Want his Resignation, &c.

WASHINGTON, 22.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to day, by direction of the President, wrote a letter to Supervisor Hedricks, asking for his resignation.

The Treasury up to this time, has paid out, in exchange for fractional currency, over $200,000 in silver coin.

Blunder Remedied.

The law allowing private advances of the cost of government surveys to be credited when payment is made for the lands, was rendered nugatory in the revised statutes by the omission referring to the wrong section; many California settlers and townsite entries have therefore been refused any allowance for the money thus advanced. Sargent, two days ago, secured the passage by the Senate of his bill to correct this error, and Page, yesterday, put it through the House; it will therefore become law as soon as signed by the President.

More Immense Frauds to be Unearthed.

ST. LOUIS, 22.—Sergeant George Prender, in charge of the signal service station here, left for Washington last night, where he will testify before the committee on the expenditures of the Treasury Department. Before his departure he was interviewed by a Times' reporter, and he stated to him that he was public debt statement clerk under Secretary McCulloch, and that while there he discovered that great frauds were practised upon the government; that the public debt statement reported money in the Treasury that was not on hand, while the government was paying three per cent. for money to meet temporary necessities. He also discovered that hundreds of thousands of the government's money was placed in the hands of confederates outside the department, who loaned it back to the government as individual funds and drew interest on it. While pursuing these investigations Prender was informed by a clerk in the redemption bureau, named Richardson, that immense frauds were being perpetrated in that bureau; that fortunes were being made by reporting money destroyed which was preserved; that only half of the money turned in for destruction was actually destroyed, the other half being divided among the perpetrators of the fraud. Prender says he tried to have these frauds investigated a number of times, but failed. When Boutwell became Secretary of the Treasury, Prender informed him of these frauds, and the Secretary promised to investigate. Shortly after this a man named Fox, who had also been clerk in the redemption bureau, called on Prender, stating that he was appointed a detective by Secretary Boutwell to follow up these frauds, and wanted all the papers and evidence he had in his possession. Prender declined to give them up, except on an order from Boutwell. Fox returned with a letter from the Secretary asking for the documents, and Prender gave them to him in the presence of a witness, who knew their character. In the meanwhile Richardson, the man who informed Prender of the frauds in the redemption bureau had retired, and he was visited by Fox and although a Democrat, he was appointed assistant postmaster at Albany, and no investigation of the frauds was ever made.

Indian Skirmish.

The Globe-Democrat's Leavenworth special says that news from the seat of the Indian troubles in the Big Horn Country, is to the effect that the Cheyennes have broken up into small bands for marauding purposes. A Salt Laker Shot by Indians.

FORT LARAMIE, 23.—H. E. Brown, of Salt Lake, one of the proprietors of the Gilmore, Salisbury & Patrick stage line, is lying sixty miles from here, at Sage Creek, badly wounded; two ambulances and an escort have just been sent by General Bradley to bring him here, accompanied by acting Assistant Surgeon Pettys, of the U. S. A. Mr. Brown was shot by Indians on the night of the 21st. He was making a night trip on one of the fast freight wagons, and was sitting by the side of the driver; they were suddenly fired upon, a ball hitting Mr. Brown, near the front of the left hip, first striking the brass cartridge in his belt, carrying the cartridge into the wound with the ball, both remaining in his body, making a very bad case. He will reach here to-morrow night or Tuesday morning.

The Times Washington special says that Bristow refuses to surrender the original papers of his department to various Congressional committees, or to any one else, though willing to allow the committees to see them at the department.
