EVENING NEWS.

Monday, August 20, 1883.

Correspondence.

BUCKHORN SPRING,
Iron Co., Utah, Aug. 17, 1883.

Editor Deseret News:

Last evening we held a meeting at Parowan, before the close we organized a branch bee-keeper's association, as there is considerable interest taken in bee culture in this county. I visited an apiary of Mr. Thomas Yardley, who began bee-keeping three years ago, with three swarms and now has 58, and has sold 24 hives during the time of his keeping bees. Last year he took 3,370 lbs. of honey, and this year, so far, 3,000 lbs. Sister Annie Fowler, a widow, has about 30 swarms of bees, and has helped others; advising, extracting honey, etc., and has built an addition to her comfortable home, and this through her bee industry. Brother Wm. Holyoke is also interested; Sister W. Marsden and others are also advancing the cause. Brother John Eyre, who is kindly taking me to Beaver City, says there are many taking an interest in bees; one of his neighbors has sold $100 worth of bees raised this year. The officers of the organization are: Wm. Marsden, president; Wm. Holyoke, 1st vice-president; Thos. Yardley, 2nd vice-president; Bishop Stone E. Dalley, secretary.

☞ There is an abundance of bee pasture in Parowan and vicinity, as sweet clover and Rocky Mountain bee plant exists in great abundance. Foul brood is not known to exist in this part of the Territory.

While visiting St. George, Washington County, Elder Gates and I visited the Temple, which so prominently appears just on entering St. George, and as it has been renovated outside as well as inside, the beautiful snow-white structure leads one to reflection on heavenly things. The beautiful tabernacle with town clock in its lofty tower, and the creditable court house, with many handsome residences, speak well for the people of that place; but most of the wealth to construct those improvements has been brought from the north. Lack of water, which appears to become still scarcer, is an impediment to the spread of the city, and the treacherous Rio Virgen and its sandy ditches seem to be an everlasting expense and annoyance to the hard workers of Dixie.

Elder Gates assisted by myself has effected the locating and organization of the Seventies of Southern Utah, south of Millard County, except Pine Valley, which President Gates will soon complete. On my return trip I have held meetings at Toquerville, Kanarra, Cedar City, Parowan and Beaver City. A very good spirit prevails, with kind expressions of Presidents of Stakes and Bishops of Wards, for the further organization and locating of the Seventies.

Yours truly,
EDWARD STEVENSON.

Little But Good.

A SPECIMEN HOTEL CLERK IN THE BLUE GRASS REGION.

"Well," said a well-known Evansville tourist to us the other day, "I've traveled a good deal in Kentucky and it isn't a particularly quiet country for a man to move about in. The better sort of people there, mind you, are as nice folks as you would meet with anywhere, but the roughs are about as rough as they make them. They have a way, too, of introducing a pistol into an argument which is not appreciated by the colder spirits of the North."

"Did you ever get into any trouble?"

"Once when I was staying at Lexington, I had a rather unpleasant adventure."

"Let us have it, by all means."

"I noticed a big tough fellow come into the hotel and pay for a bed. He was as ugly a looking brute as ever I saw. Wore a black patch over his eye, and had his baggy jeans stuffed into his boots like a regular dime novel border ruffian. I came at once to the conclusion that it would be healthy to keep out of that fellow's way, and I confess that I was surprised that such a bully would be accepted as a guest at a firstclass hotel.

"The next morning I was up early. It was a little chilly, and I took a chair by the stove while they got breakfast ready. I hadn't been there more than five minutes before in walked the very fellow I wished to avoid, and he drew a chair up and sat down beside me.

"'Say, stranger, how about them trains for Danville?'

"'I do not know anything about the trains,' said I, rather stiffly.

"Then I got up and took a chair near the door. There was no one in the office but a dapper little clerk, a chirpy little fellow about five feet high and very girlish in appearance.

"The obnoxious Kentuckian came and squatted down in a chair beside me. I felt myself getting hot and cold with vexation, but knowing that I would have no chance in a personal encounter with such a giant, prudence suggested that I act quietly. Then he drew out of his pocket a dirty piece of tobacco which looked as though he had half chewed it with his wolfish fangs.

"'Hev a chaw, stranger?'

"'Thank you; I never chew.'

"'Now, see here, yer darned stuck-up Northern cuss. Think yer can come down here and show off yer high-toned airs. Guess yer'll swaller that lump of 'bacca, or I'll——'

"What he would have done I do not known, for in an instant, with all the litbe activity of a panther, that little clerk sprang over the counter with a big navy revolver in his hand and every hair of his head bristling like the back of a terrier in a dog fight.

"'Get out of this, you brute, or I'll blow the roof of your head off.'

"The bully, savage look vanished from his face, and like a whipped hound he slunk backward out of the door, only saying in a meek, shamefaced manner, 'Don't shoot, mister; for God's sake, don't shoot; I war only foolin'.'

"Then, when the door was slammed to on the figure of the retreating bully, the clerk turned to me and said in the most polite and indifferent manner: 'I think, sir, you'll find your breakfast ready.'

"Yes, they often wrap up first class goods in little parcels."

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

San Francisco, 18.—Up to this evening no applications have been made for positions by striking operators to the telegraph company. One of the strikers says they will apply in a body on Monday, asking the superintendent to reinstate them all.

Chicago, 18.—Striking telegraph operators kept applying for work at the office of the Western Union in small squads up to 1 o'clock, when a stampede occurred, and from that on till a late hour in the afternoon, the hallway leading to the office of Superintendent Tubbs was crowded. A number of those applying were refused places for reasons best known to the officials. Practically the entire working force of the Baltimore & Ohio Company was taken back intact.

About 100 operators met at Uhlich's Hall at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when the leaders acknowledged their cause was lost, and advised the men to seek work. The Chicago office is now fully manned.

Philadelphia, 18.—Nineteen strikers engaged this afternoon will be placed on duty Monday. Five or six others will leave for Chicago to morrow. The remainder of those who made application for reinstatement were notified to call on Manager Jones on Monday.

San Francisco, 18.—Mrs. Fair, the divorced wife of Senator Fair, is going to construct a large residence, and the millionaire, Flood, is also about commencing the erection of what he says will be the handsomest and most costly private residence in the United States. It will be of brown stone brought from Eastern quarries, and will cost when completed, it is estimated, three and a half millions, not including the value of the ground.

Chicago, 18.—An over zealous janitor of a Chicago National Bank came near being lynched by an excited crowd this evening, having been detected in the act of forcing his way into the main banking room. He had locked himself out, and was anxious to retrieve his blunder to the extent of battering down some of the transoms. His identity was discovered after he had been roughly handled by the crowd.

Montreal, 18.—Directors of the Canadian Pacific Railroad are said to be negotiating for an outlet to the Atlantic in winter by the St. Johnsbury & Lake Champlain and Portland & Ogdensburg roads. The junction would take place at Rouse's Point.

A meeting called for to-day of the directors of the Southeastern Railway is postponed until Tuesday next, to afford time for an answer from the Chapman syndicate, which was to hold a meeting in New York about the purchase of the road to-day.

STRENGTH

to vigorously push a business, strength to study a profession, strength to regulate a household, strength to do a day's labor without physical pain. All this represents what is wanted, in the often heard expression, "Oh! I wish I had the strength." If you are broken down, have not energy, or feel as if life was hardly worth living, you can be relieved and restored to robust health and strength by taking BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, which is a true tonic—a medicine universally recommended for all wasting diseases.

501 N. Fremont St., Baltimore
During the war I was injured in the stomach by a piece of a shell, and have suffered from it ever since. About four years ago it brought on paralysis, which kept me in bed six months, and the best doctors in the city said I could not live. I suffered fearfully from indigestion, and for over two years could not eat solid food and for a large portion of the time was unable to retain even liquid nourishment. I tried Brown's Iron Bitters and now after taking two bottles I am able to get up and go around and am rapidly improving.
G. DECKER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is a complete and sure remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Weakness and all diseases requiring a true, reliable, non-alcoholic tonic. It enriches the blood, gives new life to the muscles and tone to the nerves.
