VERSES

Written in Affectionate Remembrance of WILLIAM BRAMALL, JR., who was Accidentally Poisoned, at Tintic, June 1, 1873, aged 21 years.

Most sad, dear brother, was your fate,
When scarce arrived at man's estate,
When just in earnest, starting life,
In company with a loving wife.
'Twould surely grieve a heart of stone,
To see your hopes crushed at the dawn;

To see your youthful consort mourn,
Her fondest hopes so rudely torn;
Your parents' grief, too deep for speech,
To see their boy beyond their reach;
Brothers and sisters, young in years,
Expressing woe in sighs and tears.

True eloquence is heard and seen
Where joys lie ruined fresh and green,
And friends and neighbors feel the smart
Resistless run from heart to heart.
In sympathy they sigh and weep,
Partaking of the sorrow deep.

But yet 'tis useless to lament;
Reluctantly all must consent
To lay him in his narrow bed,
To join the legions of the dead;
There wait till Gabriel's trump shall sound,
To wake the sleepers under ground.

Then will the Priesthood's power appear,
And friends regain their loved ones dear;
"King Death" no more his sceptre sway
Throughout a blest eternal day,
For Christ has promised to restore
Who die in him, to die no more.

Then, friends and relatives, forbear
To weep for him, as in despair;
Repress your sighs and dry your tears;
For you the Bow of Peace appears;
Ere many fleeting years at most,
You'll meet him in the "ransomed host."

Oh! what a glorious hope is ours,
That, by the Priesthood's keys and powers,
And "ordinances" great and pure,
We may "eternal lives" secure,
Reclaim our dead from Death's embrace,
Behold our loved ones face to face.

Lord, comfort thou the wife distressed,
His parents, relatives, the rest
Who mourn instinctively to see
Death in his dreadful majesty;
Help them to think 'tis perhaps the best
That he so soon went to his rest.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

EASTERN.

CHICAGO, 16.—A Decatur, Ills., dispatch tells a remarkable story of wholesale murder by a female poisoner. Last September, A. W. Drake, a farmer, living near Moamequa, Ills, died under suspicious circumstances, and Mrs. York, his mother-in-law and housekeeper, was suspected of having had something to do with his sudden death, but no steps were taken to investigate the matter, and Mrs. York went to live with a son in Kansas, where a few days since she was taken ill, and the physician summoned to her aid told her she was poisoned, and had but a few hours to live. Facing inevitable death she made a confession which exposed to the world a fiend incarnate. She confessed to having poisoned her husband in 1865, Mrs. A. W. Drake, her own daughter, the two children of A. W. Drake, the wife of E. R. Drake, formerly of this city, and last September A. W. Drake. She then went to her son's and, a short time ago, made a mixture of poison to administer to him on the first opportunity. Feeling unwell a day or two afterwards, she went to the cupboard, and, by mistake, took the fatal dose prepared for her own son, which resulted in her own death.

BELFAST, 16.—Almon Gordon, his wife and child, were found murdered in bed, at Thorndike, eighteen miles from here, this a.m.

MONTPELIER, Vt.—At Calais Place, twelve miles from here, yesterday, a boat filled with pleasure seekers, sailing on a pond, was overturned and five persons drowned and five others rescued in an unconscious State.

BELFAST, Maine.—A brother of Almond Gordon has been arrested on a charge of killing him, his wife and child last night, and setting fire to their house; a dispute about a piece of property is said to be the cause.

NORWICH, Conn., 16.—Three men have been arrested, charged with placing obstructions and throwing trains from the track of the Norwich and Worcester railroad.

WASHINGTON, 16. — Attorney General Williams has received an official telegram from New Orleans, from Governor Kellog, in which the latter contradicts the report of an interview with him, and says my requisition calling on the President was fully justified, and the President's proclamation has had the most salutary effect in all respects. He says the taxes are being paid more rapidly than ever before in Louisiana. After providing for the January and February interest, we have over $45,000 in State funds to-night in the hands of the fiscal agents. We will pay the March, April and June coupons early in July, that injunctions only restrain the payment of the interest on five series of bonds out of twenty-five; there is money enough to pay the interest on all the bonds in the hands of the fiscal agents.

WASHINGTON, 16.—Commander Green has been ordered to the command of the vessel, to be despatched for the discovery and relief of the Polaris, with Lt. Commander White as executive officer. The Secretary is making selection of a vessel suitable for arctic navigation. Efforts are being made to start the expedition early in July. The Juniata is taking out her guns, and they are provisioning her for a voyage of inquiry, and she may leave for the north the latter part of this week.

BOSTON.—Hon. Moses Bates, a prominent member of the Democratic party, and for some years chairman of its state central committee, died at his home at East Bridgewater, this a.m.

MEXICO, Mo.—A fire broke out here yesterday and destroyed seven stores; loss $30,000.

MEMPHIS.—The weather is unfavorable for the prevailing epidemic. There were nineteen interments today, sixteen of whom died of cholera and cholera infantum. The city council have established a board of health.

NASHVILLE.—Thirty-two deaths from cholera have been reported since Saturday; most of the victims are colored.

LITTLE ROCK.—The court house with all the records of Green county were burned on the night of the 12th inst.

NEW YORK.—The old steamer Kill Von Kull, exploded her boiler this a.m., when loaded with passengers from Elizabethport and other landings on the Kills. The entire boat was filled with steam and great alarm prevailed, but the passengers were all taken off uninjured. The vessel sustained little damage.

The National Division of the Sons of Temperance will hold their 29th annual session here on Wednesday next; representatives will be present from all the States and Canada.

The Boston letter of the Springfield Republican says there has been much anxiety the past week among the few who have known the facts concerning the alarming illness of vice-President Wilson. His attack was followed by partial deafness, and partial blindness, and the general character of his symptoms was such as to threaten the loss of his power and activity, if not his life; he is now improving, but is by no means out of danger. He has been sojourning in Boston for some weeks under the care of Dr. E. H. Clark, and has seen very few of his friends. His incessant labors in the last election, followed by the strain and anxiety of last winter, and accompanied by a good deal of work on his Anti-Slavery history, are regarded as the immediate occasion of his present illness.

Ubassy, the celebrated French billiardist, arrived to-day, from Chicago, to join in the grand international billiard tournament, which begins at Irving Hall on the 23rd. The game to be played is the three ball carom game. Several rich prizes are offered, and all the billiard experts in the country are expected to take part.

WESTERN.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Rev. Dr. Stone delivered a sermon last night on the Chinese question, taking the ground against their exclusion and persecution.

D. O. Mills has resigned the presidency of the Bank of Cuba.

SACRAMENTO, 16.—The coroner's jury in the case of the boy Boitano, whose body was found in the river on Sunday evening, returned a verdict of accidental death from drowning.

The one thousand dollar running race, proposed by the lessee of the Agricultural Park course, was filled with eight or ten entries. It takes place June 20th.

Nuhiva, a Kanaka, stabbed by a fellow-countrywoman two weeks since, died in the county hospital on the 13th, from the effects of the injuries.

C. S. Brana, found on the street dangerously shot, and who said he fell from his horse and was wounded by his own pistol, proves to have been shot by another Italian, his former business partner, whom the police have under arrest.

SAN FRANCISCO, 16.—E. J. Given was divorced from G. M. Dexter, to-day, on his application. He married her twelve years since, but recently learned that she was all the time the wife of W. J. Given, never having been divorced from him.

A forged draft for $860 was presented to the United States subtreasury to-day, for payment; but the forgery was discovered. It is thought that there are others circulating here.

The committee of 300 and the committee of 200, on the fourth of July, met this afternoon for the purpose of effecting a compromise. General Cazneau offered to resign as President of the Day if the committee of 300 would accept Jacob Deeth as Grand Marshal. The proposition was accepted, and Jacob Deeth was then unanimously elected Grand Marshal. Judge Thompson was elected President of the Day and the conference broke up amidst great good humor and hearty cheers.

HAMILTON, Nev., 16.—This a.m. James Logan, one of the oldest miners in Eastern Nevada, put in a charge of Giant powder, which failed to explode. Logan attempted to pick it out, when it exploded, tearing off one arm and totally destroying his eye sight. He will probably recover.

WEST INDIES.

HAVANA, 13.—A detachment of ninety soldiers was surprised by insurgents, under Sangiuli, near Yucatan, and forty killed, including the commanding officer.
