OGDEN.

Ex-Senator Edmunds.—The Borel Case.—Gored by a Cow.—A Seducer.

Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, passed through Ogden on his way east yesterday. He has been on the Pacific coast for the past month, but did not find time to stop off in Utah.

J. C. Davidson, a young man employed by Backelew Brothers, and running on the Rio Grande Western between Ogden and Grand Junction, was arrested at Ogden yesterday on a charge of fornication. He accompanied by a New York girl, a sixteen-year-old girl, a member of an honorable and respected family.

The arguments in the Borel murder trial occupied the whole day yesterday in the Fourth district court and were continued today.

A thirteen-year-old son of George Harris received serious injuries yesterday from an infuriated cow, and may lose one of his legs. He was playing with the cow's young calf, when the cow rushed furiously at him, goring him in the groin, tearing a hole several inches long and about three inches deep. The boy came near dying from loss of blood. His wound is regarded as dangerous.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, May 22, 1893.—There is a new flag in town. It is the royal banner of Spain, and it proudly floats in the balmy May breeze, in full view of the White House, and yet the most intense American has no criticism to make because of its presence. It flies over the hotel at which is quartered the royal representatives of one of the oldest courts in the world—that of Spain, to which this continent owes an everlasting debt of gratitude for having furnished Columbus the means to discover a country destined to become, not only greater than Spain, but greater than any other country in the world. The royal party is headed by the Infanta Eulalia, who visits us as the proxy of the queen regent of Spain, who was by special act of Congress invited to grace our Columbian Exposition with her presence. None of the perpetrators which noddle-headed toadies predicted would follow the arrival of the Infanta and her party have materialized. She has been treated with all the courtesy due a lady, and she has shown herself sensible enough not to expect any royal flapdoodle in a country where royalty is unknown, although every honest man is a king and every virtuous woman a queen.

She was met at the railroad station by Secretary Gresham, as the personal representative of the President, and escorted by two troops of U. S. cavalry to quarters that for luxurious furnishings and mostly magnificence are doubtless fully equal to those to which she is accustomed at home. Saturday morning, accompanied by her husband and the rest of her suite, the gentlemen being in full court costume, the Infanta made a formal visit to President and Mrs. Cleveland, and delivered the verbal message with which she had been entrusted by the Queen Regent. Saturday afternoon Mrs. Cleveland, accompanied by all of the ladies of the cabinet who are in town, returned the visit. Tomorrow evening a state dinner will be given by President and Mrs. Cleveland in honor of the country's royal guests. On Thursday the Infanta and her party will go to New York to remain several days, after which they will go to the World's Fair to remain as long as may suit their convenience.

From the time the party stepped aboard the U. S. dispatch boat Dolphin in New York harbor, they became the guests of the U. S. government and until they shall take their departure from our shores every expense incurred in their entertainment will be paid by Uncle Sam, who, although not royal, is rich, and beats a more hospitable heart than ever beat in any king's breast. He has placed all his broad possessions at the disposal of Eulalia and her party, and if they don't see just what they want they have only to ask for it and it will be forthcoming.

About 600 delegates are in attendance upon the hundred and fifth general assembly of the Presbyterian church in North America, which has been in session here since last Thursday, and will probably continue a week or ten days longer. No better evidence could be given of the great public interest in this gathering than the fact that two Washington daily papers are printing full stenographic reports of its proceedings. The celebrated case of Dr. Briggs will be settled by this assembly.

It is now certain that the unregistered Chinese will not be deported, unless Congress appropriates a large amount of money, the administration having decided that it would require all the money now available to deport those Chinamen who are in the United States in violation of the act of 1884.

Senator Jones, of Nevada, who is ranked among the ablest advocates of the free coinage of silver, says that he does not believe that the Sherman silver law can be repealed at the coming session of Congress, unless an agreement be reached upon a substitute that will add an equal or a larger amount of money to that in circulation. He thinks the greatest panic this country has ever seen would follow its repeal without providing something to take its place. He also thinks the present financial troubles should be an object lesson to the whole world which ought to bear good fruits.

According to a decision of the U. S. Supreme Court, dealing in options on the future delivery of cotton is not gambling, or at least that it was not gambling in the particular case involved in that suit, which was brought by a New York firm (brokers) against an Alabama customer who had been speculating in cotton for future delivery, through them, for $20,000, commissions and money advanced. The decision was that the whole transaction was but a series of wagers, and therefore illegal. The court decided the whole transaction legal and the customer will have to pay his losses.

THE DEEP CREEK COMMITTEE.

Progress Reported at the Meeting Held Last Evening.

There was a fair attendance at the meeting of the committee of local boards on the Salt Lake and Pacific railway last evening. Complete reports were not made, but those presented showed that a little in excess of $700,000 had been subscribed, and prospects were very favorable for raising the balance.

Only a small proportion of the committees had engaged in active work, and it was suggested that an actual working committee of twenty could do more than had been accomplished by the 60. This had been demonstrated in the results achieved by those who had engaged actively in the canvass.

There was considerable said on the topic of getting at the work more thoroughly, and the effect of this was that those present unanimously pledged themselves to engage in the house-to-house canvass for subscriptions.

Each member of the committee was urged to attend the Choral society festival at the Theater on Saturday night, as the proceeds were to go to the aid of the Deep Creek road. An invitation was extended to the Business Men's association and Real Estate exchange members to also attend.

Mr. Wantland reported that a circular had been sent to non-resident taxpayers asking them to contribute.

The meeting was adjourned till next Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, when a full report of the canvassers is expected.

As an after dinner coffee you will be pleased with Gold Band.

New and Fast Service to the World's Fair.

Commencing May 7th, the new time card on the Rio Grande Western becomes effective. The time on the night train is shortened eight hours, improving the service in all respects on both through trains. The schedule is arranged as follows: Morning train leaves Salt Lake at 8:05 a.m., arrives in Denver at 7:45 a.m., or a fraction over 23 hours, arrives in Chicago at 2:15 p.m. The night train leaves at 7:20 p.m. (instead of 8:25 p.m. as formerly), arrives Denver at 9:40 p.m., Omaha 4:00 p.m., Kansas City 8:00 a.m., St. Louis 7:00 a.m.; Chicago 8:00 a.m. Through Pullman Palace Double Drawing Room Sleepers to Chicago. This is great service and commends itself to the traveling public who seek speed, safety, and last, but not least, comfort. While this fast and elegant service has been put on mainly to accommodate the large World's Fair travel over the Rio Grand Western line, it has come to stay, and will be a permanent schedule.

Hood's Cures

Saved From the Grave

Scrofula in Face and Neck—Blind at Times

Hood's Sarsaparilla Restored Health—Gained 32 Pounds in Weight.

Mr. Wm. Frick
West Duluth, Minn.

"I have been a very great sufferer from a scrofulous disease of scrofula. First, a large bunch came to my neck growing as big as a good sized egg. It was as hard as bone, and after enduring it for a year the doctor lanced it, and for two years

It Was a Running Sore

Then we succeeded in healing it up, but the disease began to appear in my face, which would swell up and affect my eyes so that every morning they were so puffed and swollen that I was blind. The swelling would recede in the middle of the afternoon so that I could see a little. Well, I was in this condition for about a year. I went to every physician in my town, all of whom failed to help me and said nothing could be done to cure me. But I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had used a bottle and a half the swelling in my face had entirely gone down. I went on taking the medicine, and gained 32 pounds in weight.

I Have Been Perfectly Cured

and now in good health, and confidently say Hood's Sarsaparilla saved me from the grave. Today I am looking as stout and hearty as one
