucky, in the vicinity of which I held seven meetings, which were well attended, and made a few friends; two families promising to send for books, and still continue their investigations. At one place the pastor and most of his flock came out to hear me. From the experience I had in the above State, I believe several good efficient Elders could find a good opportunity there to sound the gospel trumpet.

As I was alone and as Elder E. Stevenson, in Tennessee, was in the same situation, I thought proper to join him. Taking steamer for 200 miles up the Cumberland river, I arrived in Nashville, the state capital of Tennessee, which contains 35,000 people. Laying over for a day, I called upon the Mayor, who received me kindly. He had many questions to ask respecting our people and doctrines, and even expressed a desire to hear us preach. He opened the federal court room to me, and according to announcement, on the evening of the 12th of June, I addressed a very respectable and attentive audience on the subject of the gospel. Passing on some 65 miles southwest, by rail and wagon, I joined Elder E. Stevenson at this place on June 18. He and I labored together in the counties of Hickman, Murry and Lewis for some 35 days, holding in the meantime 27 meetings, with an average attendance of 35 strangers.

Many acknowledge that our doctrines are scriptural and true, but they are slow to embrace them. Some, however, are believing, and we anticipate a harvest of souls in due time. It takes, now in the age of infidelity and unbelief, a vast amount of preaching, both in public and private, and much by the spirit and power of God, to convince people of the truth. We have, in this district, two branches of the Church, numbering 33 members, all in good standing, six of whom have been added during the last six months, by baptism. Present prospects are that one or two families will emigrate to Zion this fall. During the last 35 days Elder Stevenson and myself have performed a journey of over 400 miles, (going and returning) on horseback, without "purse or scrip," to Haywood Valley, Ga., where we had the pleasure of meeting Pres. J. Morgan and several of our brethren from home, in a three day's conference. We had a good conference, and many Saints and strangers rejoice in the truth. While absent we held 24 meetings and preached the gospel to over 1,500 strangers, the most of whom had never had the privilege of hearing it before. We found several families who believed our testimonies, and who are investigating still further. Distributed by the way side 150 circulars on the first principles of the gospel.

Generally speaking we find the people of the south to be warm-hearted and hospitable.

In many places we find much opposition from the clergy. They are like the dog in the manger, they will not receive the word of truth, nor allow their followers to even hear if they can prevent it. During our absence we found and made many friends and few enemies.

From what I can judge of the people of the south, I am satisfied that there are many honest hearted people who will yet receive the truth when presented to them. There are tens of thousands of people in the southern States who have never as yet heard the sound of the gospel. On one occasion in North Georgia, our animals were stolen from the stable by wicked and reckless men, who shaved their manes and tales, and otherwise disfigured them, and turned them into the woods. Some few winked at the deed, but the majority of the people looked upon it as an act of persecution.

Elder Stevenson having been released from his mission, will soon start for home.

Your brother in the gospel,
P. P. PRATT.
