OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - JAN. 10, 1896.

Arrested for Forgery.

A gentleman came in from Salt Lake giving his name as Joseph Clark, and along with him came a check for $20 which he tried in half a dozen stores by making small purchases. The check, which was apparently made by W. H. Dodge of Salt Lake in favor of J. D. Clark, was drawn on the Ogden State bank. The police were notified and Clark was promptly arrested, soon after which a telephone message was received from Salt Lake to arrest just such a gentleman for obtaining $37 on a forged check.

Notes.

The sporting men of Ogden met at Browning's store and organized a State Sportsmen's association. J. M. Browning was elected president, G. L. Becker, vice-president, John Ledwidge, secretary, and Chris. Flygare, treasurer.

Mrs. Thomas Lundy, mother of ex-Mayor Lundy, died yesterday. Her remains will be shipped to Denver for interment; also Mrs. Lydia A. Raymond died at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. J. E. Coolage. Her remains will be buried in the family lot at Shrewsbury, Penn.

Bishop McQuarrie, who has had a severe attack of pneumonia, is recovering slowly.

John D. Fife has left for Arizona on a business trip.

J. M. Browning has gone East. His destination is Hartford, Conn.

A Mexican Patriot.

Juarez was a most remarkable man. He was a full-blooded Indian, born in a small town inhabited only by Indians, and where there was but one man—the parish priest—who spoke Spanish and could read and write. Juarez was so anxious to learn Spanish and to acquire an education, that he offered his services as a domestic to the priest, under condition that he should be taught. The priest found him so intelligent that he sent him to the adjoining city of Oaxaca to be educated. From such humble beginnings he rose to be a prominent lawyer and a foremost statesman. He was, at different times, secretary of state of his own state, member of the state legislature, state senator, governor of his state for several terms, representative to the Federal Congress, secretary of justice and of the interior, chief justice, vice president, and finally president of the republic. His principal characteristic were his profound conviction of liberal principles, his very clear mind, his remarkably good common sense, his great moral courage, his unimpeached integrity and honesty, his great patriotism, his tenacity of purpose and devotion to civil government. In time of war, when the destinies of the country were in his hands and often depended on the result of a battle, and when many others in his place would have led an army, he purposely abstained from exercising any military duties. These he left entirely to those of his associates who had shown talent for war, and he himself set the example of a purely civil government. He had as much personal courage as any man in the world. I saw him once facing death as near and sure as any man ever did, with perfect calmness and almost indifference, but without bravado. I am sure he felt that it is best for a patriot to die in the service of his country because in that case he wins for himself immortality, and on this theory I account for the fact that he was not afraid to die if he died in the performance of a patriotic duty. —North American Review for January.

Prospectus For Volume XVII, OF THE CONTRIBUTOR, 1895-6.

We are pleased to announce the following as some of the leading features of Volume Seventeen of THE CONTRIBUTOR. It is the determination to make this magazine occupy the front rank in our home literature, and we trust this effort will find encouragement in the liberal patronage of the public.

PRESIDENT JOSEPH F. SMITH will instruct and interest our readers with some articles descriptive of

Early Days in the Valley,

Which will contain reminiscences of his valuable though ofttimes trying experiences as a boy and man in Utah.

My First Mission,

Will be the title of some articles from the pen of APOSTLE FRANCIS M. LYMAN, wherein he will give an account of his interesting experience of traveling "without purse or scrip," and many marvelous incidents connected with his ministry abroad.

APOSTLE HEBER J. GRANT will narrate in a series of illustrated articles the incidents of a

Visit to the Moquis,

Made by himself and APOSTLE BRIGHAM YOUNG. These papers will portray in a remarkable manner the care and power of God which accompanied these Elders. The customs of this Indian tribe will also receive attention.

Salem Witchcraft.

A succinct historical account of this remarkable feature of New England colonial history; theories and explanations of its phenomena, offered by leading writers; treatment of the subject from the standpoint of a Latter-day Saint, by B. F. CUMMINGS, JR.

ELDER MARVIN E. PACK will prepare a series of illustrated and highly interesting papers on

The Sandwich Islands Country and Mission

These articles will give a brief historical account of this group of islands, review some of the customs of the people and describe the past labors of our missionaries and the present condition of the latter-day work.

Twelve papers will be furnished by ELDER JAMES H. WALLIS, on

The Consistencies of Mormonism.

These will be most ably written, and are designed to furnish arguments in favor of the truth for our missionaries and those who are called to defend our religion.

My School Days at Ann Arbor,

Will receive treatment by ELDER RICHARD R. LYMAN who recently graduated as a civil engineer from this noted Michigan school with high honors. These articles will be illustrated.

John Stevens' Courtship, A Tale of the Buchanan War,

Is the title of a deeply interesting serial story which will be continued through the whole volume; its author is our versatile and talented friend SUSA YOUNG GATES (HOMESPUN), whose already published narratives have been of so much interest.

Ideal Manhood: Some Suggestions About It.

This will be the title of some articles containing valuable suggestions to our young men who have an ambition to do or be something in the world. The author is a long resident of Utah, but desires his identity concealed and will consequently write under the nom de plume of SIMPLEX.

College Department.

The Latter-day Saints' College in Salt Lake City, will be represented by a department which will be supplied with essays and other articles from students and teachers. These productions will represent, as far as possible, the actual work of the college, and will pass through the hands of the Principal, who will see that everything used is of a high order.

The Musical Department

Will be in charge of PROFESSORS JOHN J. McCLELLAN and WILLARD DONE. A graded series of musical compositions, original and selected, will be published including solos, duets, quartettes and choruses chosen with special reference to their adaptability to M. I. A. work. Home composers are earnestly invited to send their productions to the editors of the department.

The Eisteddfod Prize Male Quartette,

For which THE CONTRIBUTOR gave a $25.00 cash prize, will appear in this volume of the magazine.

Association Intelligence.

In this department will appear all instructive or interesting matter pertaining to M. I. A. work, including answers to questions, reports, suggestions, etc. We particularly invite all active workers in the Associations to assist by their literary contributions in making this department of prime importance.

M. I. Manual, Part III,

By MILTON H. HARDY and GEORGE H. BRIMHALL, committee on compilation.

M. I. Work,

A series of articles on practical work in the Associations by MILTON H. HARDY and GEORGE H. BRIMHALL.

The Study of Self,

A series of articles by GEORGE H. BRIMHALL and MILTON H. HARDY.

Sermons and Writings from the Prophets,

By MILTON H. HARDY and GEORGE H. BRIMHALL.

Volume Seventeen will be beautifully illustrated with

Choice Original Engravings,

Representing scenes and incidents of great value to the progressive student.
