IT IS A CONSPIRACY.

Governor Routt Refuses the Extradition of Pearl Ashley.

HER ARREST WAS PART OF A JOB.

Some Highly Interesting Correspondence Which has Passed Between the Parties.

Love letters seldom are included among the papers which are filed away among the executive archives of the State, but yesterday a decidedly entertaining production was added to the documents in the governor's office. It is a leaf from a book of life that is not generally known or understood.

Some time ago an application was filed with the governor, asking that requisition papers be issued on the governor of Texas for the extradition of Miss Pearl Ashley, who was accused of stealing a diamond ring and $200 from George Geiss of Colorado City. Pearl had gone to Galveston, and a telegram sent to the chief of police of the deep Lone city caused her incarceration in jail to await the advent of Peter Eales who would bring her back to Colorado City. The complaint was sworn to by George Geiss and the papers were issued. Pearl hired an attorney at Galveston and got out of jail on a writ of habeas corpus and refused to accompany the officer. She addressed a petition to Governor Routt and enclosed a number of telegrams and a love letter written to her by Geiss, and on the strength of the documents the governor decided to recall the requisition papers. The petition and papers were forwarded through Governor Hogg of Texas.

A PET UP JOB.

In reply, the following letter was sent to him yesterday:

DENVER, Colo., May 22.

To His Excellency, Governor Hogg, Austin, Texas:

SIR—I am in receipt of your letter of the 16th instant inclosing papers for my information touching the matter of the apprehension by virtue of your executive warrant for rendition to the authorities of this state, upon my request herefore made, of one Pearl Ashley.

Upon examination and consideration of the facts submitted to me by your excellency, I am convinced that the person of whom because the aforesaid request was forwarded was and is actuated by other motives than to prosecute the said alleged fugitive for a violation of the law and that the said Ashley is probably not guilty of the alleged crime. You will, therefore, kindly proceed no further in the premises in compliance with said requisition papers, and I will thereupon give such directions to the authorities as will confer the consummation to proper and right.

Very respectfully,

J. L. ROUTT.

In the petition Pearl asserts that she had lived with Geiss for five months as his wife, and upon ascertaining that he had a wife living at Carthage, Mo., she left him and went to Texas. She asserted that she had to make a secret escape to get away from Colorado City to get away from Geiss, and she never stole anything from him. The diamond ring he had given her in exchange for a diamond stud. She had only $17 when she arrived in Galveston and neither she nor Geiss ever had $200 at any one time. She asserted that the complaint was founded in malice and offered the following telegrams to prove her side of the case, which were received by her at Galveston:

COLORADO CITY, May 4, 1891.

Pearl Ashley, Galveston, Tex.:

Pearl, come back with Pete. Forgive you for all. Cora very sick. Answer.

GEISS.

To this she replied:

GALVESTON, Tex., May 5, 1891.

To George Geiss, care Hoffman House, Colorado City:

In custody here through your action, which prevents my coming. If you desire my return, have complaints disclosed and reputation vindicated. Answer.

PEARL ASHLEY.

MODEL LOVE LETTER.

The following is the letter she sent, which was filed with the other papers:

COLORADO CITY, May 12.

Dear Pearl—As I have written you about a dozen letters, this is the last letter I am going to write to you. Now, Pearl, I merely want to explain a few facts to you about having me. You know you done wrong in the way you left me. I know at one time you asked me for money to go to Texas on and I refused you. That was after we had the fussing and I had you to wait until fall and I would go with you, but you had told me you were bound to go and you didn't leave everything pleasant, and didn't purchase you nicer than anybody's. Where was thrown a spring half equal to yours? Pearl, I merely want to explain a few facts to you about having me. You know you done wrong in the way you left me. I know at one time you asked me for money to go to Texas on and I refused you. That was after we had the fussing and I had you to wait until fall and I would go with you, but you had told me you were bound to go and you didn't leave everything pleasant, and didn't purchase you nicer than anybody's. Where was thrown a spring half equal to yours? Now, Pearl, I will do something now that no man on earth would do for you, and that is, I raise and leave you from all degrees and forgive you for all. By taking you as a life companion. I will then grant you your long sought for birth wishes by doing as I promised you. You can become Mrs. George Geiss tomorrow if you are here. We get married and settle down; and you shall be provided for and treated as a woman should be. I furnish you a neat little home or rent that room until fall. Just please yourself. I received my divorce papers today and I am a free man, and Pearl, I don't think there is a woman in the world that can ever take your place with me. And as soon as you come I will quit the Hoffman and go to work for Long, and I can get all nights and be with you more and make home more cheerful for you. Some day, Pearl, you think of all this, and this sporting life is not what it is cracked up to be. You are shortening your life day by day, and you can't stand it long, so take my advice. I am not an angel, but done some day you will find me a bosom friend, and this will come home to you if you don't mend your ways. As you are not to jail, I did not think it was best to let those people off lose. After your trial you will be clear. I understand you are at your uncle's house, so you are all O. K. and you can only see this opinion, but if you want me to, I will have you released at once. Johnny Nolan showed me your letter. If you had come back I would have furnished you bond until I had you released. Pearl, I like to see you come back. I know we can get along all right. I think by doing what I told you, we ought to square everything. And some day you will find me to be a dear friend than you give me credit for now. I feel no ill feeling as I couldn't realize how dear you were to me, until after you had left me, when it was too late. You might think awful for having you arrested, but I only done it to have you brought back to me. It is all over with now, and I am happy, and this is all. I think now, Pearl, we have had all the bad luck we can have and everything will be all right, and all our troubles have come to an end, so take my advice. Yes is easy to have you come home again.

Well, Pearl, you have my best wishes through life. So goodbye. Answer.

Respectfully, GEISS.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS

OH, MY BACK! STOP IT NOW, OR IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled with pains with disease of the kidneys, and have tried many different remedies and have sought and from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very severe attack that almost prostrated me to such a degree that I was laid over. When I can down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when a Providence led me to Dudley with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, to my book. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost instantaneous effect, and to the astonishment of all the people at the hotel, in a few days I was away on the state, that I was a new man. I can recommend the tea to all sufferers as I have done.

WHAT IS A GUARANTEE?

Many merchants and salesmen are in the habit of indiscriminately "guaranteeing" their wares with no thought of being called upon to make the "guarantee" good. It is a pernicious and foolish custom more respected in the breach than in the observance.

A guarantee, to have any value, should be made with knowledge of the meaning of the word and a set purpose to carry out the terms of the guarantee. On fine tools the makers instruct us to warrant, and we repeatedly find fault imperfect in use.

We have used our best judgment, acquired by a considerable experience, in selecting the following items for our stock and sell them to our customers with an absolute guarantee that if they do not prove to be all that we represent them, we will refund the purchase money in full.

"Jewel" Steel Ranges. A finished article, perfectly proportioned, made of the best material. Don't fail to see it. It will pay you.

"Quick Meal" No Generator, Evaporating. Light it as you do your gas burner. No smell. No danger. No complication. Every objection to the use of a Gasoline Stove done away with. Think of the discomfort caused in Summer by enduring the heat of a big Kitchen Range.

"Superior" Cooks and Ranges. Superior as bakers. Superior in economy of fuel. Superior in design. Superior in construction. Superior in everything that goes to make a perfect cooking apparatus.

The "Foote Refrigerators." An Ice saver. A Health preserver. Cellular stone lined. What is it? Investigate it. It will sometimes repay you.

Our stock of Builders' Hardware, House Furnishings, Garden Hose, Lawn Sprinklers, Lawn Mowers, etc., is complete in every detail.
